Title : The Concept of al-‘Adl (God Justice) in the Perspective of Muktazilite (A Study of al-Zamakhshari’s Thought in al-Kashshāf)

This thesis discusses about The Concept of al-‘Adl (God Justice) in the Perspective of Muktazilite (A Study of al-Zamakhshari’s Thought in al-Kashshāf). Al-‘Adl (God justice) is the discussion that has been discussed by many sects in Islam from the previous era till the present era. Al-‘Adl (God justice) is differently comprehended by those sects. The sect that provides the comment about al-‘adl (God justice) is Muktazilite especially al-Zamakhshari. He interpreted many Qur’an verses based on Muktazilite view especially about al-‘adl (God justice) in his exegesis book (al-Kashshāf).

The main problems of this thesis are how the al-Zamakhshari’s thought about the concept of al-‘adl (God justice) in his exegesis book (al-Kashshāf) and also about Muktazilite and its concept of al-‘adl (God justice), the background of al-Zamakhshari and his al-Kashshāf.

The aims of this research are: 1. To know the history of Muktazilite and its concept of al-‘adl (God justice), 2. To know the background of al-Zamakhshari and his exegesis book (al-Kashshāf), 3. To know the al-Zamakhshari’s thought in his exegesis book about al-‘adl (God justice). The genre of this research is qualitative description by describing the al-Zamakhshari’s interpretation in his exegesis book. The approach methods are historical approach method, philosophical approach method and exegetical approach method. To collect the data, the writer uses the library research. Data processing method with analyzing data and information about the background of al-Zamakhshari, his sect and its concept of al-‘adl (God justice), his book and his interpretation that has been obtained then collected and analyzed, so that it will be the whole data and information and can giving a truth description about researched object (al-Zamakhshari’s thought).

The result of this research shows that Qur’an/exegesis is always used for the certain importance of someone or groups. So, sometimes in interpretation of verse seems the interpreters endeavor to make the same perception of what the Qur’an means with their comprehension. In the exegesis book (al-Kashshāf), the writer finds many theological interpretations, which direct to the theology comprehension that was comprehended by his (al-Zamakhshari) theology sect; it is Muktazilite. According to al-Zamakhshari’s thought, al-‘adl (God justice) is the main teaching along with tauḥīd (God oneness) in Islam.

Al-Zamakhshari admit al-‘adl (God justice) and he does not admit the absolute will of God. Allah will be just/fair if he gives human beings freedom to act and to determine their deeds, does not give them burden beyond their capability and capacity, does not do a wrong deed (ẓālim) to them, and do the good and the best for them. So, each verse that related with these always be interpreted based on Muktazilite comprehension.

CHAPTER I

INTRODUCTION

A. Background

The capability of each human being in understanding God's words and expressions in the holy Qur'an is not same, whereas its explanation is so explicit and its verses also are so detail. The difference of logical reasoning power among human beings are not contradicted again.¹ In the case of Islamic science studies that have a source from Qur'an, a variety of different comprehensions have appeared, such as text of fiqh, the four schools (maẓāhib al-'arba'ah), exegesis, taṣawwuf, theology science, religious social and etc. All these mentioned texts are beginning from the process of incisive controversy as a form of comprehension process of the Quranic riciters.²

During the first century of Islam, a variety of sects and groups appeared. They have many differences which led them competed one another in the circle of Islamic society.³ As narrated by Prophet Muhammad p.b.u.h. in his saying as a warning "the society will never go astray after get guidance except they emerged a disputation" then he read "They quoted not the above example except for argument. Nay! But they are a quarrelsome people"⁴

¹Mannā' Khafīl al-Qaṭṭān, Mabāḥiṣ fī Ulūm al-Qur'ān, translated to Indonesian Language by Mudzakir AS, Studi Ilmu-Ilmu al-Qur'an (14thEd; Bogor: Pustaka Litera Antar Nusa, 2011), p. 455.

²H. M. Nur Kholis Setiawan, Pemikiran Progresif dalam Kajian al-Qur'an (1thEd; Jakarta: Kencana, 2008), p. viii.

³Abū al-Ḥusain Yaḥya bin Abī al-Khair bin Sālim al-'Imrānī, al-Intiṣār fī al-Radd 'ala al-Mu'tazilah al-Qadariyyah al-Asyrār, Vol. I (Riyāḍ: Aḍwā' al-Salaf, 1419 H/ 1999 M), p. 6.

⁴Muḥammad bin 'Isā bin Sarwah bin Mūsā bin Ḍaḥḥāk al-Tirmiẓī, al-Jāmi' al-Kabīr: Sunan al-Tirmiẓī, Vol. 5 (Beirut: Dār al-Garb al-Islāmī, 1998M), p. 232. The Indonesian translation of Qur'an Verse see Muhammad Muhsin Khan & Muhammad Taqiuddin al-Hilali, Interpretation of the Meanings of the Noble Qur'an in the English Language (Riyadh: Darussalam, 2007), p. 662.

Therefore, since long time ago, the characters of disputation have emerged in understanding Allah's verses especially when talking about divinity. Al-Qur'an has been sent down by Allah with general language, so it will always cause a different interpretation in comprehending the verses. The opportunity of people in interpreting al-Qur'an freely will also make a different comprehension, so that it will be claimed later by a group just for their own interest.

The law bases of interpretation may be seen from three aspects:

1. The philosophical basis, as in QS. Al-Qiyamah/75:19

ثُمَّ إِنَّ عَلَيْنَا بَيَانَهُ ﴿١٩﴾

The meaning:

Then it is for us (Allah) to make it clear (to you).⁵

Grammatically, the subject of the sentence above is bayānahu. This word consists of phrase bayān and hu (a singular pronoun for third person). The first word is maṣḍar from verb abāna (giving explanation). Therefore, that word means "the attitude to give explanation". Hereby may be said that phrase 'alaina consists of 'ala which means certainty and na is a plural pronoun. Clearly, the verse above gives explanation that Quranic exegesis comes from Allah swt.

2. The historical basis, as the logical consequence of explanation above, it seems in the fact of history that based on the exegesis that received from Allah swt. Prophet Muhammad p.b.u.h. acted as the first interpreter. As mentioned in QS Al-Nahl/16: 44

وَأَنْزَلْنَا إِلَيْكَ الذِّكْرَ لِتُبَيِّنَ لِلنَّاسِ مَا نُزِّلَ إِلَيْهِمْ وَلَعَلَّهُمْ يَتَفَكَّرُونَ ﴿٤٤﴾

⁵Muhammad Muhsin Khan & Muhammad Taqiuddin al-Hilali, Interpretation of the Meanings of the Noble Qur'an in the English Language, p. 790.

The meaning:

And we have also sent down to you (O Muhammad p.b.u.h) the dhikr [reminder and the advice (i.e. the Qur'an)], that you may explain clearly to men what is sent down to them, and that they may give thought.⁶

Thus, he has not only forwarded the interpretation that he received, but also he laid the bases of the Qur'an interpretation activity for his followers in the future. He has not only bequeathed the exegesis traditions as sunnah qauliyyah, but he bequeathed also the model to interpret al-Qur'an for his followers as sunnah fi'liyyah.

3. The shari'ah basis,

Measuring from the fact of exegesis as tradition that constitute as model of deed for the believers, shari'ah basis of exegesis may be referred to the QS al-Hasy/59: 7.

وَمَا آتَاكُمُ الرَّسُولُ فَخُذُوهُ وَمَا نَهَاكُمْ عَنْهُ فَانْتَهُوا

The meaning :

And whatsoever the Messenger (Muhammad p.b.u.h.) gives you, take it; and whatsoever he forbids you, abstain (from it). And fear Allah; verily, Allah is severe in punishment.⁷

Althought, The verse above could become a shari'ah basis to follow the way of Rasulullah work, but still could not be yet as a shari'ah basic to interpreting Qur'an.

The verse that used to become shari'ah basis in interpreting Qur'an is QS Shad/38: 29.

كَتَبْنَا أَنْزَلْنَاهُ إِلَيْكَ مُبَارَكٌ لِيَدَّبَّرُوا آيَاتِهِ وَلِيَتَذَكَّرَ أُولُوا الْأَلْبَابِ

⁶Muhammad Muhsin Khan & Muhammad Taqiuddin al-Hilali, Interpretation of the Meanings of the Noble Qur'an in the English Language, p. 362.

⁷Muhammad Muhsin Khan & Muhammad Taqiuddin al-Hilali, Interpretation of the Meanings of the Noble Qur'an in the English Language, p. 742.

The meaning

(This is) a book (the Qur'an) which we have sent down to you, full of blessings, that they may ponder over its verses, and that men of understanding may remember.⁸

The main content of the verse above is the book that contains many goodness which were sent down with two purposes; to be learned and that human beings may be aware.

The word of tadabbara means looking for something behind, so its clear if the above mentioned word means "looking for something behind the Qur'an verses". Therefore, the essential meaning of tadabbur in the verse above is to delve into the core meanings behind the Qur'anic expressions or words. With this definition, the word of tadabbur is equivalent with the word of tafsīr (exegesis).⁹

Because the Qur'an may be interpreted with any kinds of things suitable with the background of the interpreter, many interpreters simply interpret the Qur'an just for their personal or sect importance not for the collective importance. Imam Ali ra. said as quoted in the book of Nahj al-Balāghah "Qur'an is written and printed in the mushaf, it couldn't speak, but anyone must understand it because Qur'an speaks through human beings.

Thus the way of Ali bin Abi Thalib criticizes religious persons and politicians who always seek justification from Qur'an. If they had different opinions, they always claimed their opinions were supported by some verses in the Qur'an. They considered their partial comprehension of the Qur'an had represented all the contents of the Qur'an.

⁸Muhammad Muhsin Khan & Muhammad Taqiuddin al-Hilali, Interpretation of the Meanings of the Noble Qur'an in the English Language, p. 611.

⁹Mardan, al-Qur'an Sebuah Pengantar (Ciputat: Mazhab Ciputat, 2010), p. 242-244.

Based on this phenomena, Ali conveyed his thought upon the spreading of the majesty of the Qur'an to legalize the dominance, especially after the political fight. Imam Ali bin Abi Thalib smelt the aroma of Quranic politicization. Even he extremely criticized the statement of Kharijites that want to apply the law of God. Kharijites statement about God sovereignty is noble, but its purpose is wrong (kalimatu ḥaqqin yurādu bihā al-bāṭil). Why was it said wrong?

The mentioned question is important to be expressed so that it may be understood and taken as valuable lesson for Islamic society after Imam Ali leadership and the Islamic political actuator in the contemporary era. According to Imam Ali, there is a strong indication that Kharijites noises about God sovereignty claim just for the political campaign. Therefore, when Kharijites introduced the Qur'an, it was actually not in the frame of translating Quranic values in the real life for the collective goodness, but just to attract public sympathy, that if they got a chance to have a dominance they wouldn't turned away from Qur'an. But generally, after they got a leadership, they did not apply the concept of democracy (syūrā), but just to establish his dominance with the manner to unite between exegesis and Qur'an, and make the Qur'an just for political justification. The consequence is that the Qur'an will be a closed text. The ability to interpret the Qur'an is limited to certain peoples (al-Mukhabh). The interpretation practice was not the tradition and culture of Muslim society. So that, the Qur'an exegesis becomes very strange for Muslim society.¹⁰

Ignaz Goldziher categorized five kinds of Qur'an interpretations in the circle of Islamic society: first, the interpretation by using the prophet traditions and his companions; second, dogmatic interpretation; third, mystic interpretation; fourth, sectarian interpretation; and fifth, modern interpretation.¹¹ Within theologian, many dogmatic and sectarian interpretation models were found as these consequences of the influence of the theological concept were they followed and the importance of an individual or cluster that wants to be achieved.

The interpretation that based on the theology and philosophy is too allegorical. The main basis of allegorical interpretation is QS Ali Imran/3: 7, which is stated that the Qur'an contains muḥkamāt and mutasyābihāt verses.¹² In these *mutasyābihāt*¹³ verses those cause a variety of differences in understanding a problem because the scholars themselves have a different thoughts in categorizing muḥkamāt and mutasyābihāt verses.

The differences of opinion regarding the ability of human beings in digging the purpose of the mutasyābihāt verses as happened in giving the definition of muḥkamāt and mutasyābihāt may be unavoidable.

Those differences are actually based on whether the piece of verse والراسخون is 'atf to the word of Allah, and يقولون is ḥāl, or it is mubtada' and يقولون is khabar. The difference also, whether the letter of wawu in the verse mentioned is ¹¹Ignaz Goldziher, Mazāhib al-Tafsīr al-Islāmī, translated by M. Alaik Salamullah Madzhab Tafsir: Dari Aliran Klasik hingga Modern (1st Ed; Yogyakarta: eLSAQ Press, 2003), p. 150.

¹²Syamsul Qamar, Tafsir Teologis: Mendialogkan Teks dan Konteks (1st Ed; Makassar: Alauddin University Press, 2012), p. 137.

¹³In a etymology mutasyābih comes from the letters ش ب and • that means similarity either color or feature. See Abū al-Ḥusain Aḥmad bin al-Fāris bin Zakariyyā, Mu'jam Maqāyīs al-Lughah, Vol 3 (t.t: Dār al-Fikr, 1399H/1979M), p. 243. Or something disguised until it resembles in others. See Ibrāhīm Muṣṭafā, et al., Al-Mu'jam al-Wasīṭ (Kairo: t.p., 1392 H/ 1972 M), p. 47. In a terminology the Muslim scholars have a different definition which are not clear the meaning, bring up the many possible meanings, need interpretation to know the meaning and etc. See Ṣalāḥ al-Dīn, Mukhtaṣar al-Itqān fī 'Ulūm al-Qur'ān li al-Suyūṭī (2nd Edition; Beirut: Dār al-Nafāis, 1987 M/1407 H), p. 115. And the opposite of Mutasyābih called Muḥkam.

wawu ‘aṭf(link) or wawu isti’nāf(beginning).

In the context above, if wawu is intended as ‘aṭf, it means that والراسخون في العلم is connected with the name of Allah وما يعلم تأويله الا الله so والراسخون is included to be the one who knows ta’wīl. But if wawu is considered isti’nāf or it is mubtada’ and khavar, so والراسخون في العلم is not meant to be the one who knows ta’wīl.

The clarity and vagueness constitute the most important text characteristic in contemporary critical study. In the case of vagueness, it could be argued that resource of tasyābuh is because of the hiddenness of Allah’s purpose from his utterance.¹⁴

Concerning of the disagreement motives, seemingly al-Daḥlawī stressed the aspect of decision maker as the trigger of disagreement. The same stressing is ever said by Munawwir, that the disagreement in Islam is back grounded by capacity and credibility of someone as a figure of decision maker. Umar Sulaiman al-Syaqar has a different opinion. He stressed about the aspect of decision object as the trigger of disagreement; conviction matter (aqā’id), shari’ah matter and political matter.

Based on the three opinions above, actually the disagreement about the problem of the theology object is related with the thinking way (method) of the theology sect in analyzing learning object (theology issues). The thinking method is categorized into two kinds; the rational thinking method and traditional thinking method. Rational thinking method has principles as follows:

1. It is only bound with the dogma that so clearly and firmly mentioned in the Qur’an and prophetic tradition, its qaṭ’ī verse (the text that is not interpreted again to another meaning except its literal meaning).

2. It gives a freedom to the human to act and will and giving a strong capacity to the mind.

Traditional thinking method has principles, as follows:

1. It is bound with the dogma and verse which contains ẓannī meaning (the text that may contains another meaning except its literal meaning).
2. It does not give a freedom to the human to act and will.
3. It gives a small capacity to the mind.

The theology sect that is always mentioned having a theology rational thinking method is Muktazilite. Therefore, Muktazilite is known as a rational and liberal sect and the theology sect that is always mentioned has a theology traditional thinking method is Asy'ariyyah.¹⁵ Therefore, Asy'ariyyah is known as a traditional sect.

The differences of comprehension and interpretation method in understanding of Qur'an were emerged the differences especially concerning theology problem such as about divinity; God attributes, God dominance, God justice, seeing God, human deed, human fate, major sin committer, hell and heaven.

One of the disputations that was discussed loudly by the theologians is the difference about al-'adl (God justice). The different mentioned could not be separated with disagreement among them about human freedom, absolute dominion and will of Allah. Muktazilite, who admit a human freedom reject the absolute dominion and will of Allah, and they understand the will of Allah from the human point. As 'Abd al-Jabbār explains that "the justice has a tight relation with the right”. Therefore, Muktazilite interpreted the justice with “giving to the people their right”. If it is said that Allah is the justice, it means that all His deeds are good and He cannot do a bad deed or ignores His obligations toward the human beings, as the justice definition that was expressed by them. So, According to Muktazilite, Allah cannot do a wrong deed and arbitrarily in giving punishment to His servants, He cannot punish the children from polytheist because the sin of their parents, He will not give burden to the human beings with the responsibility that exceeds their capability limitation, and He must give a good reward to the people who believes and obeys Him. The opposite also, He will punish the people who reject His command and break His prohibition.

Asy’ariyyah, on the other hand, do not admit the human freedom but admit the absolute dominion and will of Allah, and they understand al-‘adl (God justice) from His absolute dominion and will point. Therefore, they interpreted the justice with “put something in its place”. It means that someone has an absolute dominion against whatever He has. Therefore, according to Asy’ariyyah al-‘adl (God justice) is Allah’s freedom to do anything to His servant. So, if Allah puts the pious believers and who never perform a major sin into the hell or put the disbelievers into the paradise or He gives burden to the people exceeds his capability, those are not included a wrong deed, but still justice deed because human and his other creature are His. On the other hand, if Allah cannot perform anything to his creature, it means that Allah has been wronged by His servant.¹⁶

Those differences always appear among the theologian because the different of thinking and comprehending method in one verse. Therefore, the role of the interpreters is very important in explaining the Qur'an verses and no exception with al-Zamakhshari as one theologian from Muktazilite who also has a phenomenal creation namely Tafsīr al-Kashshāf that many of Muslim scholars were said this exegesis book is very influenced by the background of its writer as the follower of Muktazilite school. Therefore, this exegesis book is very interesting to be learned among Moslem scholars to know the al-Zamakhshari's thought about his school that he followed.

B. Problem Statements

1. How is the overview of Muktazilite, and its concept of al-'adl (God justice)?
2. How is the background of al-Zamakhshari and his al-Kashshāf?
3. How is the al-Zamakhshari's thought about al-'adl (God justice) in al-Kashshāf?

C. Operational Definitions and Research Scope

1. Definition of Terms

To obtain a clear comprehension in this thesis explanation, the writer explains firstly some terms in the title of this thesis. This thesis entitled "The concept of al-'Adl (God justice) in the perspective of Muktazilite (Analysis Study of al-Zamakhshari's Thought in al-Kashshāf)" to knows the plot that contains in this title, the writer analyzes what the title means. In the core line of this thesis consists of four terms; concept, al-'adl (God justice), Muktazilite, al-Kashshāf.

a) Concept

As an etymology the concept term is a general idea, definition, thought, plan, and basic plan.¹⁷ As what quoted by Abdul Muin Salim from Dagobert D ranses, ¹⁷Tim Pustaka Agung Harapan, Kamus Ilmiah Populer (Surabaya: Pustaka Agung Harapan, t.th.), p. 322.

that the concept is the definition that is related with the abstract and universal object, where within is not contained with definition from the concrete or special objects.¹⁸

b) Al-‘Adl (God Justice)

According to the theologian the definition of God justice is the impossible for God to do a wrong deed by performing His will to His servant then he obligates them to carry on the effect of their deed. Therefore, human has a freedom in their deeds without any forcing from God. With that freedom the human can be responsible on all their deeds so the injustice for God if He gives a reward or sin to his servant without giving a freedom to them first.¹⁹

c) Muktaẓilite

The word above is ism fa’il from اعتزل-يعتزل that means stepping aside or self-alienation.²⁰ In Mu’jam al-Wasīṭ dictionary Muktaẓilite is the one of the association from Mutakallimīn that opposites with Ahl al-Sunnah in some of convictions that was leaded by Waṣīl bin ‘Aṭā who separated from his companion Hasan al-Basri association.²¹

d) Al-Kashshāf

Al-Kashshāf consists of kāf, syīn and fā’ who has a basic meaning as a hidden thing from another thing.²² This word also was taken from the definition and

Al-Kashshāf also is the name of a classical exegesis book of Qur'an that arranged by Imām Abū al-Qāsim Jārullah Maḥmūd bin 'Umar bin Muḥammad al-Zamakhshari. The complete name of this book is "al-Kasysyāf 'an Ḥaqāiq Ghawamiḍ al-Tanzīl wa 'Uyūn al-'Aqāwīl fī Wujūh al-Ta'wīl"²⁴

2. Research Scope

Remembering the extent of the research object, the writer needs to put a limitation and direction on writing discussion so that it may be clear and give an exactly direction and the research is not too extent and may be focus onto the principles of certain discussion.

In this thesis, the writer focuses on the discussion about al-Zamakhshari's thought about the principle of Muktazilite teaching especially the discussion about the concept of al-'adl (God justice), even though the first chapter explains the concept of al-'adl (justice) generally, this also will discuss about the history of Muktazilite, background of al-Zamakhshari and the writing of his exegesis book (al-Kashshāf) as an introduction. The last, this thesis will explain the al-Zamakhshari's thought about the concept of al-'adl (God justice) in his exegesis book (al-Kashshāf).

D. Literatures Review

After looking for the references, there are several books those are related with this thesis whose entitled "The concept of al-'Adl (the God justice) in the perspective of Muktazilite (Analysis Study of al-Zamakhshari's Thought in al- Kashshāf)”. This activity intended to explain that the thesis has not been ever written specifically by other writers before, or this writing maybe has been explained by others but has difference from the approach and paradigm side those were used. And the books those are related with the title of this thesis as follows:

1. Al-Milal wa al-Niḥal by Abū al-Faṭḥ Muḥammad bin ‘Abd al-Karīm bin Abī Bakr Aḥmad al-Syarastānī that was translated to the Indonesian language by Syu’aidi Asy’ari by the title al-Milal wa al-Niḥal: the theology sects in Islam. According to ‘Abd al-Wahhāb ibn Alī al-Subki the writer of Ṭabaqāt al-Syafi’iyyah al-Kubrā book stated that this book is the best book in the field of the history of the sects in Islam. In this book has been discussed about many kinds of sects in the theology of Islam included Muktazilite along with the sects who presence in Muktazilite school. In this book also is explained explicitly about human beings have authority over their good and bad actions and also the creator of their deed where this discussion is a sub topic from the concept of God justice.
2. Islamic Theology by Harun Nasution. This book specially talks about sects in the circle of Islamic theology. The contains of this book are divided into two parts/chapters; first chapter talks about introduction of the sects and their story, and the second chapter this book forwards to the reader about the analysis of the writer about thought of sects and the writer gives the comparison between thought of those sects. This book is very important to be in this thesis because it will give an important help to the writer of this thesis to arrange any kinds of thought of sects especially Muktazilite.
3. Al-Ittijāh al-‘Aqlī fī al-Tafsīr: Dirāsah fī Qaḍiyyah al-Majāz fī al-Qur’ān ‘inda al-Mu’tazilah by Naṣr Ḥāmid Abū Zayd that was translated to Indonesian language by Abdurrahman Kasdi and Hamka Hasan by the title “Making Sense of Allah’s Revelation: Figure of speech (majāz) Discourse in the Qur’an according to Muktazilite”. Naṣr Ḥāmid Abū Zayd is the master mind of the study of Qur’an textually. In this book deeply explained about paradigm of majāz, the growth and development, muḥkam and mutasyābih, interpretation and etc. as the basic foundation of the differences in the theologians circle in understanding Allah’s verses. In this book also deeply discussed about historical research of the development of al-Zamakhshari and also deeply discussed about the concept of justice and the concept khalq al-af’āl, included the interpretations and the opinions of several Muslim Scholars of Muktazilite to the several verses about God justice.

4. Rasyid Ridha: The Concept of the Rational Theology in Tafsīr al-Manār that is written by A. Athaillah. This book describes many kinds of interpretations of Rasyid Ridha as a concept of rational theology that exists in the book of Tafsīr al-Manār. Besides that, it also describes the thoughts of Rasyid Ridha about rational theology, this book also describes many kinds of theologian opinions from Asy’ariyyah, Muktazilite such as the thought of al-Qāḍī ‘Abd al-Jabbār, al-Zamakhshari and another Muslim scholars as the comparison of the thought concept in the science of theology included Allah dominion, will, and justice. This book contained the similarities with the writing in this thesis are equally discussing the ideas of exegesis Muslim scholars, the differences are in this book is written about the ideas of Rasyid Ridha in the book of Tafsīr al-Manār whereas in this thesis is written the ideas of al-Zamakhshari in the book of al-Kashshāf.

E. The Method of The Research

1. Research Genre

The writer is using the descriptive qualitative research.²⁵ This research genre is to describe the al-Zamakhshari's systematic and accurate interpretation in his exegesis book. Therefore, this research is applying the library research with Qur'an verses as the main objects and as the basic argumentations those Mukatzilite used to strengthen his argumentation related with the concept of al-'adl (God justice).

The writer is analyzing the object by using the research methods; approach method, data collection method, data processing method and data analyzing method.

2. Approach Method

The object of this study is al-Zamakhshari's thought in the book of Tafsīr al-Kashshāf. Therefore, the writer is using the history approach method. The working procedure at this historical approach is; describing the trip process of al-Zamakhshari begins from his birth to death especially at his academic trip till he has written his exegesis book. These purposes help to deepen his thought with deepening his life background first. That also with the birth and development of Muktaizilite as the cluster that al-Zamakhshari had followed. The second is philosophy approach. This approach purposed to analyze deeply the ideas of al-Zamakhshari those are being contained in his exegesis book with searching the verses in the Qur'an those related with this study then look at his interpretation. The third is exegesis approach. This approach purposed to see the exegesis of al-Zamakhshari in his book.

²⁵Qualitative research is a research procedural that results a descriptive data the form of the written and spoken words from the peoples or observable behavior. See Lexy J. Moeleng, Metodologi Penelitian Kualitatif (26th Ed; Bandung: Remaja Rosdakarya, 2009), p. 2-3

3. Data Collection Method

To collect the data, the writer is using the library research to investigating these references and literatures which related with the discussion of either foreign language or Indonesian language.

This study related with the interpretation of Qur'an verses, so that as the main literatures in this research are the holy Qur'an and exegesis book. Whereas, the secondary literatures are the books of Muktazilite and as the supporting literatures are the Islamic books especially related with the theology and the articles those talking about al-Zamakhshari's thought.

As the basic reference to explain the al-Zamakhshari's thought about al-'adl (God justice) that is needed in this thesis is his exegesis book itself "al-Kasysyāf 'an Ḥaqāiq Ghawamiḍ al-Tanzīl wa 'Uyūn al-'Aqāwīl fī Wujūh al-Ta'wīl."

4. Data Processing Method and Data Analyzing Method.

In order that the obtained data can be used as an accurate discussion, so the writer is using the qualitative data processing method and data analyzing method with the thinking methods;

- a. Deductive, this data analyzing technique is done with departing from the general data, and then taking the specific conclusion. Data processing method with analyzing data and information about the history of al-Zamakhshari, his sect and its concept of al-'adl (God justice), his book and his interpretation that has been obtained then collected and analyzed, so that it will be the whole data and information and can giving a truth description about researched object (al-Zamakhshari's thought).
- b. Comparative, an analysis that is pulled with comparing between issues with another issue such as the comparison between Muktazilite with Asy'ariyyah (Ahl al-Sunnah wa al-Jama'ah). Paying attention the relation, similarity and difference then taking the conclusion.

F. The Aims and The Significances of Research

a. The Aims of Research

The Aims of this research can be formulated as follows:

1. To know the history of Muktazilite and its concept of al-'adl (God justice).
2. To know the background of al-Zamakhshari and his exegesis book.
3. To know and describe the al-Zamakhshari's thought in his exegesis book about al-'adl (God justice).

b. The Significances of Research

This research significance includes two things; scientific and practice significances.

1. Scientific significance is to learn and discuss the things those related with al-Zamakhshari's thought about the concept of al-'adl (God justice) in his exegesis book, more or less will add the treasures of knowledge in exegesis learning especially in the field of theology. It will be a comparison for the learner in developing the theology science.
2. Practice significance is to understand the al-Zamakhshari's thought about the concept of al-'adl (God justice); it is expected can gives motivation to Islamic society to deepen their conviction especially the conviction about al-'adl (God justice). In order, the Islamic society can increase the absorption in performing Allah's commands.

CHAPTER II

OVERVIEW OF MUKTAZILITE AND ITS CONCEPT OF AL-'ADL

A. The History of Muktaزيلite

1. Early Development of Muktaزيلite

Muktaزيلite is derived from Arabic language إعتزل-يعتزل-إعتزالا that consists of 'ain, za and lām. Its proper meaning is stepping aside and skewness.¹ Allah said in the Qur'an "وإن لم تؤمنوا لي فاعتزلون" "But if you believe me not, and then keep away from me and leave me alone"² Ibnu Manzur interprets this verse by saying "Don't be my enemy and don't join me if you don't believe me"³. From this definition, it could be understood that Mu'tazilah is the person who has skewness, separates himself, goes far away or steps aside.⁴ This group is theological in nature that bases its argumentation to rational thinking in discussing theological sciences. Hence, some of western orientalists mention them as orientalism community.⁵

This term "orientalist" is not properly rendered because in Europe it usually refers to philosophical sense that just sticks to logic, while Muktaزيلite uses logic simply for the truth of tauḥīd. So, they call their selves as Ahl al-tauḥīd.⁶

The killing of the third caliph ‘Usman bin ‘Affan at 656 M. in Medina because the conflict that happened with army from Egypt who brought political problem. That incident broke up Islamic society into two groups; Sunni and Shi’ah. The development of Islamic history was not merely in politics but also in religion and thought. Many were affected and determined by the conflict between those two groups (Sunni and Shi’ah). This conflict began to subsiding in the twentieth century.

In theology, the incident of Utsman bin Affan has caused a hot debate on faith and kufi. The warfare that happened between Ali bin Abi Thalib as the forth caliph with Mu’awiyah bin Abu Sufyan as the governor of Damshik was sought to be peacefully solved by tahkīm (arbitration) which is usually used by people during jahiliyyah era. Some soldiers from Ali did not agree to solve by arbitration, because actually they thought that they were close to win. It means that they will gain a booty that will be distributed to all who fought in this warfare. They left Ali’s ranks and made another group that was known as Kharijites because they were not satisfied with this condition (the peace way). The name of Kharijites derives from kharaja it means going out, in this case going out from Ali’s ranks.

This political problem immediately made them increased and associated this problem with the issue of faith and kufi, and whether the person was Muslim or not. In theology, the verse 44 from chapter al-Māidah said: who don’t determine the law as what Allah has determined, they will be among the unbelievers. Ali bin Abi Thalib and Mu’awiyah solved this problem by adopting the hakam tradition of jahiliyah era. Therefore, according to Kharijites, Ali and Mu’awiyah would be unbeliever and they were not Muslim again. Those also with Amr bin al-‘Ash and Abu Musa al-‘Asy’ari, both of them as mediators of Mu’awiyah and Ali.

According to Kharijites, the people will get a major sin if they don't determine the law in accordance with what Allah has revealed in the Qur'an. From here they conclude that the major sin committer is included to unbeliever, it means that they are out from Islam or murtad (the people who leave Islam religion), and according to them that murtad should be killed. The attitudes those considered as a major sin are adultery and killing human being without a legal reason. So in the view of Kharijites, the people who commit adultery and killing human beings are out from Islam and should be killed. In the next development, they just admit the people as a Muslim if they join the Kharijites Teachings and another Muslim who don't join their teachings are unbelievers, murtad and should be killed. Therefore, Kharijites not only in a war against Ali and Mu'awiyah as their rival in politic but also they are in a war against Muslim society who disagree with them about theology.

Murjites is the next group who appeared as the reaction of the Kharijites view who said that the attitude of person can eliminate their faith. According to Murjites, the attitude has not relation with the faith of person. They were named Murjites because they postpone this problem and submit it to Allah about its solution in the hereafter. If Allah forgives their major sin that was committed by them, they will go into the heaven, but if Allah does not forgive them, they will be punished first in the hell because the major sin that was committed by them. After they get a punishment, they will go out from the hell and go into the heaven. In the opinion of Murjites, the important thing about faith and kufir is the admission in the self of people, not about the attitude of body as being believed by Kharijites.⁷

The major sin and the committer of major sin were a warm topic and discussion in the first century of Hijrah. Many questions were submitted to the Muslim scholar about that problem. Hasan al-Bashri (642-728 M) was a great Muslim scholar in Iraq organized a teaching in the mosque of Basra city. Among his smart student is Washil bin 'Atho (d. 131 H). One day, Imam Hasan al-bashri explained that a Muslim who believe to Allah and his messenger, then they commit a major sin, and they pass away without repentance to Allah, they are still Muslim but rebellious Muslim. In the hereafter, they will enter to the hell for a while to get their punishment from their sin. They will go out from the hell after they got their punishment for several times from Allah and they go into the heaven.

Washil bin Atho turned away from his teacher meeting after stated that he had different opinion with his teacher, and then he organized a meeting in the corner of Basra Mosque. Therefore, his meeting namely Muktaزيلah, because he separated or put from his teacher (Hasan al-Bashri) meeting. Washil was followed by his friend namely Amr bin 'Ubaid (d. 144 H). When Muktaزيلite appeared, the governance dominion was handled by the caliph Hisyam bin Abdul Malik (101-125 H) from Bani Umayyad.

This event led the birth of Muktaزيلite, which the beginning as the reaction to the theological comprehensions those were expressed by Kharijites and Murjites.

Technically, Muktaزيلite term indicates to the two groups. The first group (it was called Muktaزيلah I) appeared as neutral political respond. This group grew as neutral political society; they are lenient in facing the conflict between Ali and his rivals, especially Mu'awwiyah, 'Aisyah, and Abdullah bin Zubair. This group was first called Muktaزيلite because they abstained from the conflict about leadership

(khilāfah). This group was neutral in political manner without theological stigma like what on the Muktazilite who grow later.⁸

The second group (it was called Muktazilite II) appeared as the respond of the theological problem that developed in the circle of Kharijites and Murjites as the consequence of tahkīm event. This group appeared because they had another opinion with the group of Kharijites and Murjites about giving unbeliever statue to the people who commit a major sin.⁹

There are several versions about giving name Muktazilite to this second group but all of them centered to the event that happened between Washil bin Atha, his friend Amr bin Ubaid and Hasan al-Bashri in Basra. When Wasil joined the lesson that was given by Hasan al-Bashri in Basra mosque, a student of Hasan al-Basri asked his opinion about the people who committing a major sin. In that moment, Hasan al-Basri was pensive for a minute, yet before he answered that question, Washil bin Atha stand up and expressed his opinion by saying “I argued that the people who commit a major sin are not considered as believer (Mu'min), nor are they considered as unbeliever (Kāfir), but in intermediate position between two places. Then, Washil kept far itself from Hasan al-Bashri and went to another place in the mosque. In that place Washil repeated his opinion in front of his followers. With this happening, Hasan al-Bashri said: “Washil kept far itself from us (i'tazala 'annā Wāṣil)”. According to al-Syahrastani, the group who kept far from this happening called as Muktazilite.¹⁰

¹⁰Muhammad bin Abd. al-Karim asy-Syahrastani, al-Milal wa an-Nihal, (Kairo: t.p., 1951), p. 48

According to al-Baghdadi, Washil bin Atho had a different opinion with the opinion of the several groups before (Shi'ah, Kharijites, Salaf, etc). He argued that the major sinner (Fāsiq) from Islamic society are not considered as believer (Mu'min) and nor non-believer (Kāfir), so they are in an intermediate place between faith and kufi. When Hasan al-Bashri heard the new opinion of Washil which has contradicted with the previous groups, he directly chased him away from his meeting group. Then he (Washil) took a place in the corner among the corners of the Basra city mosque. He was supported by his friend Amr bin Ubaid, like a male servant was helped by female servant. Begin from that time the society said that both of them (Washil and Amr) marinated their selves from opinion of society. Since that time also their followers named Muktazilite.¹¹

Muktazilite group have two movement centers,¹² are;

- a. In Basra; at the beginning of second century of Hijrah, it was led by Washil bin Atho and Amr bin Ubaid, and they were supported by their students; Usmān al-Ṭawīl, Ḥaṣṣ bin Salim, Ḥasan bin Zakwān, Khālīk bin Ṣafwān, and Ibrāhīm bin Yaḥya al-Madānī.

At the beginning of third century of Hijrah, Muktazilite that centered in basra was led by Abū Ḥuzail al-‘Allāf (d. 235 H), Ibrāhīm bin Sayar al-Nazzām (d. 221 H), Abū Basyar al-Marīsī (d. 218 H), ‘Usmān al-Jāhiz (d. 255 H), Ibnu al-Mu’ammar (w. 210 H), and Abu Ali al-Jubbā’ī (d. 303 H).

- b. In Baghdad; it was led by Basyar bin al-Mu'tamar, he was helped by Abu Musa al-Murdan, Ahmad bin Abi Daud (d. 240 H), Ja'far bin Mubasysyar (d. 234 H), and Ja'far bin Harib al-Hamdani (d. 235 H).

Muktazilite teachings got a support and follower from leader of Bani Umayyad, like the caliph Jazid bin Walid (125-126 H).

Whereas the caliphs from Bani Abbasid who supported them, are;

1. Makmun bin Harun al-Rasyid (198-218 H).
2. Al-Mu'tashim bin Harun al-Rasyid (218-227 H).
3. Al-Watsiq bin al-Mu'tashim (227-232 H).

2. Muktazilite Teachings

In historical of Islamic thought, Muktazilite was being famous because their five principles as the basis summary of their teachings/views. The people are not proper to be called as Muktazilite before they take the five principles of Muktazilite teachings as their orientation.¹³ The five basis principles of Muktazilite, as follows:

- a) Al-Tauhid (oneness of God)

Muktazilite believes that the most basis and prime principle in the Islamic religion teaching is tauhid. The oneness of God was being explained in the Qur'an as the Muslim life guidelines. The comprehension of Muktazilite about divinity is different with another comprehension. Muktazilite prevented the existence of divine attributes.

Abu Huzail defined it with nafy al-shifāh or the removal of God attributes. According to Washil comprehension, he denied the existence of the distinct attributes from God essence and then seeing the God essence, because the God essence is qadim, so what adheres in the God essence is qadim also. Therefore, God attributes is qadim.¹⁴

According to Muktazilite, God that his existence is qadim becomes the theory base of oneness of God (tauḥīd). Washil said that attribute for God means there are two Gods, because God is qadim, so what become parts of God have a same position with God, its qadim, in here there are double qadim, so the people who admits the attributes of God it means they admit two Gods.

To complete the opinion of Washil bin ‘Atha about the removal of God attributes, Abu Hudzail argued that Allah knows anything based on his knowledge, the knowledge is his essence, he is the Ever-Living based on his life and that life is his essence. Muktazilah considered the oneness of God just if God really constitutes a unique essence, so that nothing same with him. Therefore, Muktazilite group rejected the comprehension of anthropomorphic and beatific vision.¹⁵

Therefore, according to Muktazilite the God attributes are divided into two divisions; ẓāṭiyah and fi’liyyah attribute. So, some attributes those are intended the God essence (ẓāṭiyyah) and some are intended the God deed (fi’liyyah).¹⁶

b) Al-’Adl (God Justice)

The justice in the view of Muktazilite brings the definition that God has an obligation to commit a justice to his slaves and will never do a wrong deed. This doctrine raises the concept of al-ṣalāḥ wa al-aṣlāḥ that means Allah obligates to do a good deed even the best deed for human beings like Allah obligates to send prophet

¹⁴Muhammad Abu Zahrah, Tārīkh al-Mazāhib al-Islamiyah, Vol. 1, p. 45

¹⁵Anthropomorphic is describing god means it is near to be same with his creation, such as he has eyesight, listening and etc. The beatific vision means that human senses can reach god, such as eyes can see god. See Harun Nasution, Islam Ditinjau dari Berbagai Aspeknya, (Jakarta: Bulan Bintang, 1979), p. 44, 52 and messenger, bestows power and desirability to the human beings, bestows a burden (taklif) that suitable with the capability of the human beings and etc.¹⁷

c) Al-Manzilah baina al-Manzilatain (the place between two places)

This teaching means to be in the middle between kharijites who argued that the committer of major sin is included to the Kāfir (non-believer) with Murjites who argued that the committer of major sin is still Mu'min (believer). In the Muktazilite view the committer of major sin is not included to the Kāfir (non-believer) nor included to the Mu'min (believer),¹⁸ but they are in the middle position between them, so if they don't commit a repentance from their sin they will be eternal in the hellfire.¹⁹

d) Al-Wa'd wa al-Wa'id (Promise and Threat)

According to Muktazilite, Allah obligates to fulfill his promise to put the Mu'min (believer) into the heaven and put the Kafir (non-believer) and the committer of the major sin into the hellfire. As the consequence the committer of major sin will not get a help from Allah and they will be eternal in the hellfire.²⁰ Therefore, the human beings have a full responsibility to all their deeds. If they choose to believe Allah and do a good deed they will be put into the heaven and if they don't believe Allah and commit a sin they will be put into the hellfire.²¹

e) Al-Amr bi al-Ma'ruf wa al-Nahy 'an al-Munkar

In the Muktazilite principle, each Muslim obligates to perform amr ma'ruf nahy munkar, spreads Islamic teachings, and gives a guidance to the people who go astray. Amr ma'ruf nahy munkar is performed by heart if enough, by spoken if it is not enough, by hand (dominion) if it is still not enough even by sword (force) or hardness if it is needed.²²

3. Muktazilite Figures and Their Views

1) Washil bin 'Atho' (80-131 H/699-748)

Washil bin 'Atho was born at 80 Hijrah, in Medina, he studied with Imam Hasan al-Bashri in Basra, then had another opinion from his teacher about the committer of a major sin. He died at 131 Hijrah. His teachings are;

- a. The committer of major sin there is in the middle of two positions (manzilah baina manzilatain).
- b. Kadarites doctrine that was taught by Ma'bad bin Ghailan.²³ This doctrine teaches that the human beings create all their deeds by themselves; good or bad and Allah must be fair to his slaves and impossible to do a bad and wrong deed.
- c. The removal of God attributes means that what the people usually mention as God attributes are actually the essence of God itself.²⁴

2) Al-‘Allaf (135-235 H/753-850 M)

Al-‘Allaf’s full name is Abu Huzail Muhammad ibn Huzail al-‘Allaf. He is included a figure of Muktazilite who has a great influence to the madrasah of Basra (Basra school). He was born at 135 Hijrah., exactly three years after the formation of Abbasid government and he died at 235 Hijrah., it is at the beginning of al-Mutawakkil government.²⁵ He is a thinker and specialist of Muktazilite theology and he knew many of Greece philosophies so made him easy to arrange Muktazilite teaching with philosophical basis. He was born and studied in Basra then moved to Baghdad. Among his thoughts those different with another figures of Muktazilite are;

- a. Allah is ‘Alīm (The Knowing) with his essence, Allah is Qadīr (The Able) and Qudrah (Ability) of Allah are his essences. The conclusion is he removed all the attributes of Allah except his essence as what Washil committed but he is more deeply.
- b. Nature has scope and limitation because Nature is a new thing, included heaven and hellfire.
- c. The human beings have a burden (taklīf) that could be differentiated by mind about which one good and which one bad although without revelation from Allah.
- d. The doctrine of al-ṣalah wa al-aṣlāh (Allah obligates to do a good and best deed)²⁶

3) Al-Nazzam (185-231 H/801-846 M)

al-Nazzam's full name is Ibrahim bin Sayyar Ibn Hani' al-Nazzam al-Bashry. He was student of Abu Huzail al-'Allaf. His specialists those most dominant were literature and theology. He grew in Basra and ever stayed in Baghdad till he died at 231 Hijrah. In his very young age 36 years old. Among his opinions are;

- a. Allah has not Qudrah (ability) attribute to the wrong and immoral deed. It means all wrong and immoral deeds come from human beings themselves; they create those deeds not Allah.
- b. The miracle of Qur'an is located in the information about hidden world, then its arrangement, rule, and its language style could be cheated by human beings if Allah wants it.
- c. Put the mind in the highest place. The consequence he put the prophet companions in the same level with human beings and criticized the political process of prophet companions and their fiqh comprehension.

4) Al-Jubba'I (d. 303 H-916 M)

Al-Jubbai's full name is Muhammad Ibn Abd Wahhab Ibn Salam Abu Ali al-Jubba'i. He was a figure of Muktazilite that was famous in the science of philosophy and theology.²⁷ He was a teacher of Abu Hasan al-Asy'ary, the founder of Asy'ariyyah sect. his famous opinion are;

- a. Allah Kalam as the opinion of al-Nazzam
- b. Allah has not an attribute but he has essence as the opinion of al-'Allaf.
- c. The human being obligations are divided into two; wājibah al-Aqliyyah (the human being obligation that is known through mind) and wajibah syar'iiyyah (the human being obligation that is brought by messenger or prophet).

- d. The mind power of human being is very high because it can know God, thankful to him and know which one the good and bad thing.²⁸

B. Muktazilite Concept of al-'Adl

1. General Overview of al-'Adl

a) Definition of al-'Adl

In Arabic language the justice is عدل-يعدل عدلا that derives from ain, dāl and lām who has two basis meanings those contradicted one another; first al-istiwā (straight or same) as in QS al-Nisa/4: 129.

وَلَنْ تَسْتَطِيعُوا أَنْ تَعْدِلُوا بَيْنَ النِّسَاءِ وَلَوْ حَرَصْتُمْ

The meaning:

You will never be able to do perfect justice between wives even if it is your ardent desire.²⁹

The second one is al-i'wījāj (bent or deviating).³⁰ As in QS al-An'am/6:150

وَالَّذِينَ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ بِالْآخِرَةِ وَهُمْ بِرَبِّهِمْ يَعْدِلُونَ

The meaning:

And such as believe not in the hereafter, and they hold others as equal (in worship) with their lord).³¹

In the dictionary of Lisān al-'Arab “adala” means the situation in the soul of person that makes them to be straight and honest or put something to its place and it is the opposite of injustice.³² In the terminology the justice has different meanings. According to hadith Muslim scholar the justice is something that is owned by someone that can brings him to the pious and the honorary.³³ According to the fiqh Muslim scholar the justice is a good and respectable thing in religion, and the people use a thing that makes them beautiful and decorates them, and avoid a thing that can contaminate them.³⁴ According to the interpreter Muslim scholar the justice is an alignment in the religion; avoiding the major sins, keeping the honorary, leaving the small sins, and fulfill the trusteeship and not careless.³⁵ According to al-Marāghī, justice means the fulfillment of the right that was determined to be possession of person.³⁶ The justice also could be interpreted with upholding (al-taqwīn), cleaning (al-tazkiyyah) and making balance (al-taswiyah).³⁷ In Indonesia dictionary, justice is interpreted with; (1) it is not biased, (2) there is in the side of the truth, and (3) it is not arbitrary.³⁸ Therefore, the justice is the attitude that makes someone gets his right.

The term of al-'Adl in the Qur'an was being mentioned 28 times with the varieties of its derivation; once with fi'l māḍi (past tense), 11 times with fi'l muḍāri' (present and present continuous tense), twice with fi'l amr (command word) and 14 times with isim (noun).³⁹

b) The same meaning term with justice (العدل)

In the core line, there are three same meanings with al-'Adl; القسط (al-Qisṭ), الوزن (al-Wazn), dan الوسط (al-Waṣṭ) which equally indicate the meaning of justice.⁴⁰

1. Al-Qisṭ (القسط)

Al-Qisṭ is derived from qāf, sīn dan lām who has two contradicted basis meanings, al-Qisṭ that is derived from aqsaṭa (rubā'ī) means justice, as what Allah said in the Qur'an "إِنَّ اللَّهَ يُحِبُّ الْمُقْسِطِينَ" Indeed Allah loves the people who commits justice", and al-Qasṭ its qāf by fathāh that derives from qasaṭa (ṣulāṣī) means injustice.⁴¹ The original meaning of al-qisṭ is Reasonable and proper, this is not required the similarity.⁴²

Therefore, the term of al-'adl and al-qisṭ in the Qur'an have similarity and difference. The similarity both of them are talking about justice, and the difference of them are seen in their application in the Qur'an. The character of al-'adl term is active in its application; put something in its place even does not make happy one side, and the character of al-qist term is passive; an action to handle a self from doing cruelty or maltreatment so it makes all sides be happy.⁴³

2. Al-Mizān (الميزان)

Term of al-Mizān is derived from al-wazn that consists of wauw, za and nun, its basis meaning is referring to the just and consistent attitude.⁴⁴ It is mentioned 23 times in the Qur'an with all its derivation.⁴⁵ The main meaning of this word is "balance or weighing something with another thing. That balance happens especially in the unities of physical of universe. Such as in QS al-Raḥmān/55:7.

وَالسَّمَاءَ رَفَعَهَا وَوَضَعَ الْمِيزَانَ

The meaning:

And the heaven he has raised high, and he has set up the balance.⁴⁶

According to Murtada Mutahhari, the term of al-mizān in the mentioned verse is al-'adl. It's the justice in the meaning of balance of universe creating. The term of al-mizān applies for the unities of physical manifestation in the form of universe. Therefore, the justice in the meaning of balance is opposite of confusion, clash, wrong deed.⁴⁷ ⁴³Mardan, Wawasan al-Qur'an tentang Keadilan, h. 43. As he was quoted from M. Quraish Shihab, Tafsir al-Mishbah: Pesan, Kesan, dan Keserasian al-Qur'an, Vol. 8 (1stEd; Jakarta: Lentera Hati, 2003), p. 245.

⁴⁷Mardan, Wawasan al-Qur'an tentang Keadilan, p. 67.

3. Al-Wasat (الوسط)

The term of al-wasat derives from wauw, sīn, and ta that means refer to the just and half.⁴⁸ It is mentioned 5 times in the Qur'an with the varieties of its derivation.⁴⁹ Which all refer to the middle sense.

Term of wasit (in Indonesia language becomes wasit) is taken from term of al-wasat that means “mediator” or the people who stand up in the middle, that hints the justice attitude. Such as in QS al-Baqarah/2:143.

وَكَذَلِكَ جَعَلْنَاكُمْ أُمَّةً وَسَطًا لِتَكُونُوا شُهَدَاءَ عَلَى النَّاسِ وَيَكُونَ الرَّسُولُ عَلَيْكُمْ
شَهِيدًا

The meaning:

Thus we have made you [true Muslims-real believers of Islamic Monotheism, true followers of Prophet Muhammad p.b.u.h. and his Sunnah (legal ways)] a just (and the best) nation, that you will be witness over mankind and the Messenger (Muhammad p.b.u.h.) will be a witness over you.⁵⁰

The verse above emphasizes that Islamic society is created by Allah as just and choice society, because they will be a witness among the attitudes those are deviate from the truth; in the world and in the hereafter. Therefore, the term of wasat in the verse above means “the just and choice”. The term of wasat contains middle meaning. This may be known as balance of two extrimities. With the balance attitude, the witness could be given with just, because it will be performed with calm and free thinking from excessive behavior, and could be offering the justice.⁵¹

c) The verses of justice in the Qur'an

After reading and reviewing of Qur'an verses those related with justice, the writer gets there are many verses those talk about the justice essence, command to commit justice, kinds and divisions of justice.

1. The essence of justice QS Āli 'Imrān/3:18, QS al-'An'ām/6:115, QS Yūnus/10:4, QS Yūnus/10:47, QS Yūnus/10:54, QS al-Anbiyā'/21:47, QS al-Aḥzāb/33:5, QS al-A'rāf/7:159, QS al-A'rāf/7:181.
2. Command to commit justice QS Āli Imrān/3:21, QS al-Nisā'/4:58, QS al-Nisā'/4:127, QS al-Nisā'/4: 135, QS al-An'ām/6: 152, QS Hūd/11:85, QS al-Naḥl/16:90, QS al-Syūrā/42:15, QS al-An'ām/6:152
3. Prohibition to follow the lust in committing justice QS al-Nisā'/4:135.
4. Justice in the witness QS al-Baqarah/2:28, al-Māidah/5:95, QS al-Māidah/5:106, QS al-Ṭalaq/65:2.
5. Committing justice to the enemy QS al-Māidah/5:8, QS al-Māidah/5:42, QS al-Mumtaḥanah/60:9
6. Committing justice among the wives QS al-Nisā'/4:3 dan QS al-Nisā'/4:129.

2. Al-'Adl (God Justice) among Muktazilite

In the theology science, one of the fundamental discussions and many discussed is about God attributes. Among God attributes those discussed by Islamic theologians are al-'adl (God justice) and the absolute will of God. The sect that radically defends al-'adl (God justice) is Muktazilite, they were being proud called with Ahl al-'Adl.⁵² The Muktaẓilite society gives priority to al-'adl (God justice) than absolute will of God. They wish the just God, not God that has an absolute will. Muktaẓilite sect observes the justice from the standpoint of human being. As the explanation from Abdul Jabbar that justice has a tight relation with right. He translates the justice with “to give people their right”. The term “God is just” contains meaning that all God attitudes are good, He cannot commit a bad attitude and He cannot ignore his obligations to the human being. Therefore, the God cannot do a wrong deed (ẓālim) in giving punishment to the human being.⁵³

According to Muktaẓilite that al-'adl (God justice) is God giving the right and freedom to the human being to do a deed. Therefore, the concept of al-'adl (God justice) is much related with the concept khalq al-af'āl (creating actions). This concept meaning is when the human being is free in his action and responsible with that. Because of this freedom, he has the right to get a reward or sin. In opposite, the inability of human being to do something certainly will eliminate their rights to get a reward or sin. In this context, Allah punishment to his good slaves is a wrong deed (ẓālim), if it is not accompanied by giving a freedom. It means those human freedom and al-'adl (God justice) are like two sides of a coin which could not be separated between one another. Eliminating one of them it means eliminating other and making both of them useless.⁵⁴ Therefore, the dominance and will of God have not relation with the action of slave, and it is absolute as the choice for slave/actor.⁵⁵

The first one who said about defenselessness was Mu'awiyah. He said that something was happened to himself be based on God determination and it becomes his creation. On the basis of this, he took his assumption as the basis of all-happening to himself. Even, he claimed himself that Allah made him Imam and world leader that made him famous among the kings of Bani Umayyad. Al-Qadhi Abdul Jabbar worked hard to debate the concepts of Jabarites group, because those concepts are considered can break the social arrangement, smash the law quality, and finally can break sharī'ah and religion.⁵⁶

The human being responsibility in the social life more emphasizes the existence of human being who has freedom and independent. Then, the opinion that said nothing freedom and choice for human being is the contradicted opinion with the tradition and custom. In their view, appointing the leader is not needed with the reason to prevent the wrong deed (ẓālim), uphold the justice, apply the law and uphold the rule. All those just happen if the slaves have a freedom to act and choose. However, if Allah creates the human deeds, so why should they be tortured? Why should the people be educated? Why should the wrong doer be punished? And why should the people be frightened to do a wrong deed?⁵⁷

CHAPTER III

AL-ZAMAKHSYARI AND HIS AL-KASHSHĀF

A. The Life of al-Zamakhshari

1. Early Stages of al-Zamakhshari's Life

Al-Zamakhshari's full name is Abū al-Qāsim Maḥmūd bin 'Umar bin Muḥammad bin Aḥmad bin 'Umar al-Khawārizmi al-Zamakhsharī. He was born on Wednesday 27 Rajab 467 H. at the same time with 1074 M in Zamakhshar, a village located in Khawarizm region, Turkistan.¹ He was born at the era of Sultan Jalal Al-Din Abi al-Fath Maliksyah governance with the minister Nizam al-Mulk. This minister was well known for his continues support of development of learning activity. He had a famous and advance "discussion group", regularly attended by scientists from various circles. He died at 538 H in Jurjaniah Khawarizm.² Al-Zamakhshari was born along with the poor family but they were pious, religious and always do good deeds. His father was a noble one and he loved his children very much, His mother is charitable, had a soft heart, and she was included the one who received her pray by Allah swt.³

Al-Zamakhshari was also famous as the person who had ambition to acquiring a position in the governance. After he felt unsuccessful and disappointed to see the people were given the high position in governance by government who had a lower knowledge and morals than him, while he did not get anything from government although he had promoted by his respectable teacher; Abu Mudar. This situation forced him move to Khurasan and he acquired a good welcome and praise from governance functionary; he is Abu al-Fath ibnu al-Husain al-Ardastani and also Ubaidillah Nizam al-Mulk. In there, he was raised to been secretary, but because he was not satisfied with that position, then he went to the center of Daulah Bani Saljuk governance; Isfahan city.

Several sheikhs said that one of his feet was broken. It was caused by very much and very cold snow hit his foot when he was in the journey around the Khawarizm region. Another opinion said that when al-Zamakhsyari came to Bagdad he met with the Muslim scholar then he asked him about the cause of his broken foot, he said that it was caused by your mother prayer, and then al-Zamakhsyari told that when he was child he held a bird then he bound his foot with rope then the bird entered to the hole and al-Zamakhsyari pulled the bird and cut his foot. After that case, his mother said that Allah will cut the foot of the people who did a crime as you cut the bird's foot. Therefore, when he went to Bukhara to seeking for knowledge he felt from his vehicle and then one-piece of his foot was cut.⁴

Al-Zamakhsyari was supported by his environment; Khawarizm (his land of birth) that was fertile had a good panorama and enabled to creating a man of letters who was pure their imagination. His strong commitment to the Muktazilite was caused by his environment that was dominated by Muktazilite member.⁵ So, the name Khawarizm (Khawarizm people) was identical with Muktaẓilite. He was too demonstrative in showing his school (maẓhab) because the strong of his commitment to Muktaẓilite. Even, in the explanation of Ibnu Khalikan, he stated that “if al-Zamakhshari visits his friend home, he says to the people who open the door that inform your boss that Abū al-Qāsim al-Mu’tazilī is in the door”. Abū al-Qāsim was the tittle of al-Zamakhshari.⁶ He died in the night of Arafah at 538 H. in Khawarizm after came back from Makkah.

2. Al-Zamakhshari Educational Background and His Works

At the beginning, his father brought him to the tailor to learning about tailor, but he asked his father to brought him to the city to looking for knowledge, he said to his father “bring me to the city and leave me there”, then he went to Bukhara to seeking for knowledge. Bukhara was the famous of knowledge center in that time, from this city al-Zamakhshari got knowledge from Muslim scholars. Then, he went to the Merwe city and studied with Imam al-Sam’āni (d. 562 H), and he always moved among Khawarizm and Khurasan to getting for knowledge, such as exegesis, hadith, ushul fiqh, Arabic language and etc.⁷

Several times later, during he studied there, his father died caused and forced him to came back to Khawarizm and studied with his teacher Abu Mudhar Mahmud bin Jarir al-Dhabbi al-Ashfahaniy (d. 507 H); a famous master of language and naḥwu in his era, he had a noble behavior and he was successful spreading the Muktazilite school in Khawarizm.⁸ He was a figure who mastered a variety of knowledge. Under the guidance of this Muslim scholar al-Zamakhshari had been successful to mastering Arabic literature, logic science, philosophy and theology. He also mastered other knowledge like language, culture, nahwu, exegesis, hadith and etc.⁹ Finally, al-Zamakhshari became the one of Muslim scholar that was respected by all societies and he placed the high position in the governance.

One day, al-Zamakhshari was sick that caused him more concentrating to the religion studying activity such as reading, teaching and writing. He ever went to Bagdad and studied with many of Muslim scholars. Al-Zamakhshari studied hadith with Abu al-Khattab (d. 494 H), Abu Sa'ad al-Jasymiy al-Muhsin bin Muhammad (d. 494 H) and Abu Mansur al-Jawaliy (d. 539 H), he studied fiqh with al-Syarif al-Syajari (d. 542 H), he studied adab with Abu Hasan Ali bin al-Muzaffar al-Naisaburi and Abu Mansur Nashr al-Harits. At 526 H to the 529 H. al-Zamakhshari was being in Makkah. Because of that, he was famous with the title of “Jār Allah” (Allah’s neighbor). During in Makkah, he was successful to writing his monumental work “al-Kashshāf”.¹⁰

Al-Zamakhshari improved his knowledge that he was gotten from his teachers to his many students. Among them; Abu al-Mahasin Abd Rahman ibn ‘Abdullah al-Bazzaz in Abyurad, Abu ‘Umar ‘Amir ibn al-Hasan al-Sahhar al-

Besides his two scientific activities; looking for knowledge by doing a journey to some places¹² and teaching his knowledge to his students, al-Zamakhshari also did a knowledge improvement activity through writing book activity. Al-Zamakhshari was a Muslim scholar that much created writing works; they had been around 50 books title in the variety of knowledge level; such as religion science, language, naḥwu, literature and etc. Those all as the proof of depth and diversity of knowledge he had. There were some of his creations those had been published and even had been printed for several times, and other creations still had been saved as manuscript in the several large libraries in Egypt, Holland and other some places.¹³

Among his creations those had been produced, as follows:

- b. In the language sector: Asās al-Balāghah, al-'Asmā' fī al-Lughah, A'jab al-'Ajāib fī Syarḥ Lāmiyah al-'Arab, Jawāhir al-Lughah, al-Dar al-Muntakhab fī Kināyāt wa Isti'ārāt wa Tasybihāt al-'Arab, al-Mustaṣfā fī Amsāl al-'Arab, Mu'jam al-'Arabi. Al-Fārisī.

- e. And etc.: al-Fā'iq fī Gharīb al-Ḥadīs, Rabī' al-Abrār wa Fuṣūṣ al-Akhbār, Tasyābuh Asmā' al-Ruwwah, al-Naṣāis al-Kibār, Dāllah al-Nāsyid dan al-Rā'id fī al-Farā'id.¹⁵

3. Comments and Criticism to al-Zamakhsyari

From the result of research to the al-Zamakhsyari's creations, the researcher can take the conclusion about the personality of al-Zamakhsyari and his depth knowledge and the feature of his creations. For example, Al-Sam'ani said "al-Zamakhsyari is the figure that can be taken as example because his depth knowledge concerning literature and Arabic language". This comment is much related with al-Zamakhsyari's capability about his knowledge in the sector of language and literature. That is statement proper for him, because most of Muslim scholars have admitted the capability of this figure in language science. The same statement was proposed by Ibnu al-'Anbari stated that al-Zamakhsyari is the master of nahwu. Then, Ibnu Khalikan praised the deepness of al-Zamakhsyari's knowledge along with saying that "he is a great Muslim scholar in his era". He became the place and reference for the people to asking for question, so the other Muslim scholar always came to him to getting for knowledge. Those praises for al-Zamakhshari made him as reference in his era and even in the era after him.¹⁶

Allah has bestowed good attributes to Imam al-Zamakhshari, he was born as the humble and polite figure. One of his friend namely Rasyīd al-Dīn al-Waṭwāṭ said that Imam al-Zamakhshari is a patient one to the bitter truth and honesty. Al-Zamakhshari was a very careful one in religion; he was the one who covered in the fields of science and virtue. Al-Qaṭṭī said as the quote from al-Imām Abī al-Yaman Zaid bin Ḥasan al-Kindī that “al-Zamakhshari is the one who knows much about intricacies of Arabic language in his era and very works hard to write his books”.¹⁷ Ibn Ḥajar said that “he is the pious one”.¹⁸ Imām al-Suyūṭī said that “he is the one who wide his knowledge, has many virtues, and he is very smart and generous”.¹⁹

All praises for al-Zamakhshari were not only limited by expression that describing his expertise in the sector of language, but also in the sector of exegesis. Related with his expertise, Yaqut al-Hamawi stated that “al-Zamakhshari is Imam in the sector of exegesis, naḥwu, language and literature. Even more than that, he appraised him as the Muslim scholar who teaches and applies his knowledge, he has many abilities and he has a deep knowledge concerning varieties sectors of knowledge. Those confirmations were addressed to him as the Muslim scholar who had a wide insight concerning knowledge.

Al-Zamakhshari also got many criticisms from another Muslim scholar because his comprehension about Muktaẓilite that very influenced him in interpreting Qur'an verses. Therefore, a Muslim scholar namely Mānī' bin Abd al-Ḥalīm saw that in arranging his exegesis book, the al-Zamakhshari views were always dominated by the views of Muktaẓilite. He overreacted in expressing his support to the Muktaẓilite views, and his opposition to the views of Ahl al-Sunnah when interpreting one verse. Whereas, Qur'an is not the holy book for the certain school that should be interpreted with the certain way too.²⁰

B. Al-Kashshāf

1. Al-Kashshāf and Its Publication

Al-Zamakhshari wrote his exegesis book that entitled al-Kashshāf 'an Ḥaqā'iq al-Tanzīl wa 'Uyūn al-Aqāwīl fī Wujūh al-Ta'wīl began from the demand of a group that named his self with al-Fi'ah al-Nājiyah al-'Adliyah or named as Muktaẓilite by Ahl al-Sunnah. In the preface of al-Kashshāf was being mentioned as follows:

“Indeed, I see our brothers in religion those combine the Arabic language science with the religion bases science. Every time they revert to me to interpreting Qur'an verses, I forward them some essences behind the screen. They are more amazed and interested, and they miss a composer that can collect those essences. They come to me with one suggestion, in order that I write for them the screen exposor of the essences of the verses that has been sent down, the contents those are contained in the Qur'an with the various interpretations. Then, I write for them (at the beginning) the explanation that related with the opener of surah (al-fawātih al-suwar) and some of essences that has been in surah al-Baqarah. Seemingly, this explanation becomes a long discussion, invites many questions and answers, and emerges long problems.”²¹

Therefore, al-Zamakhshari mentioned that his brothers from Muktazilite met and asked him to writing the book of al-Kashshāf, and the enthusiastic of the society were so big to knowing what al-Zamakhshari explained about Qur’anic exegesis.²² Then, he went to Makkah till met with the leader of governance namely Abā al-Ḥasan bin Wahnās that motivated him also to writing that book and he could not rejected and finally he could finished his exegesis book.²³

Al-Kashshāf book was compiled with tartīb mushāfi; based on the sequence of the surah and verse in the Mushaf Usmani, that contains 30 chapters with 144 surah, starts from surah al-Fatihah and it is closed by surah al-Nās. In interpreting the Qur’an, al-Zamakhshari has begun with rational thinking that was supported by argumentations from hadith or Qur’an verses; is it related with sabab nuzūl of a verse or not related with hadith in interpreting the Qur’an. In other word, if there was a hadith supported his interpretation he would take it but if nothing hadith he still dis his interpretation. Then, al-Zamakhshari also always used Arabic poems (syā’ir) to help him in interpreting the Qur’an verses.

2. Methods of Interpretation in al-Kashshāf

The book of Al-Kashshāf is the one of the exegesis book that is in the form of *tafsir bi al-ra'yi*²⁴ by using tahliḥī method.²⁵ This book is classified like that because the data sources those interpreter uses in his analysis are more using a mind or it is always called with tafsir bi al-ijtihād or tafsir bi al-dirāyah. Tafsir bi al-ra'yi does not mean just rely on its ra'yu (mind) only. It is difficult even wrong, if tafsir bi al-ra'yi is not followed by tafsir bi al-ma'sūr, because it is a basis of the interpretation. In other word, if an exegesis book is categorized as bi al-ra'yi or bi al-ma'sūr it means the dominant factor from two of them in that exegesis book.

²⁵ Tahliḥī method is an interpretation method that explains the Qur'an verses with explaining all meanings and aspects those are contained in the Qur'an appropriate with the series of verses in the Qur'an of Muṣḥaf Uṣmānī. See Zahir bin Awad al-Alma'i, Dirāsāt fī al-Tafsir al-Mauḍū'ī li al-Qur'ān al-Karīm (Riyād: t.p., 1404 H), p. 18. As quoted from Quraish Shihab, dkk. Sejarah dan 'Ulumu al-Qur'an, p. 172. There is Muslim scholar also comprehends this method with the method that is used to interpreting the Qur'an verses by explaining the varieties aspects those contain in the interpreted verses and explaining the meanings in those verses with the expertise and tendency of interpreter who interpret the Qur'an verses. See Abd al-Hayy al-Farmawī, al-Bidāyat fī al-Tafsir al-Mauḍū'ī, p. 24. See also M. Quraish Shihab, Tafsir al-Qur'an Dengan Metode Maudū'ī: Beberapa Aspek Ilmiah Tentang al-Qur'an (Jakarta: Perguruan Tinggi Ilmu al-Qur'an, 1986), p. 37. See also Nashruddin Baidan, Metode Penafsiran al-Qur'an: Kajian Kritis Terhadap Ayat-Ayat Yang Beredaksi Mirip (Yogyakarta: Pustaka Pelajar, 2002), p. 68. Compare with Ahmad Syurbasi, Qiṣṣat al-Tafsir, the translation by Zufran Rahma, Study Tentang Sejarah Perkembangan Tafsir al-Qur'an al-Karīm (Jakarta: Kalam Mulia, 1999), p. 232. Usually the things those served by using this method are the common definition of vocabulary of verse, Munāsabah/the relation of verse with the verse before, Sabab Nuzūl, general meaning of verse, the taken law and exposing the varieties opinions of the school Muslim scholar. Also some of Muslim scholar add it with the explanation about Qirā'at, I'rāb of the interpreted verse, and the superiorities of its words arrangement. See M. Quraish Shihab, Kaidah Tafsir: Syarat, ketentuan dan Aturan yang Patut Anda Ketahui Dalam Memahami Ayat-Ayat al-Qur'an (Tangerang: Lentera Hati, 2013), p. 378.

Therefore, because the dominant in al-Kashshāf is al-ra'yu, so this exegesis book is categorized tafsīr bi al-ra'yi, although he uses also tafsīr bi al-ma'sūr in his exegesis book.²⁶

For example, when he interpreted QS al-Fīl/105:1-5.

أَلَمْ تَرَ كَيْفَ فَعَلَ رَبُّكَ بِأَصْحَابِ الْفِيلِ ﴿١﴾ أَلَمْ تَجْعَلْ كَيْدَهُمْ فِي تَضْلِيلٍ ﴿٢﴾
وَأَرْسَلَ عَلَيْهِمْ طَيْرًا أَبَابِيلَ ﴿٣﴾ تَرْمِيهِمْ بِحِجَارَةٍ مِّن سِجِّيلٍ ﴿٤﴾ فَجَعَلَهُمْ كَعَصْفٍ
مَّأْكُولٍ ﴿٥﴾

The meaning:

Have you (O Muhammad p.b.u.h.) not seen how your Lord dealt with the owners of the Elephant? [The Elephant Army which came from Yemen under the command of Abrahah al-Ashram intending to destroy the Ka'bah at Makkah]. Did he not make their plot go astray? And He sent against them birds, in flocks. Striking them with stones of Sijjīl (baked clay). And He made them like (an empty field of) stalks (of which the corn) has been eaten up (by cattle).²⁷

The verse above was interpreted by al-Zamakhshari by using narrative from Ibnu Abbas as follows:

روى أن أبرهة بن الصباح الأشرم ملك اليمن من قبل أوصمة النجاشي بنى كنيسة بصنعاء وسماها القليس، وأراد أن يصرف إليها الحاج، فخرج رجل من كنانة فقعدها ليلا، فأغضبه ذلك. وقيل: أجمت رفقة من العرب نارا فحملتها الريح فأحرقتها، فحلف ليهدمن الكعبة فخرج بالحبشة ومعه فيل له اسمه محمود، وكان قويا عظيما، واثنان عشر فيلا غيره. وقيل: ثمانية وقيل: كان معه ألف فيل، وكان

وحده، فلما بلغ المغمس خرج إليه عبد المطلب وعرض عليه ثلث أموال تهامة ليرجع، فأبى وعبأ جيشه وقدم الفيل، فكانوا كلما وجهوه إلى الحرم برك ولم يبرح، وإذا وجهوه إلى اليمن أو إلى غيره من الجهات هرول، فأرسل الله طيرا سودا. وقيل حضرا وقيل: بيضا. مع كل طائر حجر في منقاره، وحجران في رجله أكبر من العدسة وأصغر من الحمصة. وعن ابن عباس رضى الله عنهما أنه رأى منها عند أم هانئ نحو قفيز مخططة بحمرة كالجزع الظفاري²⁸

The meaning:

Narrated that Abrahah bin al-Shabah al-Asyram the Yaman leader from Ashhamah al-Najasy built a church in San'a, it was named al-Qullais. He wanted if the people visited/did a pilgrimage to that church, the Arabian from Kinanah came to the church in the night and contaminated it with the dirty that made Abrahah was so angry. Another version said that there were several Arabians turned on the fire then the wind blew till burned the church. Then Abrahah swore to destroyed Ka'bah. Abrahah led Habsy troops and brought a strong and big elephant namely Mahmud. He also brought 12 other elephants, in another version said 8 elephants, even some said that 1000 elephants. In the border of Makkah the troops were restrained by Abdul Muttalib in order to do not break Ka'bah as the retaine is 1/3 properties of Tihamah. But Abrahah still attacked and brought his elephants. The elephants if were directed to the Makkah, they did not move, but if they were directed to Yaman or another direction, they run away directly. Then Allah sent the black birds those brought stones in their beaks and their feet then threw the stones to the Abrahah troops those made them died.²⁹

3. Al-Kashshāf Exegetical Motives and Orientation

In his exegesis explanation appears an orientation/ittijāh and motive/lawn from al-Kashshāf book as *tafsīr lughāwī*³⁰ and also tafsīr i'tizālī (the exegesis book that has Muktazilite school tendency). The first impression will appear when read and observe this exegesis book is the superiority of this book in expressing and digging language side/balāghah of the noble Qur'an. The expertise of al-Zamakhshari in the sector of Arabic language probably gives a strong influence in his effort to interpret the Qur'an verses. In other side, al-Kashshāf arrangement with language motive was supported by the interest of Muslim society in Masyriq region (the east part of Arab) to the Arabic literature is bigger than the interest of Muslim society in Magrib region (the west part of Arab).³¹

The language approach that al-Zamakhshari was used makes al-Kashshāf book has one strong and famous exegesis motive; its lughāwī (language) motive, although he used other approaches like fiqh and theology.³² He struggled and ³⁰ Tafsīr Lughawī is the interpretation that tries to explain the meanings of Qur'an by using the rules of language or tafsīr lughawī is explaining the noble Qur'an through semiotic and semantic those included etymology, morphology, lexical, grammatical, and rhetorical. See Abd Muin Salim, Metodologi Tafsīr, Sebuah Rekonstruksi Epistemologis, (Ujung Pandang: Alauddin University Press, 1999) p. 34.

³¹ H. M Rusydi Khalid, Mengkaji Metode Para Mufassir, p. 40.

³² Tafsīr fiqh is interpretation motive that is colored with fiqh or ahkam verses. See Ahmad Izzan, Metodologi Ilmu Tafsīr, (Bandung: Tafakkur, 2011), hal. 200. This motive substantially contains with the problems about fiqh such as praying, zakat, fasting till the contemporary issues. Usually the fiqh motive is named with tafsīr āyat ahkām that contain with the laws about fiqh; is it obligatory, sunah, makruh, mubah and haram. See Abdul Mustaqim, Dinamika Sejarah tafsīr al-Qur'an, (Yogyakarta: Adab Press, 2012), p. 117. Then, the theology motive interpretation is an interpretation with using an Islamic thought tendency or its interpretation motive is theology motive. The interpretation like this is constituting the one of Qur'an interpretation shape that is not only written by certain sympathizer of theology group, but also constitute the interpretation that is used to support the certain theological view. This interpretation model will talk much about the themes of the theology than the main messages of the Qur'an. See Abdul Mustaqim, Aliran-Aliran Tafsīr; Dari Periode Klasik hingga Kontemporer (Yogyakarta: Kreasi Warna, 2005), p. 70.

succeeded to express the balāghah shapes of Qur'an, it was being admitted by Muslim scholars; for example Imam al-Dzahabi admitted that is still nothing of exegesis book that can equal al-Kashshāf in expressing the interpretation that was dig from expertise of language side of Qur'an. It is not be surprise again that the emergence of exegesis books thereafter were inspired and took al-Kashshāf as main reference, although they were be the opposition of it.³³

Beside language, he also used fiqh approach, such as when he interpreted QS al-Fātiḥah/1:1.

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

The meaning:

In the name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful.³⁴

In al-Kashshāf, al-Zamakhshari explained that all Qurra and Fuqaha from Medina, Basra and Sham considered that basmalah above is not constitute of al-Fātiḥah surah and nor verse of another surah, but just separator among the surah and to get a blessing from god. Then, all Qurra' and Fuqahā' from Makkah and Kufah considered it as the one of al-Fātiḥah and othe surah verse.³⁵

From the differences of opinion concerning this basmalah, so the school who said that basmalah is not verse is Abu Hanifah School, they don't clarify basmalah when read al-Fatihah in the prayer. Imam al-Syafi'i and all his followers clarify it because they consider that basmalah is one of the verses in al-Fatihah and another surah verse except al-Taubah surah.

Another example, when al-Zamakhshari interpreted QS al-Maidah/5:6.

يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا إِذَا قُمْتُمْ إِلَى الصَّلَاةِ فَاغْسِلُوا وُجُوهَكُمْ وَأَيْدِيَكُمْ إِلَى الْمَرَافِقِ
وَأَمْسَحُوا بِرُءُوسِكُمْ وَأَرْجُلَكُمْ إِلَى الْكَعْبَيْنِ ۚ

The meaning:

O you who believe! When you intend to offer al-Ṣalāt (the prayer), wash your faces and your hands (forearms) up to the elbows, rub (by passing wet hands over) your heads, and (wash) your feet up the ankles.³⁶

When al-Zamakhshari interpreted wamsahū bi ru'ūsikum in the verse above, he forwarded the differences those happened among Imam al-Syafi'i, Malik and Abu Hanifah. Imam Malik comprehended that when the people wipe the head they should wipe it all, all parts of head. Imam Syafi'i argued that just wipe some parts of head, and Imam Abu Hanifah said that just wipe a quarter of head. Al-Zamakhshari did not support anything of those opinions, but he stated that wiping some or all of parts of head has a same definition; its put hand on the head in that purposes to wipe the head. In interpreting the law (fiqh) verses seemingly al-Zamakhshari tried to be neutral although he was a follower of Hanafi.³⁷

Another motive in al-Kashshāf exegesis book is theological motive, as his tendency to Muktazilite view. His fanaticism to the Muktazilite sect caused al-Kashshāf contained much of interpretations those supported Muktazilite view that used a rational thinking. The Muktazilite side of al-Kashshāf is seen when al-Zamakhshari interpreted the verses related with Muktazilite teachings, especially the five principles of their teachings (al-uṣūl al-khamsah).

³⁶Muhammad Muhsin Khan & Muhammad Taqiuddin al-Hilali, Interpretation of the Meanings of the Noble Qur'an in the English Language, p. 155..

³⁷See al-Zamakhshari, al-Kasyshāf, Juz I, h. 99.

When al-Zamakhshari interpreted the verse that contradicted with Muktazilite views, he tried very hard for canceling and diverting the visible meaning to another meaning of that word. The mistake like that always happened to the Muktazilite Muslim scholar and also to the some philosophers.³⁸

For example, the concept of god oneness among Muktazilite is the impossible for human beings to seeing god in the world and in hereafter. For example, al-Zamakhshari interpreted QS al-Qiyamah/75: 22-23.

وَجُوهٌ يَوْمَئِذٍ نَّاضِرَةٌ ۖ إِلَىٰ رَبِّهَا نَاظِرَةٌ ﴿٢٢﴾

The meaning:

Some faces that day shall be nāḍirah (shining and radiant). Look at their Lord (Allah).³⁹

Al-Zamakhshari diverted the meaning of nāḍirah from its origin meaning “seeing” to the another meaning; its tawaqqu’ and raja’ (waiting and expecting). He did it because seeing god comprehension is contradicted with Muktazilite view.⁴⁰

Another way that seems in al-Kashshāf (if the verse that want to be interpreted is contradicted with Muktazilite view) is the classifying of muḥkamāt and mutasyābihāt verses. The verses those agreed with his theological teaching were categorized as muḥkamāt verses. If not, the verses were categorized as mutasyābihāt verses. After that, mutasyābihāt verses would be interpreted to another meaning so those will be same with muḥkamāt verses. He expressed it when he interpreted QS Ali Imran/3:7.

هُوَ الَّذِي أَنْزَلَ عَلَيْكَ الْكِتَابَ مِنْهُ آيَاتٌ مُحْكَمَاتٌ هُنَّ أُمُّ الْكِتَابِ وَأُخَرُ مُتَشَابِهَاتٌ
 مُجْكَمَاتٌ أَحْكَمَتْ عِبَارَتَهَا بِأَنْ حَفِظَتْ مِنَ الْإِحْتِمَالِ وَالِاشْتِبَاهِ مُتَشَابِهَاتٌ
 مُشْتَبِهَاتٌ مُحْتَمَلَاتٌ هُنَّ أُمُّ الْكِتَابِ إِي أَصْلُ الْكِتَابِ تَحْمِلُ الْمُتَشَابِهَاتِ عَلَيْهَا وَتَرُدُّ
 إِلَيْهَا، وَمِثَالُ ذَلِكَ لَا تُدْرِكُهُ الْأَبْصَارُ [الأنعام: 103]، إِلَى رَبِّهَا نَازِرَةٌ [القيامة: 23]

From the explanation above it may be seen that he categorized QS al-An'am/103 which said that "Allah is impossible to be seen in the world and in hereafter" as muhkam verse, and QS al-Qiyamah: 23 which said that "the believer can see god in hereafter" as mutasyābih verse. This is different with Ahl al-Sunnah wa al-Jamaah view that said Allah could not be seen in the world but in hereafter the believer will enjoy in seeing the face of Allah clearly.

4. Comments and Criticism to al-Kashshāf

Al-Kashshāf has been admitted by Muslim scholars. It has a high quality and has several superiorities those make it different from another exegesis book. Among its superiorities are:

- a. His interpretation is able to expose the secrets of balāghah in the Qur'an. In this case, al-Dzahabi stated that nothing another exegesis book is able to compete al-Kashshāf in the past and present time. The same praise was expressed by Ibnu Khaldun. When Ibnu Khaldun told about the interpretation that used language, i'rāb and balāghah approaches, he stated that many interpretations contain those approaches but al-Kashshāf is the best.
- b. Al-Kashshaf, is an exegesis book whose content is simple and is not complicated as the explanation of al-Zarqani.

- c. It is clear from isrā'iliyyāt, except in the story of Prophet David and Solomon. If he expressed the isrā'iliyyāt story he stated its wrong.
- d. It holds on Arabic language and its rules, and naẓm (sentence composition) in explaining the purpose of verse.
- e. Explaining the miracle aspects of Qur'an in many verses of Qur'an those could not be competed with human being by using literature approach.
- f. Dialogic in explaining his interpretation.

The excellences and fames of this exegesis book seem from the responds of many interpreters after him through explanation (syarḥ) and summary (khulāṣah) books; is it in the form of praise or stricture even there are Muslim scholar give praise along with stricture. Among the Muslim scholars who criticize al-Kashshāf because of its Muktazilite views are Ahmad bin al-Munir al-Iskandariy, ibn Qayyim al-Jauziyyah, Taqiyyuddin al-Subki, Abu Hayyan al-Andalusi, Ibn Khaldun, Syeikh Haydar al-Hirawi dan Jalaluddin al-Suyuti. Several of them arranged a book for debating the Muktazilite views of al-Kashshāf such as al-Intiṣāf fī mā Taḍammanahu al-Kashshāf min al-i'tizāl, the work of Ahmad bin al-Munir al-Iskandariy al-Maliki. This book criticized so much the Muktazilite view of al-Kashshāf. Another work is al-Kāfī al-Syāfī fī Takhrīj Aḥādīs al-Kashshāf, the work of Ibn Hajar al-'Asqalani. In particular, this book explains hadith of al-Kashshāf and exposes the varieties of Muslim scholar opinions about its validity (ṣaḥīḥ or ḍa'īf). Another book that particularly clarifies syawāhid lughawiyyah like his poem (syā'ir) is the book of Masyāhid al-Inṣāf 'ala Syawāhid al-Kashshāf, the work of syekh Muhammad Ulyan al-Marzuqi al-Syafi'i.⁴¹

⁴¹H. M Rusydi Khalid, Mengkaji Metode Para Mufasssir, p. 45-46.

The praises are delivered to al-Kashshāf because al-Zamakhshari is the Muslim scholar who mastering Arabic language, i'rāb, balāghah and Arabic poems so he could explained the miracle of Qur'an from its beautiful language and its composition. Hence, the criticism for al-Kashshāf because its writer is the people who has Muktazilite views and he tried to deflecting some verses with the way of ta'wīl and istidlāl in order that will be in the same way with Muktazilite faith. The criticism to al-Kashshāf also because this book just taking a little argumentation from hadith, this book also likes to take a weak hadith about the virtue of surah and its writer was tough and sometimes degrading the Muslim scholar of Ahl al-Sunnah wa al-Jamaah. Therefore, Imam al-Dzahabi said “Maḥmūd bin ‘Umar al-Zamakhshari is the pious interpreter but he is the caller of Muktazilite, we wish Allah protects us, therefore, be careful with his al-Kashshāf. But, I argued that the one who may learn this book is the people who have a good comprehension about prophetic tradition as what Ibnu Khaldun and Ibnu Hajar said.”⁴²

CHAPTER IV

AL-ZAMAKHSHARI'S THOUGHT ABOUT THE CONCEPT OF AL-'ADL (GOD JUSTICE) IN AL-KASHSHĀF

Before the writer explains the al-Zamakhshari's thought about the concept of al-'adl (God justice), the writer hereby show the Qur'an verses those related with al-'adl (God justice) and also the Qur'an verses those are seemingly contradiction with al-'adl (God justice).

A. Qur'anic Verses of al-'Adl (God justice)

QS Ali Imran/3:18.

شَهِدَ اللَّهُ أَنَّهُ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ وَالْمَلَائِكَةُ وَأُولُوا الْعِلْمِ قَائِمًا بِالْقِسْطِ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ
الْعَزِيزُ الْحَكِيمُ

The Meaning:

Allah bears witness that lā ilāh illa Huwa (none has the right to be worshipped but He), and the angles, and those having knowledge (also give the witness); (He always) maintains his creation in justice. Lā ilāh illa Huwa (none has the right to be worshipped but He), the All-Mighty, the All-Wise.¹

QS al-Baqarah/2:272.

لَيْسَ عَلَيْكَ هُدَاهُمْ وَلَكِنَّ اللَّهَ يَهْدِي مَنْ يَشَاءُ وَمَا تُنْفِقُوا مِنْ خَيْرٍ

B. Al-Zamakhshari's Interpretation of al-'Adl (God Justice) in al-Kashshāf

In explaining argumentations about al-'adl (God justice), the Muktazilite comments that “actually, the health mind can explain about al-'adl (God justice) and abolish his wrong deed. There are several verses those explain about this; one of them is Allah’s revelation in QS Ali Imran/3: 18.

شَهِدَ اللَّهُ أَنَّهُ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ وَالْمَلَائِكَةُ وَأُولُوا الْعِلْمِ قَائِمًا بِالْقِسْطِ ۚ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ الْعَزِيزُ الْحَكِيمُ ﴿١٨﴾

The Meaning:

Allah bears witness that lā ilāh illa Huwa (none has the right to be worshipped but He), and the angles, and those having knowledge (also give the witness); (He always) maintains his creation in justice. Lā ilāh illa Huwa (none has the right to be worshipped but He), the All-Mighty, the All-Wise.²⁰

Related with the verse above, al-Zamakhshari also gave a commentary that there are two God attributes those set in this verse; His oneness and His justice. As he interpreted العزيز by saying “none God that can compete Him or beat Him, and he interpreted الحكيم by saying “none that can judge His deed”.²¹ So, none that can compete Him or beat Him because He is The All-Mighty God (العزيز) and none is wiser than Him because He is The All-Wise God (الحكيم).

Next, al-Zamakhshari said that if there is someone says “what does Allah mean in this verse by mentioning the people who have knowledge gather with Allah and His Angle about witness on the oneness and the justice of God? Then he answered that they are the people who determine the oneness and the justice of God with clear argumentations and real proofs. Al-Zamakhshari called them as ‘ulamā’ al-‘adl wa al-tauhīd’.²²

Furthermore, Allah’s revelation that was mentioned after the verse above إِنَّ الدِّينَ عِنْدَ اللَّهِ الْإِسْلَامُ (لا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ) is talking about tauhīd (the oneness) and his revelation that said قَائِمًا (إِنَّ الدِّينَ عِنْدَ اللَّهِ الْإِسْلَامُ) is talking about ta’dīl (the justice) and next if both of them are connected with (إِنَّ الدِّينَ عِنْدَ اللَّهِ الْإِسْلَامُ) the sentence of this verse indicates that Islam is al-‘adl and al-tauhīd, religion in the side of Allah.²³ Therefore, al-Zamakhshari expressed his opinion in his interpretation of this verse that there are two main principles in Islamic teaching; the oneness of God (tauhīd) and the justice of God (al-‘adl), he seemingly connected the verse 18 and 19 of surah Ali Imrān.

The view of al-‘adl (God justice) related with the view of human freedom and absolute dominance of God.²⁴ So basically, the explanation about al-‘adl (God justice) much related with human and God deed. The God will be said just if his attributes is good. The God will never do wrong deed (zālim) to human beings, He will never give burden to His servants beyond their capacity and capability, and He will never break His promise.

²²This al-Zamakhshari’s statement is a signal that he is the loyal follower of Muktaẓilite which named their selves with ahl al-‘adl wa al-tauhīd. See Al-Zamakhshari, al-Kashshāf, p. 345.

1. Human and God Deed

According to Muktazilite sect, human beings have freedom in having intentions and controlling their deeds. As al-Zamakhshari's interpretation of QS al-Baqarah/2:272.

لَيْسَ عَلَيْكَ هُدَاهُمْ وَلَكِنَّ اللَّهَ يَهْدِي مَنْ يَشَاءُ

The Meaning:

Not upon you (Muhammad p.b.u.h.) is their guidance, but Allah guides whom He wills.²⁵

In the verse above al-Zamakhshari said that hudā (guidance) is not created by God, but it is created by His servant for himself. Al-Zamakhshari defined hudā (guidance) with luṭf. He converted hudā in the verse above to the meaning of luṭf (flaccidity) because he argued that human being creates his deed for himself. So, the meaning of the verse above is Allah gives the flaccidity to whom He wills.²⁶ A same opinion was expressed by al-Zamakhshari in his interpretation of QS al-An'ām/6:39.

مَنْ يَشَاءِ اللَّهُ يُضِلَّهُ وَمَنْ يَشَاءِ تَجْعَلْهُ عَلَى صِرَاطٍ مُسْتَقِيمٍ

The Meaning:

Allah sends astray whom He wills and He guides on a straight path whom He wills.²⁷ al-Zamakhshari said that if Allah wishes people going astray it means that people is not given a luṭf by Allah and on the opposite, if Allah wishes people to be in the straightway it means that Allah gives them luṭf and they practice luṭf which have given to them by Allah in their lives. Furthermore, al-Zamakhshari interpreted يُضِلُّهُ with يُخْذِلُهُ and يُخْلِيهِ because according to him as the opinion from his school

(Muktazilite) that Allah does not create an error/badness and also goodness, it is different with Ahl al-Sunnah who said that Allah creates goodness and badness to the human being.²⁸

As the explanation of al-Zamakhshari in his interpretation of QS al-Nisā/4:78.

وَإِنْ تُصِيبْهُمْ حَسَنَةٌ يَقُولُوا هَذِهِ مِنْ عِنْدِ اللَّهِ وَإِنْ تُصِيبْهُمْ سَيِّئَةٌ يَقُولُوا هَذِهِ مِنْ عِنْدِكَ

The Meaning:

And if some good reaches them, they say, “this is from Allah”, but if some evil befalls them, they say, “this is from you”.²⁹

And QS al-Nisā/4:79.

مَا أَصَابَكَ مِنْ حَسَنَةٍ فَمِنَ اللَّهِ وَمَا أَصَابَكَ مِنْ سَيِّئَةٍ فَمِنْ نَفْسِكَ

The Meaning:

Whatever of good reaches you is from Allah, but whatever of evil befalls you is from yourself.

Both verses above explain that human beings are given goodness or enjoyment by Allah because they have good and special relations with Allah. So, they are given superiority, goodness, safety, and examination by Allah. On the contrary, if the human beings get badness, it means that it comes from their selves because all things that fall on the human beings are because of their hands (deeds).³⁰

From the explanation above, it may be seen that human beings determine all their deeds, and they also will get the result of what they have done. The human beings choose to be unbeliever (Kāfir) and also choose to be believer (Mu'min). As al-Zamakhshari said in his interpretation of QS al-Kahfi/18: 29.

وَقُلِ الْحَقُّ مِنْ رَبِّكُمْ ۖ فَمَنْ شَاءَ فَلْيُؤْمِنْ وَمَنْ شَاءَ فَلْيُكْفُرْ

The Meaning:

And say: “the truth is from your lord”. Then whosoever wills, let him believe; and whosoever wills, let him disbelieve.³¹

Al-Zamakhshari said that the truth is the choice from someone about what he wants; he wants to choose a true way or wrong way. In the view of al-Zamakhshari, this verse included command and choice because when the people are given a power to choose between two of their choices (believer or unbeliever), it means that people are commanded to choose between them (believer or unbeliever) those were prepared for him.³²

Further, al-Zamakhshari said in his interpretation of QS al-Taghābun/64: 2

هُوَ الَّذِي خَلَقَكُمْ مِنْكُمْ كَافِرٌ وَمِنْكُمْ مُؤْمِنٌ ۚ وَاللَّهُ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ بَصِيرٌ

The Meaning:

He it is who created you, then some of you are disbelievers and some of you are believers. And Allah is All-seer of what you do.³³

He said that human beings are those who create an error deed and they also do it, similarly to the faith, they create a faith and they also do it and they know the consequence of the faith and error deed which they do. Al-Zamakhshari explained that the meaning of Allah bestows the human beings his comfort that was created by Him is in order that human beings may pay attention and contemplate Allah's giving for them, so they will become a grateful servant. But, most of human beings do not do it and they become separated and isolated each other into several groups.

