Respected Researchers,

We are newly Scopus indexed journal from 2020 to present, and we are pleased to inform that you may now submit your manuscripts for the upcoming Issue of July, 2022. You can visit the journal website for further information at the following link:

<http://revista.unicuritba.edu.br/index.php/RIMA/index>

The Journal of International Relations (Relacoes Internacionais no Mundo Atual) is a peer-reviewed journal, edited by Centro Universitário (Unicuritba), launched in 2001. It follows an editorial policy that seeks to provide a space for different scientific, theoretical, empirical and conjectural research, to facilitate the exchange of information on political science, social science and international relations with Latin America and the world; it also intends to provide inputs to analyze, evaluate and propose public policies that are more coherent with social realities and incorporate different contents that stimulate new research agendas. The journal accepts manuscripts from the fields of Social Sciences, International Relations, Political Science and Law. Please see the following link for Scopus information:
