ACKNOWLEDGMENT

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

In the name of Allah, the most merciful and generous

All praise be to Allah, the writer expresses his praise to the Almighty God, for His Blessing, Mercy and Guidance, so that the writer could start and finish writing this thesis as a partial fulfillment of the requirements for degree of Sarjana Theologi Islam (S.Th.I) at the Tafsir Hadis Department of Ushuluddin and Philosophy Faculty, State Islamic University of (UIN) Alauddin, Makassar.

Bless be upon, also to the prophet Mohammed p.b.u.h., who has taken us from the darkness to the lightness by Islamic Teaching.

The writer realizes that this thesis could have not been finished without assistance, guidance, encouragement and correction from many people. Therefore, the writer would like to express his deepest appreciation and thanks to those people who have helped him in completing this thesis.

First, Prof. Dr. H. Azhar Arsyad as the rector of UIN Alauddin Makassar, Prof. Dr. H. Musafir, M.Si., as the Dean, Prof. Dr. H. Arifuddin Ahmad, M.Ag., Dra. Hj. Aisyah, M.Ag., Drs. H. Muh. Nasir Siola, MA., as assistants of Dean of Ushuluddin and Philosophy Faculty, who have given him any help to get education. Dr. H. Mahmuddin, M.Ag. the head of Tafsir Hadis Department and Dewi Anggariani, S.Sos., M.Si. as secretary, and all lecturers at UIN Alauddin Makassar for their guidance to the writer during the years of his study.

Second, Prof. Dr. Mardan, M.Ag. and Drs. H. Sadik Sabry, M.Ag., as the supervisors, who have spent much of their time in encouraging, advising and guiding the writer to complete this thesis.

Third, Head of library of UIN Alauddin Makassar and all staff who have provided valuable research materials of the writer.

Fourth, the writer's Parents for enabling him to finish this thesis "A Darussalam T and A Nuraeni" who always pray, educate, encourage and provide material support, so that the writer could finish this thesis. Besides, also thanks to the writer's sisters, who always gives him many kinds of spirit, material support, love and praying in finishing his study.

The last but not least, all of the writer's friends at Tafsir Hadis special program Ushuluddin and Philosophy Faculty UIN Alauddin, who have accompanied him and studied together, helped him solve problems and gave him attention and motivation during his study.

The writer is responsible for remaining weakness of this work and realize indeed that what he presents in this thesis is still far from being perfect. Therefore, criticism and suggestion will surely be welcome and appreciated.

Finally, may Allah bless all who seek His blessings, accept their efforts, and reward them.

Title : "The Concept of al-Kanz in the Qur'ān (The Thematic Analysis of Qur'ānic Verses)"

UNIVERSITAS ISLAM NEGERI

M A K A S S A R

The Quran is the unalterable word of God and the final revelation to the last Prophet Mohammed p.b.u.h., which affirms all the earlier divine scriptures. Prophet Mohammed p.b.u.h. said that: "the best of you is who has learnt and then taught the Quran".

The Quran deals with many subjects in classical Arabic, in a highly moving language. It blends creeds, morals, creation, laws, rituals, philosophy, life and death, and history all in the form of a book. In addition, it does it with a unique literary style unlike any other book. Much has been written about this unique style and many scholars have dedicated their lives, over the centuries, to this subject.

This thesis is a study of al-Kanz, a human effort to collect as many treasures as possible. The principal issue is about the views of the Qur'an on human tendency to gather a lot of treasure. This issue is seen from economic approach and discussed using thematic approach (mauẓiy method). The use of thematic approach by synthesizing logical themes, helps us to comprehend the Quran's message by avoiding pitfalls and misuse of phrases by picking them out of context: it provides the complete picture of a theme. This approach organizes subject matter around major or unifying themes, thus, building them into a whole and enabling the readers to make important connections between them. A thematic approach more closely approximates the human experience of how things happen than looking at information in isolation.

The encouragement to fulfill the needs of life is human nature. This also applies to, human effort to acquire treasure. Therefore, it is natural when people are not hindered to gather treasure, and not prevented from trying to acquire such treasure.

The Qur'an never restricts a person to gain treasure as much as possible, what is limited is how to acquire such treasure and how to use it. Human effort to get the treasure should be based on the guidance of the Qur'an, such as honesty, fairness, openness and willingness to avoid a disgraceful things like lying, cheating and so on.

Similarly, the use of treasure, must also be based on the guidance of the Qur'an, such as giving livelihood assistance (nafkah) to the parents, the relatives, the poor, orphans and the people in transit, and preventing ourselves from arrogance and showing off treasure.

CHAPTER I INTRODUCTION

A. Background

The Qur'an is the Holy Book, which is the word of God, the words of Allah (kal±m Allah) revealed to Prophet Mohammed p.b.u.h. The main purpose of the revelation of the Qur'an is to guide people in the world and hereafter.¹

The Qur'an is itself attributed as al-kit±b (book);² hudan (instructions)³ for humans and cautious people, furq±n (distinguishing between good and evil, between the real and the imaginary, between an

These names and attributes explicitly indicate that the Qur'ān is the dimension of scripture.

Therefore, although the Qur'ān is a religious book, its talk and contents are not limited to pure religious fields. It covers various aspects of human life. The Qur'ān is not a book of philosophy and science but it includes discussion of the problems on philosophy and science.

The name of al-kitāb itself, even Umm al-kitāb, which is ascribed to the Qur'ān, according to Seyyed Hossein Nasr, indicates that the Qur'ān is the prototype of every book that symbolizes knowledge¹⁰, guiding us in our conduct toward God, other people and toward ourselves.¹¹

One of the main issues discussed by the Qur'ān is a treasure. By nature, human beings depend on treasure to fulfill their needs, primary, secondary, or tertiary¹². Therefore, someone will be encouraged to collect treasure and to use it to fulfill the necessities of life¹³. So, it is not surprising if the issue of treasure is always discussed by various layers of society, because the treasure is collected and used in many ways to follow the progress of science and technology.

One of the words that shows the meaning of treasure in the Qur'ān is al-Kanz. The word “Kanz” is derived from the word ka-na-za كـنـز, which means piling up treasure, partly on top of one another¹⁴. The word “Kanz” also means collected treasure so that it becomes much. Besides, the word “Kanz” can also be interpreted as something very valuable. In this sense, phrase of “al qan±’ah kanz la yafwa” (القناعة كنز لا يفو) refers to inner satisfaction which is invaluable and unlimited.

To get a clear explanation of al-Kanz, we have to understand the verses related to al-Kanz. The word “Kanz” is mentioned 9 times¹⁵ in the Qur’±n, once in the form of fi’il m±‘i (past tense), twice in the form of fi’il mudhari (present tense) and 6 times in the form of masdar (noun). The nine Kanz words are found within seven verses of the Qur’±n. Other words that convey the same meaning as “Kanz” are qinth±r (قنطار) and amw±l (أموال). Both of words have a closer meaning to Kanz.

To fulfill the growing needs that also follow the demands of socio-cultural development, people are encouraged to collect and produce materials through the exploration of natural resources¹⁶, such as agriculture, animal husbandry, mining, and trade¹⁷. However, the desire to collect as many treasures as possible to enjoy this life, sometimes leads someone to breach the boundaries of ethics and morals, thus damages both themselves and society.

The contents of the Qur'ān have many miracles and uniqueness, because Allah revealed the Qur'ān with all His greatness and to be the source of constitution and guidance and to expound a comprehensive system and practical methodology for life.¹⁸

Discussing Qur'ānic phenomenon is the most important, so a comprehensive study is needed to explore it. Initially, the scholars had use global method (al-tafsīr al-ijmāli) to study the Qur'ān but such a method is not satisfying, so they change it to analysis method (al-tafsīr al-tahlīlī).

However, it also has not found the maximal result yet then the scholars have discussed it with comparison method (al-tafsīr al-muqārin), it is comparing some verses of the Qur'ān, the verses and hadith (prophet tradition) and some of Qur'ānic exegesis books¹⁹, and again no comprehensive view is found.

Finally, the thematic method is applied which is discussing a topic by collecting related verses.²⁰ This method is considered as the most comprehensive one, which is used to discuss some problems in the Qur'ān.

B. Problem Statements

Based on the background above, the writer formulates the problem statements as follows:

1. What is the substance of al-kanz?
2. What are the forms of al-kanz in the Qur'ān?
3. How is the implementation of al-kanz in social life?

C. Defenition of Terms

The title of this thesis is "The Concept of al-Kanz in the Qur'ān (The Thematic Analysis of Qur'ānic Verses)". In order to make the title clear, the writer presents the definition of terms as follows:

1. Concept: is a general notion or idea, an idea of something formed by mentally combining all its characteristic, or particular.²¹

²¹ n.p., Webster's Encyclopedic Unabridged Dictionary of the English Language, (Portland House: New York, 1989), p. 304.

2. Al-kanz: is derived from ك-ن-ز, which means to collect something²²; endure²³; to hoard, amass, accumulate, treasure, (up), heap up, pile up, collect, gather.²⁴
3. Al-Qur'ân: is etymologically, derived from قرأ- يقرأ. It is an infinitive form, which means 'to read'.²⁵ It is called 'the Qur'ân' because it is actually read by mouth. Terminologically, the Qur'ân is the glorious book revealed by God.²⁶ According to majority of the scholars of Qur'ânic studies, the Qur'ân is the glorious book revealed to Mohammed (p.b.u.h) through angel Gabriel and reading it is considered a worship.²⁷
4. Thematic exegesis (al-Tafsîr al-Maudhû'î): is a method used to interpret the contents of the Qur'ân. Its explanation is related to certain themes of life, mind and social or nature from all aspects of the Qur'ân,²⁸ or the explanation of the theme through the verses of the Qur'ân in one surah or certain surah. Most of Qur'anic scholars say that: "al-Tafsîr al-Maudhû'i is a knowledge which includes the cases according to the intention of the Qur'ân through one or more surah."²⁹

Therefore, the significance of this research is a general descriptive about the essence of al-kanz in the Qur'ân. The meaning of al-kanz is easy to understand and to formulate conception after studying the verses of the Qur'ân which use the term of al-kanz and its forms. Thus, the scope of this research is a study about Qur'anic concept of al-kanz.

D. Source of Research

By researching available references, the writer found some related articles. The writer will analyze the concept of al-kanz and bring it into the Qur'ân as basic references. Some of them are:

1. In Jâmi' al-Bayân fî Ta'wîl al-Qur'ân, Ibn Jarîr al-Thabary defines al-kanz in surah al-Taubah verse 34- al-kanz is:

كل شيء مجموع بعضه على بعض، في بطن الأرض كان أو على ظهرها

²⁸ Musthafa Muslim, Mab±hits fî al-Tafsîr al-Maudhu'i, 1st edition; (Damascus: n.p., 1989), p. 16.

(Everything gathered in inside and outside the earth).³⁰

2. In Tafsir al-Misbâh, M. Quraish Shihhab states that al-kanz is to collect something in a container from inside and outside the earth. This could also mean to collect something which is not intended for the path of Allah. In other words, the treasure has no social function because no part of zakah is taken from it.³¹
3. In Etika Bisnis dalam Al-Qur'an, Dr. R. Lukman Fauroni said that piling up is aggregation and accumulation of special commodities or matter by intention waiting for the higher cost.³²
4. Other Qur'ânic exegesis such as Tafsîr Ibn Katsîr by Abu al-Fuda' Ismâil Ibn Katsîr, Tafsîr al-Maraghi by Ahmad Mustafa al-Maraghi, Tafsîr Mafâtih al-Ghaib by al-Razy, al-Nukûṭ wa al-'Uyûn by Abu al-Hasan Ali Ibn Mohammed al-Mâwardi, etc.

E. Methodology of Research

1. Scientific Approaches

The methods presented in this research are:

³⁰ Muhammad Ibn Jarîr Ibn Yazîd Ibn Katsîr al-Thabary, Jâmi' al-Bayân Fî Ta'wîl al-Qur'ân, 1st edition; (Beirut: Muassasah al-Risâlah, 2000), vol. 14, p. 225.

³¹ Quraish Shihhab, Tafsîr al-Misbâh, 5th edition; (Jakarta: Lentera Hati, 2005), vol. V, p. 583.

³² R. Lukman Fauroni, Etika Bisnis dalam Al-Qur'an, (Yogyakarta: Pustaka Pesantren, 2006), p. 128.

- a. Linguistic approach by presenting the verses of Qur'ân concerning the word of al-kanz with its various forms.
 - b. Exegesis approach by interpreting the verses of the Qur'ân about al-kanz by comparing some opinions of Islamic scholars.
- Because this research is solely on al-kanz then the method used is thematic exegesis (al-tafsîr al-maudhû'i) that is collecting all verses with the same term and purpose. Those verses then will be arranged based on the chronological aspects of the Qur'ân (*asbâb al-nuzûl*³³) by observing the background of it (and remain to its meaning and left out the doubt³⁴) -contextual-, then the writer will explain and analyze all related aspects. The results can be measured by accurate theories, so that the writer can provide the complete theme.

حدثنا أبو الوليد ، حدثنا أبو عوانة ، عن عبد الأعلى ، عن سعيد بن جبير ، عن ابن عباس ، قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : اتقوا الحديث عني إلا ما علمتم ، فإنه من كذب علي متعمدا ، فليتبوأ مقعده من النار ، ومن كذب في القرآن بغير علم ، فليتبوأ مقعده من النار .

From the text of hadiths above it could be seen that the word in asbâb al-nuzûl without narration (riwāyah) and listening for who seen and agreed its descending also did not discuss its knowledge is not legal or valid, see Al-Zarqānī, Manāhil al-'Irfān fī 'Ulūm al-Qur'ān, (Beirut: Dār al-Fikr, 1996), vol. I, p. 81.

³⁴ Jalāluddīn al-Suyūṭī, al-Itqān fī 'Ulūm al-Qur'ān, (Beirut: Dār al-Fikr, n.d.), p. 30.

2. Procedure of Collecting Data

This research is purely a library research. The main data sources will be library materials, articles, encyclopedias, journals, etc., which are relevant to this topic. Because the research directly deals with the Qur'ân, the main source of this research is then solely the holy Qur'ân. The techniques used are:

- a. Determining the problems that will be studied
- b. Collecting the verses related to the topic
- c. Arranging the verses based on the period of their descending, and also the knowledge of asbâb al-nuzûl
- d. Interpreting the vocabularies, phrases, clauses and the verses by applying exegetical techniques (textual, linguistic, cultural and theological interpretation)³⁵
- e. Understanding the correlation (al-munâsabât) of the verses in each surah
- f. Arranging the study in complete framework (Outline)
- g. Completing the study with hadith which relevant to the main topic ³⁵ Abd. Muin Salim, Methodologies of Qur'ânic exegesis; An Epistemological Reconstruction, Oration of Professor Inauguration of IAIN Alauddin (Ujung Pandang: n.p., on April 28, 1999), p. 32.

- h. Studying those whole verses by arranging the verses that have same term or compromising between general and particular verses ('âm wa khâs).

3. Technique of Data Analysis

In order to get accurate data, the writer will apply the method of data analysis as follows:

- a. Deductive : The process of reasoning from general conclusion to particular instances. It is analyzing some data.
- b. Comparative : Comparing of resemblances and differences.
- c. Content analysis : it will analyze the data related to the main topic that will be explored.

F. Aim and Significance of Research

1. Aim of the Research

The research is not only as a requirement to fulfill the completing of academic study, but also to evolve and to improve a good comprehension about the meaning of al-kanz in the Qur'ân, and after undertaking, this research is expected to the intact and comprehensive conclusion then the conclusion will be applied in daily life.

2. Significance of the research

The significances of this research are:

- a. To increase insight and understanding about the meaning of al-kanz and to give a contribution to academic research in order to contextualize Qur'ânic learning and to increase the treasure of Islamic knowledge.
- b. To motivate the writer and readers to understand and more wisely in solving the Qur'ânic problems.

G. Outline

To present general descriptive of this research, the writer has divided this research into five chapters:

Chapter I: introduction, consist of background and problem statements. Beside, there are definitions of terms, source of research, methodology of research, aims and significance of the research and the last is the outline.

Chapter II: In the chapter, the writer will explain about the basic meaning of al-kanz in the Qur'ân that consist of the verses of the Qur'ân.

Chapter III: will analyze the existence of the verses of al-kanz in the Qur'ân including al-kanz and the encouragement to work, al-kanz and the method to look for, al-kanz and the method to use, the chapter is intended to explain the dimensions related to al-kanz.

Chapter IV: will analyze the concept and the characteristic of al-kanz in the Qur'ân including the motives of al-kanz and human attitude towards al-kanz.

Chapter V: Consists of conclusion, implication and suggestion from the previous study as a paradigm contribution.

CHAPTER II

GENERAL RESEARCH OF Al-Kanz

A. The Concept of Al-Kanz according to Scholars

The word “Kanz” is derived from the word ka-na-za ك-ن-ز, which means piling up treasure, partly on top of one another³⁶. The word “Kanz” also means collected treasure so that it becomes much. Besides, the word “Kanz” can also be interpreted as something very valuable. . In this sense, phrase of “al qan±’ah kanz la yafwa” (القناعة كنز لا يفو) refers to inner satisfaction which is invaluable and unlimited.

. Ulam± with a wide range of expertise, have had their opinions about the al-Kanz, such as;

1. According to Mufassir

At-Thabariy in his commentary states that all treasure must be paid zakah, but not fulfilled the zakah called “Kanz”, that is not spent in the way of Allah or not zakah fulfilled³⁷. The interpretation of al-kh±zin mentions zakah that has been fulfilled not “Kanz,” although numerous.

³⁶ Abu al-Husain Ahmad Ibn Faris Ibn Zakariya, Mu’jam Maq±yis al-Lughah, (Beirut: Dâr al-Fikr, n.d.), vol. VI, p. 141.

³⁷ Al-Ṭabarī, Jāmi’ al-Bayān Fī Ta’wīl al-Qur’ān, ed. Ahmad Muhammad Shakir (n.p.:Mu’assasah al-Ris±lah, 2000), Vol.24, chapter 34, juz 14, p. 217 (in Maktabah al-Sh±milah [CD ROM].), see also www.qurancomplex.com.

Conversely, treasure that is not fulfilled its zakah, then the ownership of treasure will be punished even if treasure owners are modest, but enough to be fulfilled, fate of the person is determined by God, whether pardoned or not³⁸.

In Zad al-Mash'ur mentions each (all treasure) that is fulfilled zakah even if the number seven layers of earth cannot be said to be "Kanz" and all treasure not issued zakah even small amounts said to be "Kanz"³⁹. The majority of scholars agree this understanding.

2. According to Muhaddith

In Fath B'ri mentions that "كنز" is anything that in the earth and considered despicable because not fulfilled its rights (not fulfilled zakah)⁴⁰. The book of Sharh ibn Baththal mentions that the argument about all the treasure which has been fulfilled zakah cannot be regarded as "كنز", because the liability fulfill 2 ½ percent based on the explanation of the Prophet led to such treasure cannot be regarded as "كنز" even if the numbers many, and there is no ban on the owner to hoard it, and God does not threaten him with torture. Conversely, treasure that is not fulfilled zakah, the owners will be threatened with torture by God. There is no explanation in the Qur'ān about the size of the hoarding of gold and silver (stored) which gets threatened with torture. Nevertheless, our Prophet Mohammed p.b.u.h. explained that if zakah is not fulfilled, God Almighty will threaten the owners with punishment.

Al-Nawawi also commented "كنز" as anything that is collected or stored underground or above⁴¹. It also mean to collect or save it and unknown number⁴². Also, on al-Muntaqa mentions that all the treasures collected can be said as "كنز", but the requirement stipulates that "كنز" is the name of the treasures that are not fulfilled its rights (its zakah) and this is what God means in the Qur'ān⁴³.

3. According to Fuqah±'

Sayyid Shabiq in Fiqh Sunnah states that all treasure whose zakah is not fulfilled, whether on earth or in the bowels of the earth is called "Kanz"⁴⁴, otherwise, all the treasures that have been fulfilled the zakah whether on earth or in the bowels of the earth it is not "Kanz"⁴⁵. In Qism al-Fiqh it is also mentioned that all the treasures whose zakah been fulfilled cannot be said "Kanz" despite its numerous quantity, and all the treasures those are not fulfilled the zakah, it is called as mentioned by Allah and the Qur'ān. Owner (of the treasure) will be punished even if there are not many (any hoarding)⁴⁶.

B. Forms of al-Kanz Expressions in the Qur'±n

As has been described in chapter one, the term kanz (كنز) comes from ka-na-za ك-ن-ز, which means piling up treasure, partly on top of one another⁴⁷, to hoard treasure over another⁴⁸. The term

⁴⁶ Qism al-Fiqh Maktabah al-Sh±milah [CD ROM], vol. 93, p. 23.

⁴⁷ Abu al-Husain Ahmad Ibn Faris Ibn Zakariya, Mu'jam Maq±yis al-Lughah, (Beirut: D±r al-Fikr, n.d.), vol. VI, p. 141.

kanz also means treasure collected, then accumulated. Besides, this term can also mean very valuable expressed in “al qan±’ah kanz la yafwa” (القناعة كنز لا يفو ى) refers to inner satisfaction which is invaluable and unlimited.⁴⁹

Based on its forms, the term al-kanz is mentioned 9 times in the Qur’ān⁵⁰, appearing in 3 occasions (istiq±q): fi’il m±«i (verb referring to past time), fi’il mu±ri (verb referring to present and future time), masdar (infinitive/verbal noun), mufrad (singular), and jamak (plural).

1. The form of Fi’il

The term kanz in past form (fi’il m±«i) "كنزتم" kanaztum means you had collected treasure and did not spend it in Allah’s way. The treasure was used merely for individual interest, while the social function of your collected treasure was forgotten.

The use of fi’il m±«i in the verse is to describe that the collected and hoarded is to be accounted in the hereafter where people will be tortured for their sins, their collected treasure.

⁴⁸ Ibid

⁴⁹ Muhammad Ibn Mukrim Ibn Manzūr, Lisān al-‘Arab, (Beirut: Dār Sādir, n.d.), vol. I, p. 220.

⁵⁰ See Muhammad Fuād Abd al-Bāqī, Mu’jam Mufahras Li al-Fāz al-Qur’ān al-Karīm, (Kairo: Dār al-Hadith, 1994), p. 234.

Therefore, especially the gold and silver will be heated and ironed to their forehead, stomach, and back, then they will be told, “this is the treasure that you had been collected without spending it in Allah’s way”.

The term kanz in the form of fi’il mu«±ri indicates that human beings really like to collect and hoard a lot of treasure. Human’s effort to collect and hoard treasure sometimes undertakes by oppressing others and neglecting Allah’s rule. Allah said;

يَتَّيِّهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا إِنَّ كَثِيرًا مِّنَ الْأَحْبَارِ وَالرُّهْبَانِ لِيَأْكُلُونَ أَمْوَالَ النَّاسِ
بِالْبَطْلِ وَيَصُدُّونَ عَن سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ وَالَّذِينَ يَكْنِزُونَ الذَّهَبَ وَالْفِضَّةَ وَلَا
يُنْفِقُونَهَا فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ فَبَشِّرْهُمْ بِعَذَابٍ أَلِيمٍ

The meaning:

O ye who believe! There are indeed many among the priests and anchorites, who in Falsehood devour the substance of men and hinder (them) from the way of Allah. And there are those who bury gold and silver and spend it not in the way of Allah: announce unto them a most grievous penalty⁵¹ .

The above verse reminds the Muslims to avoid bad practices of Christian and Jewish priests who took over other’s treasure in sinful way and manipulated religions teaching to get material benefits. In one way, they demonstrated themselves like religious figures devoting themselves to the scared life while they essentially did not live that way.

2. The form of Isim (Masdar)

The term kanz in the form of masdar (verbal noun) is different from that of fi'il (verb). The difference lies on the events or occasions which are not attached to specific time in the form of masdar while in the fi'il they are linked to one of the time markers, the past ($m_{\pm i}$), present and future ($mu_{\pm ri}$). In other word, masdar is a change from verb to be noun, separated from time markers. The term kanz in masdar forms (noun/infinitive) consists of six words, four referring to mufrad (singular) and two referring to jamak (plural).

The term kanz in mufrad/singular form describes two events: first, refusal of the infidel to admit the apostolate of Mohammed p.b.u.h where they said “how come the man who claims himself the messenger of God eat food the way we do and walk in the market for a cup of tea like us? as Allah said:

وَقَالُوا مَالِ هَذَا الرَّسُولِ يَأْكُلُ الطَّعَامَ وَيَمْشِي فِي الْأَسْوَاقِ لَوْلَا أُنزِلَ إِلَيْهِ
مَلَكٌ فَيَكُونُ مَعَهُ نَذِيرًا ﴿٥٢﴾

The meaning:

And they say: "What sort of a messenger is this, who eats food, and walks through the streets? Why has not an angel been sent down to him to give admonition with him?"⁵²

Should not the messenger of God be very holy person who needs no material things. If he who claims himself is also ordinary person like us, why does not he bring together the kanz (stock of treasure) from sky so that he doesn't have to go to market for work and lives treasury that can be a prove of his apostolate.

Second, the explanation of pious servant of God (prophet Khaidir) to prophet Musa on kanz (treasure) located under building. What the pious servant of God did in supporting the fell down- wall indicates that the children received blessing and good effect from their parents piety. Both children received Allah's love through His command to the pious servant of God to support the wall so that their father's inheritance can be entirely obtained. This verse also signifies that leaving our offspring with sufficient treasure is better than leaving them in poverty.

The term kanz in plural verbal noun is “كُنُوز” kunuz that means plenty of treasure. This is derived from word kunuz (plenty of treasure) denoted to the treasure given by Allah to Qarun.

﴿ إِنَّ قَرُونَ كَانَ مِنْ قَوْمِ مُوسَى فَبَغَى عَلَيْهِمْ ۖ وَآتَيْنَاهُ مِنَ الْكُنُوزِ مَا إِنَّ مَفَاتِحَهُ لَتَنُوءَ بِالْعُصْبَةِ أُولَى الْقُوَّةِ إِذْ قَالَ لَهُ قَوْمُهُ لَا تَفْرَحْ ۖ إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يُحِبُّ الْفَرِحِينَ ﴾

The meaning:

*Qarun was doubtless, of the people of Moses; but he acted insolently towards them: such were the treasures We had bestowed on him that their very keys would have been a burden to a body of strong men, behold, his people said to him: "Exult not, for Allah loveth not those who exult (in riches)."*⁵³

The above verse describes that Allah gives Qarun plenty of treasure (كُنُوز) where the keys were carried on by a lot of strong men, signifying also that al-kunuz (كُنُوز) is a kind of treasure that is not only lies over the land but also under the land.

C. Terms Indirectly Refer to the Definition of Al-Kanz

1. Qin⁻r, Qan⁻ir, Muqan⁻arah (قنطار قناطير مقتطرة)

⁵³ Abdullah Yusuf Ali, The meaning of the Glorious Qur'an, 028.076 (Al-Qa[±]s [The Story, Stories]) Text Copied from DivinelIslam's Qur'an Viewer software v.2.8.

The employment of the term $qin^{-}\pm r$ and its $istiq\pm q$ can be found in some verses of The Qur'an, such as that of Ali 'Imran verse 14;

زُيِّنَ لِلنَّاسِ حُبُّ الشَّهَوَاتِ مِنَ النِّسَاءِ وَالْبَنِينَ وَالْقَنَاطِيرِ الْمُقَنْطَرَةِ مِنَ
الذَّهَبِ وَالْفِضَّةِ وَالْخَيْلِ الْمُسَوَّمَةِ وَالْأَنْعَامِ وَالْحَرْثِ ۗ ذَٰلِكَ مَتَاعُ الْحَيَاةِ
الدُّنْيَا ۗ وَاللَّهُ عِنْدَهُ حُسْبُ الْمَآبِ ﴿١٤﴾

The meaning:

Fair in the eyes of men is the love of things they covet: Women and sons; Heaped-up hoards of gold and silver; horses branded (for blood and excellence); and (treasure of) cattle and well-tilled land. Such are the possessions of this world's life; but in nearness to Allah is the best of the goals (To return to).⁵⁴

The above verse describes the compassion of human beings to plentiful treasure.

The term $al-qan\pm^{-3}r$ (القناطر) is the plural form of $qin^{-}\pm r$ (قنطار) where some people illustrate it in definite number such as 10 kg or certain amount of money and some others illustrate it in indefinite number.

⁵⁴ Abdullah Yusuf Ali, The meaning of the Glorious Qur'an, 003.014 (Ali Imran [The Family of Imran]) Text Copied from DivinelIslam's Qur'an Viewer software v.2.8.

$Qin^{\pm}r$ is countless accumulation of treasure, which also means plenty of treasure allowing its owner to live without financial problems and spend it for luxury and his family.

The term $muqan^{\pm}arah$ is the multiplication of $al-qan^{\pm}r$ (القناطر). This verse depicts the compassion of human beings to treasure, not only in one $qin^{\pm}r$, which is an indefinite amount of treasure to satisfy luxury, but also $qan^{\pm}r$ (القناطر) which is a lot of $qin^{\pm}r$ then multiplying to be $muqan^{\pm}arah$ (مقنطرة). This illustrates human characters regarding treasure in the form of gold, silver etc.

2. $Al\ Amw^{\pm}l$ الأموال

The $Al-Amw^{\pm}l$ (الأموال) is the plural form of $m^{\pm}l$ (مال) meaning “tendency to”, “compassion” to treasure, or treasury⁵⁵. It is called so since human mind tends to find and compassionates to treasure. Being so compassionate to treasure, human beings tend to accumulate and count it from time to time, where they are so proud to demonstrate it to others; they even consider it able to perpetuate their lives.

⁵⁵ Rohi Baalbaki, Al-Maurid: A Modern Arabic-English Dictionary, op. cit, p. 940.

Being so compassionate to treasure, some human beings neglect to spend it in Allah's way despite the big numbers of Allah's commands to spend the treasure in His way. As Allah said;

وَأَنْفِقُوا فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ وَلَا تُلْقُوا بِأَيْدِيكُمْ إِلَى التَّهْلُكَةِ وَأَحْسِنُوا إِنَّ اللَّهَ يُحِبُّ
الْمُحْسِنِينَ ﴿١٩٥﴾

The meaning:

*And spend of your substance in the cause of Allah, and make not your own hands contribute to (your) destruction; but do good; for Allah loveth those who do good.*⁵⁶

The above verse indicates that treasure spent in Allah's way will never go down yet it will increase and be in secured way. This verse is in line with Allah's saying on Al-Baqarah verse 261;

مَثَلُ الَّذِينَ يُنْفِقُونَ أَمْوَالَهُمْ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ كَمَثَلِ حَبَّةٍ أَنْبَتَتْ سَبْعَ سَنَابِلٍ فِي
كُلِّ سُنْبُلَةٍ مِائَةٌ حَبَّةٌ وَاللَّهُ يُضَعِفُ لِمَنْ يَشَاءُ وَاللَّهُ وَاسِعٌ عَلِيمٌ ﴿١٣١﴾

The meaning:

The parable of those who spend their substance in the way of Allah is that of a grain of corn: it growth seven ears, and each ear Hath a hundred grains. Allah giveth ⁵⁶ Abdullah Yusuf Ali, The meaning of the Glorious Qur'an, 002.195 (Al-Baqara [The Cow]), Text Copied from DivinelIslam's Qur'an Viewer software v.2.8.

*manifold increase to which He pleaseth: And Allah careth for all and He knoweth all things.*⁵⁷

The above verse signifies that the allegory of those who spend their treasure in Allah's way is like peasant sowing seeds. A seed grown will produce seven others where in each there are a hundred seeds.

This striking parable encourages human beings to donate for charity and implies a message to the treasury to be unbound in helping others since the charity benefits will multiply.

⁵⁷ Abdullah Yusuf Ali, The meaning of the Glorious Qur'an, 002.261 (Al-Baqara [The Cow]), Text Copied from DivinelIslam's Qur'an Viewer software v.2.8.

CHAPTER III

ANALYSIS OF THE VERSES OF AL-KANZ

A. Classification of the Verses of al-Kanz

The contents of the Qur'ān have many miracles and uniqueness, because Allah revealed the Qur'ān with all His greatness and to be the source of constitution and the guidance and to expound a comprehensive system and practical methodology for life.⁵⁸ So, to get a good comprehension to study the contents of the Qur'ān especially its exegesis (Tafsīr) it should be understood the period of its descending. There are two period of it, Mecca period which is commonly called by Makkiyah and Medina period that is regarded Madaniyah.

⁵⁸ Thameem Ushama, Methodologies of the Qur'ānic Exegesis, 1st Edition, (Kuala Lumpur: A. S. Noordeen, 1995), p. 1.

These periods have become one approach to explore the term of al-Kanz in the Qur'ān.

a. Definition of Makkiyah and Madaniyyah verses

There are some opinions about the term/definition of them. First, Makkiyah verse is verse that sent down in Mecca and Madaniyah verse is verse that sent down in Medina. However, this opinion has a weakness, the question is how about the verses that sent down except Mecca and Medina such in Asfār, Tabūk or in Bait al-Muqaddas?. Second, Makkiyah is the verse that sent down before hijrah even it in Medina and Madaniyah is verse that sent down after hijrah even it in Mecca, this is popular opinion. Third, related to the objects. Makkiyah is the verse that sent down to Mecca people and Madaniyah is the verse that sent down to Medina people.⁵⁹ It means the sentence of yā ayyuha al-nās is Makkiyah and yā ayyuha al-lazīna āmanū is Madaniyyah. In other hand, this opinion also in question because many sūrah were not opened by both of them and this opinion was not valid. It was found a verse was opened by yā ayyuha al-nās turn out to be sūrah of Madaniyah such in sūrah al-Baqarah: 21. On the contrary, it also was found a verse in sūrah al-Hajj: 77 which opened by yā ayyuha al-lazīna āmanū, where as it sūrah is Makkiyyah.

⁵⁹ Badaruddin Muhammad Ibn Abdillah al-Zarkasyī, al-Burhān fī Ulūm al-Qur'ān, (Kairo: Maktabah Dār al-Turath, n.d.), vol. I, p. 187.

b. Characteristic of Meccan and Madanian verses

Before determining Makkiyah (Meccan) and Madaniyah (Madanian) verses, it is better to know the characteristic of these, characteristic of Makkiyah verse are:

1. Every sūrah whose “sajadah” is Makkiyah
2. Every sūrah in it expression of (ﻻﻙ) is Makkiyah
3. Every sūrah in it yā ayyuha al-nās, except sūrah al-Ḥajj
4. Every sūrah in it history of prophets except sūrah al-Baqara
5. Every sūrah in history of Adam and Iblis (devil), except sūrah al-Baqara.
6. Every sūrah were opened by abbreviated letters (ḥunūf al-muqāṭṭa’a).

The characteristic of Madaniyah verse, are:

1. Every sūrah in it the excellence (fañḍah) or punishment (had)
2. Every sūrah that has mentioned about hypocrite (munāfiqūn), except sūrah al-‘Ankabūt
3. Every sūrah which talking about the debating of people of book (ahl al-kitāb).

Many of Makkiyah verses contain the problems of theology, belief, the existence of God, the cases of pleasant and punishment in hereafter. Moreover, many of Madaniyah verses have talked about laws, worship, interaction (mu'āmalah), ahl al-kitāb (people of book), etc.⁶⁰

The advantages of studying Makkiyah and Madaniyah verse are supporting Qur'anic exegesis, it help to understand the verses and its right tafsīr; feels the metaphor of Qur'an and its advantage in methods of Islamic call (da'wah); Understanding of prophetic tradition from the verses of the Qur'an.⁶¹

So, in this study the writer more tended to use second opinion that related to the time of its descending because it is considered more general and it covering others opinion. Therefore, the writer has divided the verses of al-Kanz in Makkiyah and Madaniyah appropriate with general opinion.

The verses that pointed the word of al-Kanz and its derived in Makkiyah and Madaniyah verses are:

1. Makkiyah Verses

a. Al-Furqān (25): 8 (42)

b. Al-Syu'arā (26): 58 / (47)

c. Al-Qaḥḥ (28): 76 (49)

d. Hūd (11): 12 / (52)

e. Al-Kahfi (18): 82 / (69)

⁶⁰ M. Hasbi al-Shiddieqy, Sejarah dan Pengantar Ilmu al-Qur'an/Tafsīr (The History and Introduction to Qur'anic Science and Exegesis), 14th edition; (Jakarta: Bulan Bintang, 1992), p. 56.

⁶¹ Mannā' al-Qaṭṭān, Mabāhiḥ Fi 'Ulūm al-Qur'ān, 9th edition, (Beirut: Mu'assasah al-Risālah, 1983), p. 59.

2. Madaniyah Verses

a. Al-Taubah (7): 34 & 35 / (113)

The details of sūrah and verses above in each period indicate the difference of emphasizing every cases or events. From the study it has found that the number of Madaniyah verses almost same with Makkiyah verses. The Qur'anic texts of this part will be attached.

B. The Occasion of Revelation

Again, one of general approach that used to know the mean or intention of a verse is to find out and understand the general descending of it (asbāb al-nuzūl).

a. Definition of Asbāb al-Nuzūl

The descending of the Qur'ān is limited by two points: 1. There is a case, so the Qur'ān sent down appropriate with it case/event. 2. Something was asked to the prophet, so the Qur'ān sent down by explanation of its law. Therefore, the definition of asbāb al-nuzūl itself is:

ما نزل قرآن بشأنه وقت وقوعه كحادثة أو سؤال

(The thing, which was sent down by the Qur'ān according its case, the time of it such as event or question).⁶²

b. Advantages of Studying Asbāb al-Nuzūl

There are some problems about this subject, one of the scholar said that there is no advantages to study it and some scholars of usūl be different in question is al-'ibrah (phrase) in general pronunciation or special descend? Nevertheless, it was admitted it has some advantages as follows:

1. Understanding the form of wisdom (ḥikmah) that sent down for law (tasyīr' al-ḥukm)
2. Specializing the law for who considered that the 'ibrah (phrase) in special descend
3. Remain to its meaning and left out the doubt⁶³
4. If lafāz (pronunciation) is general and there is an argumentation (daḥl) of its specializing. So, understanding sabab (the descending)
5. It is a best way to understand the meaning of the Qurān.

It is not absolutely all verses of the Qur'ān have general descending. The sources are from valid narratives of the prophet or companion (siḥḥat al-riwāyah) as in hadith:

⁶² Ibid, p. 78.

⁶³ Jalāluddīn al-Suyūṭī, al-Itqān fī 'Ulūm al-Qur'ān, (Beirut: Dār al-Fikr, n. d.), p. 30.

حدثنا أبو الوليد ، حدثنا أبو عوانة ، عن عبد الأعلى ، عن سعيد بن جبير ، عن ابن عباس ، قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : اتقوا الحديث عني إلا ما علمتم ، فإنه من كذب علي متعمدا ، فليتبوأ مقعده من النار، ومن كذب في القرآن بغير علم ، فليتبوأ مقعده من النار.⁶⁴

From the text of hadits above it could be see that the word in asbāb al-nuzūl without narration (riwāyah) and listening for who seen and agree its descending also did not discuss its knowledge is not legal or valid.⁶⁵

Therefore, this approach also applied in this chapter to understand Qurānic exegesis. So, the general descending of the verses concerned to the word of al-iṣlāḥ and its derived are:

1. Sūrah Al- Taubah (9): 34-35

After explaining a bit of ugliness and the deviate of the infidels and ahl-Kitab (at verses 29-33), relating to their attitude towards Allah Almighty, and this verse (verse 34-35) derived as described complement their ugliness about worldly life, that is greedy and greedy, and accumulate treasure.⁶⁶

2. Sūrah al-Hūd (11): 12

⁶⁴ Aḥmad Ibn Hanbal, Musnad Aḥmad 2nd edition, (Beirut: Mu’assasah al-Risālah, 1420 H/ 1999 M), chapter: Hadits al-Abbās, vol. I, p. 323.

⁶⁵ Al-Zarqānī, Manāhil al-‘Irfān fī Ulūm al-Qurān, (Beirut: Dār al-Fikr, 1996), vol. I, p. 81.

⁶⁶ Quraish Shihab, Tafsīr al-Mishbāh, 11th edition, (Jakarta: Lentera Hati, 2009), vol. 5, p. 81.

This clause down related to the attitude of rejection of the infidels to the prophet Mohammed who disobey and resisting the coming day of Resurrection (Qiyāmah).⁶⁷

3. Sūrah al-Kahfi (18): 82

This clause down related to the story of Prophet Musa and the Prophet Khidr, and this verse is the answer of the last event Prophet Khidr to Prophet Musa who described the Prophet Khidr shored a wall, which contains a treasure of a pious parent for their children (orphans) so if the wall collapsed, possibility of saving the treasure was found and taken people who are not eligible.⁶⁸

4. Sūrah Furqan (25): 8

In a history (Riwayah), this clause down associated with the stated that the remark was made by a number of figures the infidels of Mecca, in their meeting with the Prophet Mohammed p.b.u.h. Then, the results of that meeting they spread disseminated in the community.⁶⁹

5. Sūrah al-Shu'arā' (26): 58

⁶⁹ Quraish Shihab, Tafsīr al-Mishbāh, op. cit., vol. 9, p. 27.

This clause down associated with the story of the pursuit of Pharaoh and his armies to the Prophet Musa and his followers by leave the palace and their treasure.⁷⁰

6. Sūrah al-Qasas (28): 76

This verse was revealed as a warning to the infidels of Mecca who oppressed the Muslims, among others due to the treasure they have and their belief that treasure is a sign of freedom from torture (God Almighty.)⁷¹

C. Al-Kanz and Encouragement for Work

Islam strongly encourages adherents to work. Islam does not forbid its followers to get a lot of treasure⁷², and even does not limit the amount of one's treasure ownership. However, Islam does not restrict how to get treasure.

The Qur'ān tells of parents who left the treasure a lot for her two children, as contained in Sūrah al-Kahf verse 82;

 أَبُوهُمَا صَالِحًا فَأَرَادَ رَبُّكَ أَنْ يَبْلُغَا أَشُدَّهُمَا وَيَسْتَخْرِجَا كَنْزَهُمَا رَحْمَةً مِّنَ رَبِّكَ
 وَمَا فَعَلْتُهُ عَنْ أَمْرِي ۗ ذَٰلِكَ تَأْوِيلُ مَا لَمْ تَسْطِعْ عَلَيْهِ صَبْرًا ﴿٧٣﴾

The meaning:

"As for the wall, it belonged to two youths, orphans, in the Town; there was, beneath it, a buried treasure, to which they were entitled: their father had been a righteous man: So thy Lord desired that they should attain their age of full strength and get out their treasure - a mercy (and favour) from thy Lord. I did it not of my own accord. Such is the interpretation of (those things) over which thou wast unable to hold patience."⁷³

The verse explains that both the child's parents are hard workers, so they can collect treasure to be inherited or saved for their children. Leaving children in a state of sufficient descent is far better than leaving them in poor condition and by begging.

Next verse about Kanz related to Messenger's activities in these markets indicates that the Messenger is a worker to get the treasure (Al-Furq±n:7-9):

⁷³ Abdullah Yusuf Ali, The meaning of the Glorious Qur'±n, 018.082 (Al-Kahf [The Cave]), Text Copied from DivinelIslam's Qur'an Viewer software v.2.8.

وَقَالُوا مَا لِهَذَا الرَّسُولِ يَأْكُلُ الطَّعَامَ وَيَمْشِي فِي الْأَسْوَاقِ لَوْلَا أُنزِلَ إِلَيْهِ
 مَلَكٌ فَيَكُونُ مَعَهُ نَذِيرًا ﴿٧٤﴾ أَوْ يُلْقَىٰ إِلَيْهِ كَنْزٌ أَوْ تَكُونُ لَهُ جَنَّةٌ يَأْكُلُ
 مِنْهَا ۗ وَقَالَ الظَّالِمُونَ إِن تَتَّبِعُونَ إِلَّا رَجُلًا مَّسْحُورًا ﴿٧٥﴾

The meaning:

And they say: "What sort of a messenger is this, who eats food, and walks through the streets? Why has not an angel been sent down to him to give admonition with him? "Or (Why) has not a treasure been bestowed on him, or why has he (not) a garden for enjoyment?" The wicked say: "Ye follow none other than a man bewitched."⁷⁴

This verse reinforces that the Messenger of Allah was a trader, even in the hadith narrated by Ahmad Ibn Hanbal explained that the Messenger of Allah has been traveling on business or trade before inducted into the Apostle, one thing is undeniable that the Messenger of Allah is a successful executive. He is very popular with his honesty and very trustworthy in holding his promises. Therefore, no one person, had to deal with him, does not get tremendous satisfaction.

⁷⁴ Abdullah Yusuf Ali, The meaning of the Glorious Qur'ân, 025.007-009 (Al-Furqân [The Criterion, The Standard]), Text Copied from DivinelIslam's Qur'an Viewer software v.2.8.

Such as some of wisdoms can be learned from nature are its harmony and interrelatedness⁷⁵, and the Prophet did.

Prophet Mohammed p.b.u.h. never makes its customers (buyers) disappointed, and he is very strong hold his promises and delivers the ordered goods on time. Reputation as an honest man has been widely known even when he was young. Mohammed p.b.u.h. can successfully managing a business not out of his work ethic and his mandate.

He also has tremendous capital in the form of the title al-Amin (the person who can be trusted on Mecca period (Makkiyyah⁷⁶) is widely recognized. Afzalurrahman states that Mohammed's way of doing business is to do business with capitalize of honesty, justice and maintain good and friendly relationship with customers. Mohammed p.b.u.h. believes that what he is done very well in business. This is a necessity principle that cannot be violated.

Allah has provided men with some basic potential that really help them in doing life activities.⁷⁷ Even Prophet Mohammed p.b.u.h. successfully run the business based on honesty, fairness and hospitality⁷⁸, but it is still a fundamental rejection of the infidels against to the Holy Prophet. The Qur'an clearly says, "Why do people who claim this Apostle eating foods such as our circumstances and walked in the markets such as our activity for sustenance as well", they (the kuff±r) wonder about the appointment of the Apostle of the human.

According to them that the Apostles must be holy men, regardless of the material elements like an angel. Furthermore, the infidels (Kuff±r) had said that if the claim the Apostle was a human like us, then why is not revealed to him the angel who accompanied him to give a warning, for that reason, the Apostles were different from us. At once may be associated with the all Holy God through the angel who was with him or why not revealed to him Kanz (treasury) from the sky to the Apostle claimed, was thus no need to enter the market and dealing with things.

⁷⁸Mohamed Aslam Haneef, Contemporary Islamic Economic Thought, (Kuala Lumpur: n.p., 1995), p. 55.

That are material as evidence of his apostolate and the difference with another human being, or why there was no garden for him that he can eat from the results so do not bother to work. Furthermore, Infidels (kuff±r) who do wrong it speaks "hi you all, O followers of Mohammed p.b.u.h., you follow the man who bewitched", that is people who see an illusion as reality, so expect him as a messenger of God but actually the case is not like that.

Speech of the infidels (k±fir) is born from those who are misguided belief about God and his messengers, they guess that people can not relate directly to the Glory of God because according to their belief that human beings indulge in things that are material even sin, that is able to relate to God is just an angel and therefore pray to Allah in hopes to be more closer to God.

أَلَا لِلَّهِ الدِّينُ الْخَالِصُ ۚ وَالَّذِينَ اتَّخَذُوا مِنْ دُونِهِ أَوْلِيَاءَ مَا نَعْبُدُهُمْ إِلَّا لِيُقَرِّبُونَا إِلَى اللَّهِ زُلْفَىٰ إِنَّ اللَّهَ يَحْكُمُ بَيْنَهُمْ فِي مَا هُمْ فِيهِ يَخْتَلِفُونَ ۗ إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يَهْدِي مَنْ هُوَ كَاذِبٌ كَفَّارٌ ﴿٢٥﴾

The meaning:

Is it not to Allah that sincere devotion is due? But those who take for protectors other than Allah (say): "We only serve them in order that they may bring us nearer to Allah." Truly Allah will judge between them in that wherein they differ. But Allah guides not such as are false and ungrateful⁷⁹.

⁷⁹ Al-Qur'an, 039.003 (Az-Zumar [The Troops, Throngs]) Text Copied from DivinelIslam's Qur'an Viewer software v.2.8.

In one history, as quoted by the Quraish Shihhab⁸⁰, stated that the remark was made by a number of leaders of the polytheists of Mecca with their meeting with the Prophet Mohammed p.b.u.h. then, they disclose the results of these meetings in the community, this caused the verse down.

Speech of infidels who say "why the Apostles are eating food and walking in the markets" aims to show that this apostle was a man like us. Mention about the food and markets to do emphasize that claimed the Apostle is far from holiness because of food that resulted in discharge and the market is a place where in it often happens fraud and fight, that is the view of the Unbelievers. Nevertheless, according to the Qur'ān⁸¹ market can be a means of devotion to God, if someone uses the market as the place to find a great food. There is no barrier for the righteous to enter the market to do various activities there (market) provided that he does not do the things not in accordance with the guidance of the Qur'ān (religion).

⁸¹ See QS. al-Baqarah verse 168.

Furthermore, God gives Q±run “Kanz” (many treasure) that shows Q±run is a hard worker in collecting treasure, God Almighty said;

إِنَّ قَدْرُونَ كَانَتْ مِنْ قَوْمِ مُوسَىٰ فَبَغَىٰ عَلَيْهِمْ ۖ وَءَاتَيْنَاهُ مِنْ الْكُنُوزِ مَا إِنَّ مَفَاتِحَهُ
لَتَتَنُوءُ بِالْعُصْبَةِ أُولَى الْقُوَّةِ إِذْ قَالَ لَهُ قَوْمُهُ لَا تَفْرَحْ ۖ إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يُحِبُّ الْفَرِحِينَ ﴿٧٦﴾

The meaning:

Q±run was doubtless, of the people of Moses; but he acted insolently towards them: such were the treasures We had bestowed on him that their very keys would have been a burden to a body of strong men, behold, his people said to him: "Exult not, for Allah loveth not those who exult (in riches)⁸².

The verse above describes the people of Prophet Moses, Q±run, as a pile of treasure given by God, where a number of powerful people heavily burdened the key, and then how about many people would not burden their treasure.

The verse above explains that to get the treasure then someone needs to work like the Prophet Mohammed p.b.u.h. doing business in these markets and Q±run that can collect a lot of treasure. Nevertheless, Prophet Mohammed p.b.u.h. is different with Qurʼān, both of how to collect treasure and how to use it, as will be explained later.

D. Al-Kanz and How to Get it

Islam does not forbid to get a lot of treasure or many treasure ownership, but to limit how a way or process to obtain these treasures.

In the group of related verses of al-Kanz, the Qurʼān describes the expression of the infidels on the activities of the Prophet Mohammed p.b.u.h. in these markets, the God Almighty said:

وَقَالُوا مَالِ هَذَا الرَّسُولِ يَأْكُلُ الطَّعَامَ وَيَمْشِي فِي الْأَسْوَاقِ لَوْلَا أَنْزَلَ إِلَيْهِ مَلَكٌ
فَيَكُونُ مَعَهُ نَذِيرًا ﴿٧٦﴾ أَوْ يُلْقَىٰ إِلَيْهِ كَنْزٌ أَوْ تَكُونُ لَهُ جَنَّةٌ يَأْكُلُ مِنْهَا ۗ وَقَالَ

فَضَلُّوا فَلَا يَسْتَطِيعُونَ سَبِيلًا

The meaning:

*And they say: "What sort of a messenger is this, who eats food, and walks through the streets? Why has not an angel been sent down to him to give admonition with him? "Or (Why) has not a treasure been bestowed on him, or why has he (not) a garden for enjoyment?" The wicked say: "Ye follow none other than a man bewitched." See what kinds of comparisons they make for thee! But they have gone astray, and never a way will they be able to find!*⁸³

The verse above explains that the Messenger of Allah has commercial activities in the market, therefore should be attempted to reveal how the Messenger of Allah conduct trading activities.

There are four key things to be successful as the Prophet Mohammed p.b.u.h. in managing business. They are very prominent traits of the Prophet Mohammed p.b.u.h. and very well known among scholars. They are among ḥidq (true/honest), amānah (trustworthy/reliable), faʿānah (intelligent) and tabligh (communicative/ promosive).

1. ḥidq

Sidq is the nature of the Prophet Mohammed p.b.u.h. ḥidq means true and honest or preach something in accordance with reality.⁸⁴ Messenger of Allah is the perfect creature in terms of honesty. Husain Haikal said that at the beginning of his apostleship, Mohammed p.b.u.h. ever asked the Quraish (community). "What do you think all when I say that behind this ⁸⁴ Abū Ḥusain Aḥmad Ibn Fāris Ibn Zakariyya, Muʿjam Maqāyis al-Lughah, op. cit., vol. 3, p. 339. See also Majmaʾ al-Lughah al-ʿArabiyyah, Al-Muʿjam Al-Wasīlī (Teheran: al-Maktabah al-ʿIlmiyah, n.d.), p. 513.

Will there be the cavalry? Do you believe me? They replied, "Yes, you have never doubted. We never see the lie."⁸⁵

Quraish's (community) answer was delivered spontaneously because the question is from Mohammed ibn 'Abdullah, the person who as long as they name prophet with trustworthy people (al-amin). Afzalurrahman states that even if Mohammed Ibn Abdullah lives in ignorance culture that can no longer distinguish between the right with a vanity, but the honesty of Mohammed Ibn 'Abdullah without smudging the surrounding civilization. The people who live in the civilization that ignorance voluntarily give awards to the honesty of Mohammed p.b.u.h. with naming *al-amin*⁸⁶.

Honest attitude means always based his sayings, beliefs, and actions based on Islamic teachings. There was no deliberate contradiction and conflict between word and deed. Just reminding, there are about 1500 verses talked about akhlāq and it is divided into five kinds, namely personal moral, family moral, society moral, state and religious moral⁸⁷.

In addition, in a had³th (prophet tradition) of the Prophet Mohammed p.b.u.h. stated that deliver very honest to goodness, and goodness will be ushered in heaven. Someone who is always trying to be honest will be recorded by God as an honest man, and depart by you all a lie because the lie that will lead to crime and crime will lead to hell. God will record someone who always lies as a liar."⁸⁸

Honesty is the spirit of faith, without honesty, social life will not be straight and will not be stable. The biggest disaster in today's business world is the expansion of the action lies and falsehood, as they lying in the promotion of goods and set a price. Therefore, one of the most important business character and let by God is honesty. In a had³th, al-Turmuṣi explained that the Messenger of Allah stated that Muslim businessmen who are

To apply the honesty in the business world, the Prophet set a right to choose between seller and buyer, to continue or cancel a business transaction. Muslim (muhadith) narrated that the Prophet Mohammed p.b.u.h. states that the seller and buyer are free to choose for not split, if they behave properly and would explain the lack of traded goods then they get the blessing from the sale and purchasing. people who say perjury disgraceful and sinful in the sight of Allah. According to the hadith (prophet tradition), many swore in doing business is makruh because these actions contain elements of degrading the name of God, also feared could plunge a person into a lie.

In the hadith, stated that the trait of an honest executive is not to praise if sell his wares and if the purchase does not denounce the sold goods. Compare these characteristics with the habits of people who often praise his wares through advertising and promotions.

Lying in offering merchandise accompanied by an oath using the name of Allah, in order to obtain benefits that would remove the blessing for buying and selling. Someone who belittle the name of God Almighty popularize the purpose of his wares are people who easily swear just for selling his wares.

The case that said the Prophet Mohammed p.b.u.h. when he left the house and sees the human community is being sold and bought. He exclaimed "O, the merchants!" Views of all the traders were soon directed to him. The Prophet continued, "Indeed the traders were raised on the Day of Judgment in a

2. Am±nah

Am±nah means trustworthy, responsible, and contrary to the treasonous⁹². Am±nah could also mean the desire to fulfill something in accordance with the provisions. Among the values associated with honest is trustworthy, it also is one of moral faith.

Prophet Mohammed p.b.u.h. describes people who do not hold a mandate (Am±nah) as not those who believe (Mu'min) and do not have a religion (atheism). Even further, the people who always violate the trust are described as hypocrites. Prophet Mohammed p.b.u.h. said that signs of the hypocrite are three

Furthermore, the Prophet Mohammed p.b.u.h. states that there are four properties hypocritical. Who has these four properties included on a genuine hypocrite and whoever there is one trait in him, then he has one characteristic of hypocrisy until he left it: *“if to speak, he lies if given trust (am±nah) he betrayed, when promised he denied and if fight he cheats.”*⁹⁴

The attitude of mandate (am±nah) has to be owned by a Muslim executive. The attitude can only be owned if he always aware that any activities undertaken -including at work- always known by Allah Almighty (ih±n). The attitude of trust can be strengthened if he always improves understanding of Islam and istiqamah run Islamic law.

Prophet Mohammed p.b.u.h. taught that the trust is a principle of faith, where the Prophet Mohammed states that there is no faith for those who do not have a mandate. Therefore, it trusts (am±nah) is a treacherous opponent is the major that joints in the interaction. Am±nah requires trust and the trust gave the peace and then gave to belief.⁹⁶ In addition, as an example, am±nah to make a peace is the agreement that was compromised in dispute of two people in their right to do something and with that agreement, it could be prevent the Am±nah means trustworthy, responsible and credible. Am±nah also could also mean the desire to fulfill something in accordance with the provisions. Am±nah directly related to honesty. An executive must have the nature of trust because trust is one of the characteristic traits of the believers.

The nature of this mandate (am±nah) will form a high credibility and a responsible attitude on every individual Muslim. According to Adiwarmān Karim that a collection of individuals with high credibility will give birth to a strong society, because it is based on mutual trust among its members. The nature of trust (am±nah) plays a fundamental role in the economy and business, because without credibility and responsibility, economic and business life will be destroyed.⁹⁹

for one of them did not betray his friend, and if one of them betrayed his brother, then I was innocent of both".¹⁰⁰

3. Tabligh

Tabligh means to communicate something¹⁰¹. This means that people who have tabligh nature have to be communicative and argumentative. People who have character tabligh will deliver it correctly (weighted) and with the right words (bi al-ʿikmah). If you are a leader in the business world, you must be capable of communicating a vision and mission correctly to employees and other stakeholders.

According to Hermawan that if a marketer, he should be able to deliver superior products with honest and not have to lie and deceive customers. He should be a good communicator; able to speak properly and wisely told his business partners.¹⁰²

More than it, an Islamic executive must have fresh ideas, must also be able to communicate his ideas correctly and easily understood by anyone who listens. Efforts to communicate a variety of products to the consumer can be done in various ways; one of the most prominent right now is through advertising.

Today is information era. In this era, advertising plays a very important role to convey information about a product to the public. According to Ahmad Fuad Afdal, advertising have a major influence on human life both positively and negatively.¹⁰³

4. Faḥḥah

Faḥḥah means to understand something and can explain it¹⁰⁴. Faḥḥah can also be interpreted with ingenuity or wisdom.

In business, the economic implications of the nature of faḥḥah is all the activities in the management of a company should be by intelligence, by optimizing all sense that there is potential to achieve the goal. Having the nature of honest, truthful and responsible is not enough in managing the business professionally.

Executive must also have the nature of fahāhah that is the nature of intelligent, clever and wise, for his efforts can be more effective, efficient and able to analyzing the competitive situation and the changes in the future, by revealing the Qur'ān and delegating the prophet. The man should to be conscious and trying to exploit the knowledge to realize the purpose of this life. By getting knowledge, it could be seen whether he use it to make a better circumstance or no, or still make damages in the world.¹⁰⁵

Intelligence is meant here is not only intellectual but also emotional intelligence and spiritual intelligence, as Ary Ginanjar said: "the ability to give meaning to any behavioral activity of worship, through the steps and nature thinking to the whole person (hanfī), and has a pattern of monotheistic thinking (integralistic), and principled only because of God."¹⁰⁶

Nature of faḥḥah will also foster creativity and ability to perform a wide range of useful innovations. Creative and innovative owned only possible when one is always trying to add a variety of knowledge and information, whether related to the job or the company in general. Nature of faḥḥah deliver the Prophet Mohammed p.b.u.h. (before becoming a prophet) had success in trading activity.

Furthermore, worth exploring how Qurḥun collect treasure so much, so that some powerful people cannot take keys. As Allah said;

﴿ إِنَّ قَرُونَ كَانَ مِنْ قَوْمِ مُوسَىٰ فَبَغَىٰ عَلَيْهِمْ ۖ وَآتَيْنَاهُ مِنَ الْكُنُوزِ مَا إِنَّ مَفَاتِحَهُ لَتَنُوءُ بِالْعُصْبَةِ أُولَىٰ الْقُوَّةِ إِذْ قَالَ لَهُ قَوْمُهُ لَا تَفْرَحْ ۖ إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يُحِبُّ الْفَرِحِينَ ﴾

The meaning:

Qurḥun was doubtless, of the people of Moses; but he acted insolently towards them: such were the treasures We had bestowed on him that their very keys would have been a burden to a body of strong men, behold, his people said to him: "Exult not, for Allah loveth not those who exult (in riches)"¹⁰⁷.

¹⁰⁷ Abdullah Yusuf Ali, The meaning of the Glorious Qur'ān, 028.076 (Al-Qaṣas [The Story, Stories]) Text Copied from DivinelIslam's Qur'an Viewer software v2.8.

The verse above gives the impression of the relationship between Moses and Q_±r_μn. The relationship is relationship. According to Quraish Shihhab, it is an allusion to the family of the Prophet, who do not want to believe and always applying persecution against the Prophet.

After God states that Q_±r_μn including the family of Moses or of Moses's family then God explained that Q_±r_μn acted arbitrarily and persecution. It shows that Q_±r_μn in collecting treasure always do evil by acting arbitrarily and depriving others. Crime can include many things, ranging from religion and violation of the provisions of the applicable regulations and respected, up to the humiliation and harassment against individuals in the community. Even the use of words in word baga (بَغَى) signaled that the abuse took place quickly without any thought by the individual.

Furthermore, God describes the part of the pious people of Jewish and Pastors Christian that many people take the treasure by a false action. Allah said;

﴿ يَتَأْتِيَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا إِنَّ كَثِيرًا مِّنَ الْأَحْبَارِ وَالرُّهْبَانِ لَيَأْكُلُونَ أَمْوَالَ
النَّاسِ بِالْبَاطِلِ وَيَصُدُّونَ عَن سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ وَالَّذِينَ يَكْنِزُونَ الذَّهَبَ
وَالْفِضَّةَ وَلَا يُنْفِقُونَهَا فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ فَبَشِّرْهُم بِعَذَابٍ أَلِيمٍ ﴾

The meaning:

O ye who believe! there are indeed many among the priests and anchorites, who in Falsehood devour the substance of men and hinder (them) from the way of Allah. And there are those who bury gold and silver and spend it not in the way of Allah: announce unto them a most grievous penalty.¹⁰⁸

The verse above invites people of faith to avoid the evils some Jewish and Christian priests, greedy, and accumulate treasures and possessions. God Almighty confirms that indeed many of the al-Ahb±r, those pious Jews and Monks, the priests Christians, who actually eat take someone else's treasure with a false manner, including by accepting a bribe, manipulate religion to gain material advantage. They manifest themselves as clerics close to God and the importance of life hereafter, but in fact,

E. Al-Kanz and how to use it

Much treasure is a gift from God Almighty that must be used with the best. Islam teaches that treasure is considered very important to be able to run other devotions (ibadah), such as provide for the family, sympathize the poor, pay the zakah (zakat) and perform Hajj. By all, aspire and work hard to acquire treasure, including good deeds (*al-ma'rūf*¹¹⁰)

Nevertheless, the treasure is not everything in life is the final destination; the treasure of the earth is just a means to prosper. Therefore, the Qur'ān denounced the people who just accumulate treasure but do not care about the fate of others, God Almighty said;

وَيْلٌ لِّكُلِّ هُمَزَةٍ لُّمَزَةٍ ﴿١﴾ الَّذِي جَمَعَ مَالًا وَعَدَّدَهُ ﴿٢﴾ يُحَسِّبُ أَنَّ مَالَهُ أَخْلَدَهُ ﴿٣﴾ كَلَّا لَيُنْبَذَنَّ فِي الْحُطَمَةِ ﴿٤﴾ وَمَا أَدْرَاكَ مَا الْحُطَمَةُ ﴿٥﴾ نَارُ اللَّهِ الْمَوْقِدَةُ ﴿٦﴾ الَّتِي تَطَّلِعُ عَلَى الْأَفْئِدَةِ ﴿٧﴾ إِنَّهَا عَلَيْهِمْ مُّوَصَّدَةٌ ﴿٨﴾ فِي عَمَدٍ مُمَدَّدَةٍ ﴿٩﴾

The meaning:

*Woe to every (kind of) scandal-monger and-backbiter, Who pileth up treasure and layeth it by, Thinking that his treasure would make him last for ever! By no means! Moreover, in the verses relating to Kanz, God Almighty denounced the people who have a lot of treasure, but do not want to spend it in the way of Allah Almighty. Allah Almighty said:

﴿ يَتَأْتِيهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا إِنَّ كَثِيرًا مِّنَ الْأَحْبَارِ وَالرُّهْبَانِ لَيَأْكُلُونَ أَمْوَالَ النَّاسِ بِالْبَاطِلِ وَيَصُدُّونَ عَن سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ وَالَّذِينَ يَكْنِزُونَ الذَّهَبَ وَالْفِضَّةَ وَلَا يَنْفِقُونَهَا فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ فَبَشِّرْهُمْ بِعَذَابٍ أَلِيمٍ ﴿١٦﴾ يَوْمَ نُحْمَىٰ عَلَيْهَا فِي نَارِ جَهَنَّمَ فَتُكْوَىٰ بِهَا جِبَاهُهُمْ وَجُنُوبُهُمْ وَظُهُورُهُمْ هَذَا مَا كَنَزْتُمْ لِأَنفُسِكُمْ فَذُوقُوا مَا كُنْتُمْ تَكْنِزُونَ ﴿١٧﴾ ﴾

The meaning:

¹¹² Abdullah Yusuf Ali, The meaning of the Glorious Qur'±n, 009.034-035 (At-Tawba [Repentance, Dispensation]) Text Copied from Divinelslam's Qur'an Viewer software v.2.8.

The verse above confirms that people who store gold and silver and not use it in the way of God, which is in accordance with its provisions, then they will be punished with a very painful ordeal.

The painful punishment took place in the Fire, heated days of gold and silver that they gather and then they burned them. This verse explains that the fire is their forehead that had been performed with the arrogant and proud of the treasure, which is often their stomach full and occupied with different kinds of pleasures from which they gather these treasures, and their backs so far back to God's guidance.

All members of the body were burned as the angels in charge of torturing them say to them, “this is treasure, that you store up without spending out in ways of God and you are set apart for your own benefit and forget the social function of the treasure, so taste is a result of the treasures that you keep it”.

As-Sha'rawiy's opinion, as quoted by Quraish Shihhab¹¹³ that each member body referred to in the verse has a role in their stinginess. Forehead, which is part of the face were the first to act when one comes to ask for help. When the people who do not want to spend their treasure, turned her face and frowned. When someone comes asking for help if the people who come asking to feel insulted but maybe not thought better to ask for help, then turned his skinflint is facing another direction; but if the requester is still insisted on asking, the miser to take a more assertive stance by leaving the requesters and their backs. Thus the three members of the body of the miser the role for collected treasure is not spent in the way of Allah.

It needs stressed, that this verse does not condemn all people who accumulate treasure let alone save for the future. Criticism is only directed at persons who accumulate treasure without spending in the way of Allah, which does not perform the social function of such treasure, such as the zakah (zakat), inf±k and alms (ṣadaqoh).

Furthermore, Allah describes the attitude of Q±rūn in using the treasure he accumulated by being haughty and arrogant to others, God Almighty said:

وَقَرُونَ وَفِرْعَوْنَ وَهَمَانَ ۗ وَلَقَدْ جَاءَهُمْ مُوسَىٰ بِالْبَيِّنَاتِ فَاسْتَكْبَرُوا فِي
 الْأَرْضِ وَمَا كَانُوا سَابِقِينَ ﴿٦٦﴾

The meaning:

Q±rµn, Pharaoh, and Haman: there came to them Moses with Clear Signs, but they behaved with insolence on the earth; yet they could not overreach (Us).¹¹⁴

The verse above shows that Q±rµn, Pharaoh, and Hammond act arrogant to Prophet Moses because of pride and arrogance of them. Then Allah Almighty destroys three of them. Doom and disaster that Allah drop is a result of their iniquity and arrogance, and Allah will not wrong them, but they wronged themselves, because they do not want to follow the teachings of the Prophet sent to them.

Torments that God gave to rebellious people are various kinds. Among them some rain and gravel placed him as the 'Ad and Luth and there are overwritten loud voice thundered, as the Mady±n and Tamud, among them there embedded in the bowels of the earth like Q±rµn and his followers, and among them were drowned into the sea like Pharaoh and his armies.

Furthermore, the Qur'an explains that in addition Q±rµn arrogant he also liked to flaunt his treasure, Allah Almighty said;

فَخَرَجَ عَلَى قَوْمِهِ فِي زِينَتِهِ ^ط قَالَ الَّذِينَ يُرِيدُونَ الْحَيَاةَ الدُّنْيَا يَلِيتَ لَنَا مِثْلَ مَا أُوتِيَ قُرُونُ إِنَّهُمْ لَذُو حَظٍّ عَظِيمٍ ﴿٧٦﴾

The meaning:

¹¹⁴ Abdullah Yusuf Ali, The meaning of the Glorious Qur'±n, 029.039 (Al-Ankaboot [The Spider]) Text Copied from DivinelIslam's Qur'an Viewer software v.2.8.

So he went forth among his people in the (pride of his worldly) glitter. Said those whose aim is the Life of this World: "Oh! that we had the like of what Q±rµn has got! for he is truly a lord of mighty good fortune!"¹¹⁵

The verse above shows how haughty and arrogant of Q±rµn, so that he flaunted his treasure to others, so that said people do not have faith and science (of Islam); "I hope we have like Q±rµn (treasure), in fact he believes a large part of the fortune and the pleasures of the world". Hearing the words that said people who got the knowledge (Islam) but not given a treasure like Q±rµn: "Woe to you, God reserved the reward is better than what is owned and flaunted by Q±rµn ". Reward is only for people of faith and charitable pious and patient in carrying out God's command and left the ban and receives pleasure in test and trial or the destiny of God's.

People who believe and do righteous always use the assets given by God to him to things blessed (ri«a) by God Almighty or in other words take advantage of these assets (treasure) in accordance with the guidance of religion (Islam), which govern how about the use of treasure.

¹¹⁵ Abdullah Yusuf Ali, The meaning of the Glorious Qur'±n, 028.079 (Al-Qa[as [The Story, Stories]) Text Copied from DivinelIslam's Qur'an Viewer software v.2.8.

After God explained many treasure given to Qur'an where his keys are not to be carried by a number of powerful people. Therefore, God explained how to use given by God to man. Allah Almighty said;

وَأَبْتَغِ فِي مِمَّا ءَاتَاكَ اللَّهُ الدَّارَ الْآخِرَةَ ۖ وَلَا تَنْسَ نَصِيبَكَ مِنَ الدُّنْيَا ۗ
وَأَحْسِنْ كَمَا أَحْسَنَ اللَّهُ إِلَيْكَ ۖ وَلَا تَبْغِ الْفَسَادَ فِي الْأَرْضِ ۗ إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يُحِبُّ
الْمُفْسِدِينَ

The meaning:

*"But seek, with the (treasure) which Allah has bestowed on thee, the Home of the Hereafter, nor forget thy portion in this world: but do thou good, as Allah has been good to thee, and seek not (occasions for) mischief in the land: for Allah loves not those who do mischief."*¹¹⁶

The verse above describes the use of all that God gave to humans. Allah Almighty asks people to use them for the sake of the hereafter with spending it accordance with guidance of God Almighty. At the same time, we should not forget the part of the pleasures of the world, in other words God Almighty do not criticize if someone took his share of the pleasures of the world as long as it does not eliminate the enjoyment of the afterlife. Allah's forgiveness by doing goodness which could remove the sins. ¹¹⁷

¹¹⁶ Abdullah Yusuf Ali, The meaning of the Glorious Qur'an, 028.077 (Al-Qaṣas [The Story, Stories]) Text Copied from DivinelIslam's Qur'an Viewer software v.2.8.

ṣaba'āba'i understand the verse above: "don't ignore what God bestowed to you of the pleasures of the world, and use it for the benefit of your afterlife because someone's acquisition from the life of this world is what he did to his afterlife because that is eternal for him". ¹¹⁸

According to Quraish Shihab¹¹⁹ there are some scholars think about this verse, some understand it is not balanced by stating that, this is a recommendation to leave the pleasures of the world by limiting themselves to basic needs, like eating, drinking, and clothing. There are also people understand as a demand for balancing the interests of living world and the hereafter. While other scholars have argued that the human part of the treasure in this world is just what is edible and eaten out, what use will be damaged and no longer usable and what is given to someone else and that is to be ¹¹⁷ This case related to Rasulullah's utterance: وأتبع السيئة الحسنة تمحها (follow every wickedness with goodness so that it could be remove). received rewards in the hereafter. Adherents of first and last opinion often ignore the history that states, "Work for the sake of your world-secant will give you will live forever and work for your hereafter as if you'll die tomorrow".

Quraish Shihab stated¹²⁰ that there are some important notes to consider about this paragraph not to be involved in the mistake: First, in view of Islam, earthly and hereafter life is one unit. The world is a place to plant and the hereafter is the place to reap. We will get in the hereafter what we try in the world. All charities can be a charitable world and there is no return in the hereafter, even if prayers and alms -if his intentions are not sincere to Allah, otherwise all the charity will be a charity afterlife if accompanied by sincerity to get closer to God, even if just a waste of thorns from the street.

Second, the verse above confirms the importance of directing views to the afterlife as a destination and to the world as a means to an end. Thus, more and more treasure lawfully acquired in the life of the world, the more open the opportunity to find happiness hereafter as long as it is spent according to the guidance of Allah Almighty.

Third, the verse above using the editor those are active when talking about the happiness of the hereafter when ordered for serious and very hard to get it. While the command to get the happiness of the world that is in the passive voice do not be forgotten, this confirms the difference between the two, and it must be admitted that they indeed have differences.

Thus, it can be stated that in view of the Qur'ān, the life of the world is not the same as the life hereafter. Attention should be directed more to the afterlife as a goal, not to the world, because the world is only a means to gain happiness hereafter.

CHAPTER IV

THE CHARACTERISTIC OF AL-KANZ

UNIVERSITAS ISLAM NEGERI

A. The Source of Al-Kanz

1. Love of Treasure

The desire to satisfy life needs is human beings' nature (fitrah). Therefore, it is also natural if human beings endeavor to have treasure in order to satisfy their needs where it becomes an obligation to do and is unable to be separated from them.

Treasure is any asset regardless the forms while the source of treasure is the reason of the treasure ownership, which was previously not possessed. Therefore, any attempts to forbid one to have treasure are against nature. In the same way, any efforts to restrict human beings in having treasure are also against nature. Consequently, it is proper to let human beings collect treasure and work to get it.

The current problem on this issue is the way human beings collect the treasure, which is supposed to be not uncontrollable, disobedient and unruly since it can lead to chaos, riot, and misery.

Islam never puts limit for someone to have plenty of treasure but it sets rule on the way of getting the treasure, which is supposed to match up with human nature and to maintain harmony among them. Islam also provides guarantee to human being in fully fulfilling their needs.

Allah states that human beings are given compassion to plentiful treasure, even in multiplied amount. It is the compassion to treasure, which encourages them to work hard and seriously in order to own it. Allah said:

زُيِّنَ لِلنَّاسِ حُبُّ الشَّهَوَاتِ مِنَ النِّسَاءِ وَالْبَنِينَ وَالْقَنَاطِيرِ الْمُقَنْطَرَةِ مِنَ
الذَّهَبِ وَالْفِضَّةِ وَالْخَيْلِ الْمُسَوَّمَةِ وَالْأَنْعَامِ وَالْحَرْثِ ۗ ذَٰلِكَ مَتَّعُ الْحَيَاةِ
الدُّنْيَا ۗ وَاللَّهُ عِنْدَهُ حُسْبُ الْمَآبِ ﴿١٦١﴾

The meaning:

*Fair in the eyes of men is the love of things they covet: Women and sons; Heaped-up hoards of gold and silver; horses branded (for blood and excellence); and (treasure of) cattle and well-tilled land. Such are the possessions of this world's life; but in nearness to Allah is the best of the goals (To return to).*¹²¹

The term $al-qan\pm^{-3}r$ in the above verse is the plural form of $qin\pm r$ where some people illustrate it in definite number such as 100 kg or certain amount of money and some others illustrate it in indefinite number¹²². Therefore, $qin\pm r$ is the large and countless amounts and scales while the term $muqan\bar{a}rah$ is the multiplication of $al-qan\pm^{-3}r$.

The above verse shows how big human compassion to treasure. It is not only one $qin\pm r$, which is uncountable, but also two $qin\pm r$, which is a lot of $qin\pm r$, it is even more and in multiple number called $muqan\bar{a}rah$. That also indicates human nature regarding treasure in the form of gold, silver and other forms like farms, horses, and livestock.¹²³

Human compassion to treasure is also depicted in the verses on al-kanz. Al-kanz in its isim form means accumulation of treasure.

Allah said:

﴿ يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا إِنَّ كَثِيرًا مِّنَ الْأَحْبَارِ وَالرُّهْبَانِ لِيَآكُلُونَ أَمْوَالَ النَّاسِ بِالْبَاطِلِ وَيَصُدُّونَ عَن سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ وَالَّذِينَ يَكْنِزُونَ الذَّهَبَ وَالْفِضَّةَ وَلَا يُنْفِقُونَهَا فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ فَبَشِّرْهُمْ بِعَذَابٍ أَلِيمٍ ﴿٦٤﴾ يَوْمَ تَحْمَىٰ عَلَيْهَا فِي نَارِ جَهَنَّمَ فَتُكْوَىٰ بِهَا جِبَاهُهُمْ وَجُنُوبُهُمْ وَظُهُورُهُمْ ۗ هٰذَا مَا كَنَزْتُمْ لِأَنفُسِكُمْ فَذُوقُوا مَا كُنْتُمْ تَكْنِزُونَ ﴿٦٥﴾ ﴾

The meaning:

O ye who believe! there are indeed many among the priests and anchorites, who in Falsehood devour the substance of men and hinder (them) from the way of Allah. And there are those who bury gold and silver and spend it not in the way of Allah: announce unto them a most grievous penalty- On the Day when heat will be produced out of that (treasure) in the fire of Hell, and with it will be branded their foreheads, their flanks, and their backs, their flanks, and their backs.- "This is the (treasure) which ye buried for yourselves: taste ye, then, the (treasures) ye buried!"¹²⁴

¹²⁴ Abdullah Yusuf Ali, The meaning of the Glorious Qur'±n, 009.034-035 (At-Tawba [Repentance, Dispensation]) Text Copied from DivinelIslam's Qur'an Viewer software v.2.8.

In this verse kanz is not employed in isim form but in fi'il form, indicating the compassion of human to treasure where they accumulate it over and over especially accumulation of gold and silver, two precious assets although it is not the most expensive.

Ash-Sha'rawi stated¹²⁵ that one of the aspects of Holy Qur'an miracle is the description of this verse where gold and silver, two mining products, are used to set up the currency value and exchange tool in trade although other mining products are more expensive and precious. In fact, both commodities are still used all over the world for currency and trading.

2. Reluctance to Expense of Treasure

Treasure is any assets owned regardless the forms while the source of treasure is the reason of the treasure ownership, which was previously not possessed.

The amount of treasure owned in Islam is not restricted, or in other word, Islam does not restrict one's right to possess treasure where the only thing regulated is the way of having it.

Allah granted plenty of treasure to Prophet Solomon as well as to queen Saba even to Qurayn in countless amounts indicating the absence of maximum amount of treasure to have.

¹²⁵ M. Quraish Shihab, Tafsir al-Mishbāh, op. cit., vol. 5, p. 82.

Despite so, the treasure granted should be spent according to Allah's rules. Human beings' reluctance to spend their treasure based on the rules is due to several reasons, among others:

First, humans consider their possessed treasure is the result of their hard work and personal capacity in obtaining the treasure without the support of others. Allah said;

قَالَ إِنَّمَا أُوتِيْتُهُ عَلَىٰ عِلْمٍ عِنْدِي ۗ أَوَلَمْ يَعْلَم أَنَّ اللَّهَ قَدْ أَهْلَكَ مِن قَبْلِهِ
مِنَ الْقُرُونِ مَنْ هُوَ أَشَدُّ مِنْهُ قُوَّةً وَأَكْثَرَ جَمْعًا ۚ وَلَا يُسْأَلُ عَن ذُنُوبِهِمُ
الْمُجْرِمُونَ ﴿٧٨﴾

The meaning:

He said: "This has been given to me because of a certain knowledge which I have." Did he not know that Allah had destroyed, before him, (whole) generations, - which were superior to him in strength and greater in the amount (of riches) they had collected? but the wicked are not called (immediately) to account for their sins.¹²⁶

The above verse illustrates how Qarun considered his treasure simply came from his hard work and personal capacity in accumulating the treasure while other people contributed nothing.

¹²⁶ Abdullah Yusuf Ali, The meaning of the Glorious Qur'an, 028.078 (Al-Qa[as [The Story, Stories]) Text Copied from DivinelIslam's Qur'an Viewer software v.2.8.

Second, the stinginess of human being makes them reluctant to donate some other treasure since they are afraid of losing or having reduced amount.

الَّذِينَ يَبْخُلُونَ وَيَأْمُرُونَ النَّاسَ بِالْبُخْلِ وَيَكْتُمُونَ مَا آتَاهُمُ اللَّهُ مِنْ فَضْلِهِ ۗ وَأَعْتَدْنَا لِلْكَافِرِينَ عَذَابًا مُهِينًا ﴿٧٧﴾

The meaning:

*those who are niggardly or enjoin niggardliness on others, or hide the bounties which Allah hath bestowed on them; for We have prepared, for those who resist Faith, a punishment that steeps them in contempt*¹²⁷

The preceding verse is sealed by signifying two human beings' bad characters, arrogance and pride, which are closely related to treasure ownership and social position since those who have treasure and position frequently arrogant and proud. On the other hand, proud people are frequently stingy since they are afraid of losing their treasure.

Being afraid of losing his treasure, someone will not only be stingy but also provoke others to be stingy as well both by oral persuasion to hinder others in donating and by giving bad model through a little donation or not donating at all. This kind of people will keep on saying, “I don’t have anything”.

Although the above verse particularly depicts those who are stingy by hiding their treasure, it also refers to those who hide their knowledge, even hiding truth that makes people suffer defeat.

B. The Human Attitude of al-Kanz

As has been discussed in previous section, Islam does not ban someone from having plenty of treasure neither does it set maximum standard on treasure ownership, however Islam regulates the way we get the treasure as well as the way we spend our treasure leading to human nature on Kanz.

a. Laudable Attitude

Those who consider Kanz as blessing of Allah will follow Allah’s rule on treasure utilization since they believe that everything granted by Allah will be taken into account (hereafter).

Allah Almighty asks human beings to utilize everything granted to them in order to obtain joy in the hereafter without reducing on right in the current life. Allah said:

وَأَتَّبِعْ فِي مَاءِ آتِنَاكَ اللَّهُ الدَّارَ الْآخِرَةَ وَلَا تَنْسَ نَصِيبَكَ مِنَ الدُّنْيَا
 وَأَحْسِنْ كَمَا أَحْسَنَ اللَّهُ إِلَيْكَ وَلَا تَبْغِ الْفَسَادَ فِي الْأَرْضِ إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَا
 يُحِبُّ الْمُفْسِدِينَ ﴿٧٧﴾

The meaning:

*"But seek, with the (treasure) which Allah has bestowed on thee, the Home of the Hereafter, nor forget thy portion in this world: but do thou good, as Allah has been good to thee, and seek not (occasions for) mischief in the land: for Allah loves not those who do mischief."*¹²⁸

The above verse suggests us to work and think as hard as possible within the allowable limit of God in order to have treasure while at the same time Allah Almighty also suggests us to utilize the treasure for our advantages in the hereafter life without ignoring our current life in the world.¹²⁹

Therefore, the treasure owned should be used in Allah's way, or in other word, should be spent based on the rule of Allah Almighty.

The meaning:

*They ask thee what they should spend (In charity). Say: Whatever ye spend that is good is for parents, kindred, orphans, and those in want and for wayfarers. And whatever ye do that is good, -Allah knoweth it well.*¹³⁰

This verse describes that our treasure should be granted to our parents since both of them are our origin and media of our existence in the world who are also the most meritorious people in raising and educating us. The next level is our close or far relatives and the orphans who are yet grown up while their fathers have passed away, followed by those who travel but have insufficient stocks. The above verse describes the situations in past time indicating those mentioned have been practiced, requiring no more command to do.

Reminding us the importance of utilizing our treasure in His way, Allah Almighty suggests the believer to make use of the treasure before their death. As Allah said:

¹³⁰ Abdullah Yusuf Ali, The meaning of the Glorious Qur'ān, 002.215 (Al-Baqara [The Cow]) Text Copied from DivinelIslam's Qur'an Viewer software v.2.8.

يَأْتِيهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا أَنفَقُوا مِمَّا رَزَقْنَاكُمْ مِّن قَبْلِ أَن يَأْتِيَ يَوْمٌ لَا بَيْعَ فِيهِ
وَلَا خِلاَةَ وَلَا شَفَعَةً ۗ وَالْكَافِرُونَ هُمُ الظَّالِمُونَ ﴿٢٥٤﴾

The meaning:

O ye who believe! Spend out of (the bounties) We have provided for you, before the Day comes when no bargaining (Will avail), nor friendship nor intercession. Those who reject Faith they are the wrong-doers¹³¹

The above verse recommends us to spend our opulence granted by Allah, prior to the day when no more trading, friendship and forgiveness exist. The days are before our death or judgment day since after that everybody will be in guilt and willing to do more virtues and to redeem their sins. Unfortunately, on that day, no more trade and relation can be used to ask for forgiveness on our previous sins.

Furthermore, Allah elaborates the benefits of spending our treasure in Allah's way. Allah said;

مَثَلُ الَّذِينَ يُنْفِقُونَ أَمْوَالَهُمْ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ كَمَثَلِ حَبَّةٍ أَنْبَتَتْ سَبْعَ سَنَابِلٍ فِي

¹³¹ Abdullah Yusuf Ali, The meaning of the Glorious Qur'an, 002.254 (Al-Baqara [The Cow]) Text Copied from DivinelIslam's Qur'an Viewer software v.2.8.

The meaning:

*The parable of those who spend their substance in the way of Allah is that of a grain of corn: it groweth seven ears, and each ear hath a hundred grains. Allah giveth manifold increase to whom He pleaseth: And Allah careth for all and He knoweth all things. Those who spend their substance in the cause of Allah, and follow not up their gifts with reminders of their generosity or with injury, -for them their reward is with their Lord: on them shall be no fear, nor shall they grieve.*¹³²

According to Quraish Shihhab¹³³ as stated from some narratives, this verse describes the philanthropy of Utsman bin Affan dan Abdurrahman bin 'Auf who donated their treasure to fund the Tabuk war. Although this verse originally comes to show the philanthropy of the two friends of Prophet Mohammed p.b.u.h, it generally applies to those who have treasure in order to avoid them from neglecting to help others since things donated will increase and multiply in amount.

The allegory of those who spend their treasure in Allah's way is like peasant sowing seeds. A seed grown will produce seven others where in each there are a hundred seeds. Allah said:

The meaning:

The parable of those who spend their substance in the way of Allah is that of a grain of corn: it groweth seven ears, and each ear Hath a hundred grains. Allah giveth manifold increase to whom He pleaseth: And Allah careth for all and He knoweth all things¹³⁴.

This striking parable encourages human beings to spend their treasure in Allah's way. If the land created by Allah serves many things for you, Do you human being still hesitate to spend your treasure in Allah's way? Is your belief to the land higher than the creator of the land?

b. Blamable Attitude

Since treasure in the eyes of Allah is simply medium in life (al-Qaṣas verse 5), Islam therefore demands to use it in proper way, according to Allah's way and avoid wasting it.

Human beings are asked to find treasure not simply to satisfy their needs, but also to find surplus from Allah.

¹³⁴ Abdullah Yusuf Ali, The meaning of the Glorious Qur'ān, 002.261 (Al-Baqara [The Cow]) Text Copied from DivinelIslam's Qur'an Viewer software v.2.8.

يَتَأْتِيهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا إِذَا نُودِيَ لِلصَّلَاةِ مِنْ يَوْمِ الْجُمُعَةِ فَاسْعَوْا إِلَىٰ ذِكْرِ
 اللَّهِ وَذَرُوا الْبَيْعَ ۚ ذَٰلِكُمْ خَيْرٌ لَكُمْ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ تَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٦٢﴾

The meaning:

*O ye who believe! When the call is proclaimed to prayer on Friday (the Day of Assembly), hasten earnestly to the Remembrance of Allah, and leave off business (and traffic): That is best for you if ye but knew!*¹³⁵

The surplus is meant to enable us to pray better and to help others who have less. Allah Almighty criticizes those who behave badly in possessing treasure. First, being proud on treasure owned, just like the behave of Qarun, Pharaoh, dan Haman. Allah said:

وَقَرُونِ وَفَرَعُونَ وَهَمَانَ ۗ وَلَقَدْ جَاءَهُمْ مُوسَىٰ بِالْبَيِّنَاتِ
 فَاسْتَكْبَرُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ وَمَا كَانُوا سَابِقِينَ ﴿٦٣﴾

The meaning:

*Qarun, Pharaoh, and Haman: there came to them Moses with Clear Signs, but they behaved with insolence on the earth; yet they could not overreach.*¹³⁶

¹³⁵ Abdullah Yusuf Ali, The meaning of the Glorious Qur'an, 062.009 (Al-Jumua [The Congregation, Friday]) Text Copied from DivinelIslam's Qur'an Viewer software v.2.8.

¹³⁶ Abdullah Yusuf Ali, The meaning of the Glorious Qur'an, 029.039 (Al-Ankabut [The Spider]) Text Copied from DivinelIslam's Qur'an Viewer software v.2.8.

Qarun even was not only proud but also flaunted it to others. As Allah said:

فَخَرَجَ عَلَى قَوْمِهِ فِي زِينَتِهِ ۗ قَالَ الَّذِينَ يُرِيدُونَ الْحَيَاةَ الدُّنْيَا
يَلْبِثَ لَنَا مِثْلَ مَا أُوتِيَ قُرُونُ إِنَّهُ لَذُو حَظٍّ عَظِيمٍ ﴿٧٩﴾

The meaning:

So he went forth among his people in the (pride of his worldly) glitter. Said those whose aim is the Life of this World: "Oh! that we had the like of what Qarun has got! for he is truly a lord of mighty good fortune!"¹³⁷

In Al-Quran dan Terjemahannya of ministry of religious affairs (DEPAG) Qarun showed up with accompaniment completed with guards and slaves simply to demonstrate his luxury to others.¹³⁸

Second, being stingy to donate treasure, this character arises since human beings are conquered by treasure and being enslaved by the treasure making them forgetful to their duty as God's creature and ruler of the earth (khalifah).

 مِنْ فَضْلِهِ وَأَعْتَدْنَا لِلْكَافِرِينَ عَذَابًا مُهِينًا ﴿٧٧﴾

The meaning:

those who are niggardly or enjoin niggardliness on others, or hide the bounties which Allah hath bestowed on them; for We have prepared, for those who resist Faith, a punishment that steeps them in contempt¹³⁹

The last part of the verse describes two bad characters of human beings, pride and arrogance. Both characters are closely related to treasure ownership and social position since those who have treasure and social position are frequently proud and arrogant. On the other hand, those who are proud and arrogant for their treasure and position are also stingy due to their frightened of losing.

The above verse emphasizes that Allah dislikes those who keep on behaving stingy where they do not only behave stingy but also influence people to act like them both by orally banning others to donate and by giving bad examples like granting little donation or neglecting to donate at all.

¹³⁹ Abdullah Yusuf Ali, The meaning of the Glorious Qur'ān, 004.037 (Al-Nisā [Women]) Text Copied from DivinelIslam's Qur'an Viewer software v.2.8.

Consequently, Allah Almighty reminds them on the bad consequences of their stinginess.

وَلَا تَحْسَبَنَّ الَّذِينَ يَبْخُلُونَ بِمَا آتَاهُمُ اللَّهُ مِنْ فَضْلِهِ هُوَ خَيْرًا لَهُمْ بَلْ هُوَ
 شَرٌّ لَهُمْ سَيُطَوَّقُونَ مَا بَخُلُوا بِهِ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ ۗ وَلِلَّهِ مِيرَاثُ السَّمَاوَاتِ
 وَالْأَرْضِ ۗ وَاللَّهُ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ خَبِيرٌ ﴿١٨٠﴾

The meaning:

*And let not those who covetously withhold of the gifts which Allah Hath given them of His Grace, think that it is good for them: Nay, it will be the worse for them: soon shall the things which they covetously withheld be tied to their necks Like a twisted collar, on the Day of Judgment. To Allah belongs the heritage of the heavens and the earth; and Allah is well acquainted with all that ye do.*¹⁴⁰

Third, is being reluctant to spend their treasure in Allah's way. Since the temptation of treasure makes us forgetful, Holy Qur'an reminds human beings to win such temptations that possible make us forgetful to spend our treasure in Allah's way.

﴿ يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا إِنَّ كَثِيرًا مِّنَ الْأَحْبَارِ وَالرُّهْبَانِ لَيَأْكُلُونَ
 أَمْوَالَ النَّاسِ بِالْبَاطِلِ وَيَصُدُّونَ عَن سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ ۗ وَالَّذِينَ يَكْنُزُونَ

¹⁴⁰ Abdullah Yusuf Ali, The meaning of the Glorious Qur'an, 003.180 (Ali-Imran [The Family of Imran]) Text Copied from DivinelIslam's Qur'an Viewer software v.2.8.

الذَّهَبَ وَالْفِضَّةَ وَلَا يُنْفِقُونَهَا فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ فَبَشِّرْهُم بِعَذَابٍ أَلِيمٍ ﴿٣٤﴾
 يَوْمَ نُحْمَىٰ عَلَيْهَا فِي نَارِ جَهَنَّمَ فَتُكْوَىٰ بِهَا جِبَاهُهُمْ وَجُنُوبُهُمْ وظُهُورُهُمْ
 هَذَا مَا كُنْتُمْ تَكْنِزُونَ ﴿٣٥﴾

The meaning:

O ye who believe! there are indeed many among the priests and anchorites, who in Falsehood devour the substance of men and hinder (them) from the way of Allah. And there are those who bury gold and silver and spend it not in the way of Allah: announce unto them a most grievous penalty. On the Day when heat will be produced out of that (treasure) in the fire of Hell, and with it will be branded their foreheads, their flanks, and their backs, their flanks, and their backs. - "This is the (treasure) which ye buried for yourselves: taste ye, then, the (treasures) ye buried!"¹⁴¹

By ignoring to serve the social function of the treasure like paying zakah, assisting the poor and other kinds of social activities¹⁴², Allah reminds them about His torture, which will be very hurt where He even mentions three parts of body to torture.

¹⁴¹ Abdullah Yusuf Ali, The meaning of the Glorious Qur'ān, 009.034-035 (Al-Tawba [Repentance, Dispensation]) Text Copied from DivinelIslam's Qur'an Viewer software v.2.8.

¹⁴² Muhammad Nejatullah Siddiqi, Muslim Economic Thinking 'A survey of contemporary literature', second edition, (Leicester: The Islamic Foundation, 1988), p. 62.

Al-Sha'rawi stated¹⁴³ that the mentioning of the three body parts is due to their contribution in behaving stingy. Forehead is the first body part used once someone else asks for help. Those who refuse to help will turn their face or wrinkle their forehead once he knows someone ask for help. At the moment, the asker is feeling insulted, but he might still ask for help, the stingy will then leave him and turn away. Therefore, it makes sense that the above verse specifically mentions the three body parts.

The Qur'ān always recommends that man should not be in passive act, but in active all of activities such as: in economy, politic, etc, and in a verse (sūra al-Mursalāt (77): 83) was explained the standards of goodness as a descriptive conclusion of good deeds, they are: not believe more than one God (shirk), making good deeds to the parents, relatives, orphans and to the weak man (give alms, contribution), good talking to the others, establish regular prayer and practice charity.¹⁴⁴ All of them can be realized by a good comprehensive to the Qur'ānic values.

CHAPTER V

CLOSING CHAPTER

¹⁴⁴ Toshihiko Izutsu, Ethico-Religious Concepts in the Qur'ān, translated in to Indonesian by Agus Fahri Husein "Konsep-Konsep Etika Religius dalam al-Qur'ān", 2nd edition, (Yogyakarta: Tiara Wacana, 2003), p. 247.

A. Conclusion

Based on the description in previous chapters relating to the concept of Kanz in the Qur'ān, the author will suggest several conclusions:

1. The word “Kanz” derived from the word ka-na-za ك-ن-ز, which means piling up treasure, partly on top of one another. The word “Kanz” also means collected treasure so that it becomes much. Besides, the word “Kanz” can also be interpreted as something very valuable. In this sense is known phrase “al qanṣ'ah kanz la yafwa” (القناعة كنز لا يفو) is the inner satisfaction is “Kanz” that are invaluable and will not be exhausted.
2. The form verses relating to Kanz explained that Islam strongly encourages Muslims to work. Islam does not forbid believers to get a many treasure and does not limit one's treasure ownership. However, Islam limits the way to get the treasure and how to use it.
3. The implementation in social life is making efforts to obtain any number of properties must be based on the guidance of Allah Almighty such as honesty, fairness, openness, willingness and avoid things such despicable lies, deceit and so on. Similarly, the use of treasure has to be based on the guidance of Allah such as providing a living to our parents and relatives, the neighbors, the poor, orphans and people in transit and also avoid cocky attitude, arrogant, and showing off treasure.

B. Implications and Suggestions

1. Implications

Even the experts/scholars have diverse views about kantz, but the Qur'ān asserts that kantz (have many treasure) is not forbidden to have it as much as anything, as long as the process of obtaining and use it according to the guidance of Allah. This has implications for encouraging Muslims to be appropriate guidance of Allah.

2. Suggestions

Based on the discussions that have been the author pointed out in earlier chapters, the authors propose these suggestions:

- a. The faculty of economics should be able provide motivation to students to work hard to get the treasure, thus students should be given entrepreneurial subjects.
- b. UIN Alauddin Makassar should program training of entrepreneur to equip the students the skills to enter the working world.
- c. All religious institutions should set up partners for business people to increase economic capacity of the community.

- d. All preachers (d±'i) always should give enlightenment to the people for working hard to get the treasure in order to obtain the happiness of the world and the hereafter.

The Verses of Al-Kanz in the Qur'an

1. Surra al-Taubah verse 34 & 35 (Madaniyah)

﴿يَأْتِيهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا إِنَّ كَثِيرًا مِّنَ الْأَحْبَارِ وَالرُّهْبَانِ لِيَآكُلُونَ أَمْوَالَ النَّاسِ
 بِالْبَطْلِ وَيَصُدُّونَ عَنِ سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ ۗ وَالَّذِينَ يَكْتُمُونَ ﴿٣٤﴾ الذَّهَبَ وَالْفِضَّةَ وَلَا
 يُنْفِقُونَهَا فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ فَبَشِّرْهُم بِعَذَابٍ أَلِيمٍ ﴿٣٥﴾ يَوْمَ تُحْمَىٰ عَلَيْهَا فِي نَارِ جَهَنَّمَ
 فَتُكْوَىٰ بِهَا جِبَاهُهُمْ وَجُنُوبُهُمْ وظُهُورُهُمْ ۗ هَذَا مَا كُنْتُمْ ﴿٣٦﴾ لَأَنفُسِكُمْ فذُوقُوا مَا كُنْتُمْ
 يَكْتُمُونَ ﴿٣٧﴾

O ye who believe! there are indeed many among the priests and anchorites, who in Falsehood devour the substance of men and hinder (them) from the way of Allah. And there are those who bury gold and silver and spend it not in the way of Allah: announce unto them a most grievous penalty- On the Day when heat will be produced out of that (treasure) in the fire of Hell, and with it will be branded their foreheads, their flanks, and their backs, their flanks, and their backs.- "This is the (treasure) which ye buried for yourselves: taste ye, then, the (treasures) ye buried!"¹⁴⁵

Subject : the priests and anchorites

Object : Believers (Mu'meen)

Note : The threat the people whose made al-Kanz

2. Sura Hud verse 12 (Makkiyah)

فَلَعَلَّكَ تَارِكٌ بَعْضَ مَا يُوحَىٰ ۖ وَإِلَيْكَ وَصَابِقُ بِهِ ۚ صَدْرُكَ أَن يَقُولُوا لَوْلَا أُنزِلَ عَلَيْهِ

كَنْزٌ أَوْ جَاءَ مَعَهُ مَلَكٌ ۖ إِنَّمَا أَنْتَ نَذِيرٌ ۗ وَاللَّهُ عَلَىٰ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ وَكِيلٌ ﴿١٢﴾

Perchance thou mayest (feel the inclination) to give up a part of what is revealed unto thee -the Prophet-, and thy heart feeleth straitened lest they (Kuff±r) say, "Why is not a treasure sent down unto him, or why does not an angel come down with him?" But thou art there only to warn! It is Allah that arrangeth all affairs!¹⁴⁶

Subject : Kuff±r

Object : The Prophet (Mohammed p.b.u.h.)

3. Sura al-Kahfi verse 82 (Makkiyah)

وَأَمَّا الْجِدَارُ فَكَانَ لِغُلَامَيْنِ يَتِيمَيْنِ فِي الْمَدِينَةِ وَكَانَ تَحْتَهُ كَنْزٌ لَهُمَا وَكَانَ أَبُوهُمَا

صَالِحًا فَأَرَادَ رَبُّكَ أَنْ يَبْلُغَا أَشُدَّهُمَا وَيَسْتَخْرِجَا كَنْزَهُمَا رَحْمَةً مِّنَ رَبِّكَ وَمَا فَعَلْتُهُ

عَنْ أَمْرِي ذَٰلِكَ تَأْوِيلُ مَا لَمْ تَسْطِعْ عَلَيْهِ صَبْرًا ﴿٨٧﴾

"As for the wall, it belonged to two youths, orphans, in the Town; there was, beneath it, a buried treasure, to which they were entitled: their father had been a righteous man: So thy Lord desired that they should attain their age of full strength and get out their treasure - a mercy (and favour) from thy Lord. I did it not of my own accord. Such is the interpretation of (those things) over which thou wast unable to hold patience."¹⁴⁷

Subject : the priests and anchorites

Object : Believers (Mu'meen)

Note : The threat the people who makes al-Kanz

4. Surra al-Furqan verse 8 (Makkiyah)

أَوْ يُلْقَىٰ إِلَيْهِ كَنْزٌ أَوْ تَكُونُ لَهُ جَنَّةٌ يَأْكُلُ مِنْهَا وَقَالَ الظَّالِمُونَ إِن تَتَّبِعُونَ

إِلَّا رَجُلًا مَّسْحُورًا ﴿٨٨﴾

*Treasures, and every kind of honourable position*¹⁴⁹

Subject : Almighty Allah

Object : Pharaoh (Moses Period)

6. Sūra al-Qasās ayat 76 (Makkiyah)

﴿٧٦﴾ إِنَّ قَرُونَ كَانَ مِنْ قَوْمِ مُوسَىٰ فَبَغَىٰ عَلَيْهِمْ ۖ وَآتَيْنَاهُ مِنَ الْكُنُوزِ مَا إِنَّ مَفَاتِحَهُ

لَتُنُوًّا بِالْعَصَبَةِ أُولَىٰ الْقُوَّةِ إِذْ قَالَ لَهُ قَوْمُهُ لَا تَفْرَحْ ۖ إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يُحِبُّ الْفَرِحِينَ ﴿٧٦﴾

Qarun was doubtless, of the people of Moses; but he acted insolently towards them: such were the treasures We had bestowed on him that their very keys