³³Muhammad Muhsin Khan & Muhammad Taqiuddin al-Hilali, Interpretation of the Meanings of the Noble Qur'an in the English Language, p. 755.

Therefore, in this verse said that among them there are infidels and there are believers. From the explanation above, it could be understood that human beings become the believer or the infidel because Allah has bestowed his comfort to them, so the people who use it well will be the believers, and they who do not use it well and separated each other will be the infidels. So according to him, if Allah really creates the people to be infidel so why Allah gives a knowledge to them about that?³⁴

Furthermore, Allah obligates to give a reward and heaven to the human beings who choose to believe Him and He obligates to give a sin and hellfire to the human beings who choose to be infidel as the sign of His justice.

Next, the peoples who have been purified by Allah as described in QS al-Nisa/4: 49.

أَلَمْ تَرَ إِلَى الَّذِينَ يُزَكُّونَ أَنْفُسَهُمْ ۚ بَلِ اللَّهُ يُزَكِّي مَن يَشَاءُ وَلَا يُظْلَمُونَ فَتِيلًا ﴿٤٩﴾

The Meaning:

Have you not seen those who claim sanctity for themselves? Nay, but Allah sanctities whom He wills, and they will not be dealt with injustice even equal to the extent of a fatīla.³⁵

This verse was interpreted by al-Zamakhshari by saying that Allah purifies the people who He pleases; the holy servants among human beings and have purity attribute.³⁶ It means that Allah is not only make them pure but also the human beings must make themselves pure first by doing any kinds of goodness those can bring them to the purity

2. Allah is impossible to do wrong deed (ẓālim)/ He should do good and best deed to His servant

All discussions above those have been explained indicating that Allah will never do wrong deed to his servants. There are many verses in the Qur'an explain about that. One of them is QS al-Kahfi/18:49.

وَوُضِعَ الْكِتَابُ فَتَرَى الْمُجْرِمِينَ مُشْفِقِينَ مِمَّا فِيهِ وَيَقُولُونَ يَوَيْلَتَنَا مَا لِ هَذَا
الْكِتَابِ لَا يُغَادِرُ صَغِيرَةً وَلَا كَبِيرَةً إِلَّا أَحْصَاهَا وَوَجَدُوا مَا عَمِلُوا حَاضِرًا وَلَا
يَظْلَمُ رَبُّكَ أَحَدًا ﴿٤٩﴾

The Meaning:

And the book will be placed, and you will see the Mujrimūn (criminals, polytheists, sinners), fearful of that which is therein. They will say: “woe to us”! what sort of Book is this that leaves neither a small thing nor a big thing, but has recorded it with numbers!” and they will find all that they did, placed before them, and your lord treats no one with injustice.

The verse above explains that all human deeds will be recorded by Allah; small or big deed, Ibnu ‘Abbās said that “the small is smile and the big is laughing”, according to Sa‘īd bin Jabīr that “the small is touching and the big is doing adultery”. So, nothing of human deeds in this world except all are recorded by Allah in the one book, so Allah will never be wrong in judging his servant as it is mentioned in the last part of verse above. Al-Zamakhshari interpreted that Allah is being wrong if He records the deed that humans do not do it, He adds the torture of humans over their rights, and He torments them without they do a mistake such as Allah torments the child from polytheist because the sin of his parents. Therefore, the human beings will bear all their deeds as a form of God justice; He does not commit wrong deed to His servants.³⁷

³⁷ al-Zamakhshari, al-Kashshāf, Vol 2, p. 727.

The same manner, as Allah explains in QS Yāsīn/36:54.

فَالْيَوْمَ لَا تُظْلَمُ نَفْسٌ شَيْئًا وَلَا تُجْزَوْنَ إِلَّا مَا كُنْتُمْ تَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٥٤﴾

The Meaning:

This day none will be wronged in anything, nor will you be requited anything except that which you used to do.³⁸

According to al-Zamakhshari, this verse is an overview about the things that are promised by Allah in hereafter; they are promised a heaven as the reply or result of their kindness they have done, which is the peak of the happiness and enjoyment.³⁹ So, none will feel getting wrong judgment of the reply that is given to them by Allah because of their deeds.

Allah just wishes his servants getting guidance, faith, and to be a good people and Allah never wishes them going astray, to be infidel, and to be evil man. The argumentation was expressed by Muktazilite to strengthen their opinion is QS Ghāfir/40:31

وَمَا اللَّهُ يُرِيدُ ظُلْمًا لِّلْعِبَادِ ﴿٣١﴾

The Meaning:

And Allah wills no justice for (His) servants.⁴⁰

Al-Zamakhshari interpreted this verse by saying Allah does not wish the wrong deed to his servants; he does not want to destroy them because he has the justice attribute, and they have a right on what they have done. This has same meaning with Allah's saying لَا يَرْضَىٰ لِعِبَادِهِ الْكُفْرَ "Allah does not wish the infidel for his servant", it means that Allah does not want his servants to do a wrong deed, so Allah destroys them because their wrong deed. The word ظلم in the verse above is nakirah, therefore Allah does not want anything of wrong deed for his servants. Al-Zamakhshari interpreted الإرادة (wish) with الرضاء (willingness).⁴¹

The secondary verses that support verse above are QS Ali Imran/3:32.

فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يُحِبُّ الْكَافِرِينَ ﴿٣٢﴾

The Meaning:

The Allah does not like the disbelievers.⁴²

QS Ali Imran/3:57.

The meaning:

And Allah does not like the zālimūn (polytheists and wrongdoers).⁴³

QS Ali Imran/3:108.

تِلْكَ آيَاتُ اللَّهِ تَتْلُوهَا عَلَيْكَ بِالْحَقِّ وَمَا اللَّهُ يُرِيدُ ظُلْمًا لِلْعَالَمِينَ ﴿١٠٨﴾

The Meaning:

These are the verses of Allah. We recite them to you in truth, and Allah wills no justice to the ‘Alimīn (mankind, jinn and all that exists).⁴⁴

In QS Ali Imran/3:108 above, al-Zamakhshari interpreted that the verses are read with correct and just; it is the reply to the people who perform good deeds and bad deeds suitable with their right. The word ظلما is nakirah because Allah does not want to do wrong deed to all His creations without exception. Furthermore, al-Zamakhshari said that the Most Holy of Allah (سبحان الله) from the people who give Him irādah (the Wish) as attribute which is not good. The people who he means is Ahl al-Sunnah who said that “whatever that Allah wants surely it will be, and whatever that Allah does not want surely will never be”.⁴⁵

3. Allah will never give a burden to human beings beyond their ability and capacity

According to Muktazilite, Another thing that included to al-‘adl (God justice) is when Allah does not give burden to anyone beyond his ability and capacity. The basis verse that he used is the last verse of surah al-Baqarah:

لَا يُكَلِّفُ اللَّهُ نَفْسًا إِلَّا وُسْعَهَا لَهَا مَا كَسَبَتْ وَعَلَيْهَا مَا اكْتَسَبَتْ

The Meaning:

Allah burdens not a person beyond his scope. He gets reward for that (good) which he has earned, and he is punished for that (evil) which he has earned.⁴⁶ al-Zamakhshari interpreted this verse by saying that Allah will never burden the people beyond their abilities and capacities, and always gives them easiness without a limitation of their abilities and capacities. Then, Al-Zamakhshari mentioned that this is the information which included to the God mercy and justice. Such as in the Qur’an, Allah said يريد الله بكم اليسر “Allah wants easiness for you all”, because the humans possibility able to perform prayer more than five times a day, fast more than a month and pilgrimage more than once. But, although like that Allah does not obligate human beings to do more than that because the possibility to performing exceeding all deeds those have been obligated by Allah could not be performed by all peoples. Then, al-Zamakhshari said that the meaning of “he gets a reward (goodness) from his effort and he gets a torture from the evil that he has done” is all efforts of human beings like kindness definitely benefit to them and all their efforts like badness definitely give danger to them, the people will never be punished because the sins of other people, and the people will never be given a reward because the obedience of other people,⁴⁷ but all the result of their deeds will be borne by themselves because the human beings create their deeds and they also should bear the retribution of their deeds.

Al-Zamakhshari argued that if the humans do oblivion and mistake unintentionally those will be forgiven by Allah and they will not be punished because of their oblivion and mistake, because he thought that humans forget and do mistake unintentionally is not caused by their dereliction but Satan makes human beings forgetting, as Allah said in QS al-Kahfi: 63 وَمَا نَسَانِيهِ إِلَّا الشَّيْطَانُ “none but Satan made him forget”.⁴⁸ Satan does not interfere in human affairs but Satan whispers the humans, so the whisper from Satan makes human beings forgetful. According to al-Zamakhshari, the humans pray to God just asking for permission to be exempted from punishment, as it is said that if the humans get punishment because forgetting and doing mistake so the cause of humans get punishment just because of forgetting and doing mistake. The human beings may take a pray to God although they have known what will be happened before they take a pray to Him.⁴⁹ The basis of the al-Zamakhshari’s statement above is hadith from Rasulullah p.b.u.h. from Ibnu Abbas.

عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ، أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ: إِنَّ اللَّهَ يَجَاوِزُ لِي عَنْ أُمَّتِي الْخَطَأَ وَالنَّسْيَانَ وَمَا اسْتُكْرِهُوا عَلَيْهِ⁵⁰

The Meaning:

From Ibnu Abbas, Rasulullah p.b.u.h. said that: indeed, Allah forgives some mistakes of my society those caused by wrong, forgetfulness, and being forced.⁵¹

The verse that supports the verse and hadith above is in QS al-A'rāf/7:42.

لَا تُكَلِّفُ نَفْسًا إِلَّا وُسْعَهَا

The Meaning:

We tax not any person beyond his scope.⁵²

4. Allah will never break His promise

The promise fulfilment as explained above has been explained by Allah's saying in QS Ali Imran/3:9.

رَبَّنَا إِنَّكَ جَامِعُ النَّاسِ لِيَوْمٍ لَا رَيْبَ فِيهِ إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يُخْلِفُ الْمِيعَادَ

The Meaning:

Our Lord! Verily, it is you who will gather mankind together on the day about which there is no doubt. Verily, Allah never breaks his promise.⁵³

Al-Zamakhshari said that one of the divinity attribute is abolishing the deviate promise, Such as if you say that the philanthropist disappointed the people who ask him something, and like that also the people who promise will never disappointed the people that have been given promise by him. Therefore, Allah has an obligation to fulfill His promise to His servants.⁵⁴

According to Muktaẓilite, Allah definitely even must fulfill his promise and threat. If He does not, the justice and the orderliness will never be and the information from Allah about the fulfillment of his promise and threat is not true and just falsehood. Whereas, all Muslim societies agree that Allah is impossible to lie. But, according to Imam Haramain al-Juwaini that Muktazilite societies do not agree about the obligation of Allah to give a reply to human deeds. According to some of them, Allah obligates to giving reward to the people who obey him and he is obligated to punish the people who perform a sin and never repent before died. Then, most of them said that Allah is not obligated to give punishment to the people who perform a sin and never repent before died, but he is obligated to give reward to the people who obey him. Like that the opinion of Muktazilite from Basra and some figures of Muktazilite from Bagdad.⁵⁵

The explanation about Allah that He has obligation to reply His servants comparable with their deeds and He does not do wrong deed to them even a few; it is the explanation about the promise and threat of Allah.⁵⁶ Which is this related with the justice of Allah. According to Muktazilite, the verse that contain with promise and threat of Allah must be defined according to its literal meaning, and the verse that impressing Allah can punish and forgive the people who committing a sin comparable with his will are could not be defined commonly, but must be defined specifically; for the people who have repented from their sin before died. So, al-Zamakhshari interpreted the verses those were forwarded by Asy'ariyyah; the verses those impress Allah has an absolute willing to punish and forgive the people who committing a sin, as follows:

First, QS al-Baqarah/2:284.

فَيَغْفِرُ لِمَن يَشَاءُ وَيُعَذِّبُ مَن يَشَاءُ^{٥٦}

⁵⁵ A. Athaillah, Rasyid Ridha': Konsep Teologi Rasional dalam Tafsir al-Manar, p. 304.

⁵⁶ Promise and treatment (الوعد و الوعيد) is one of five basis principle of Muktazilite teachings. But, actually the explanation of promise and treatment of God is included the explanation of God justice.

The Meaning:

Then He forgives whom He wills and punishes whom He wills.⁵⁷

al-Zamakhshari interpreted this verse by saying that Allah will forgive whoever He wills, it means for the people who have a right to receive forgiveness because they have repented from their sin, and Allah will torture whoever He wills, it means just for the people who proper and must receive the torture.⁵⁸

Second, QS al-An'ām/6:16.

مَنْ يُصْرِفْ عَنْهُ يَوْمَئِذٍ فَقَدْ رَحِمَهُ ۚ وَذَٰلِكَ الْفَوْزُ الْمُبِينُ ﴿١٦﴾

The Meaning:

Who is averted from on that day, (Allah) has surely, been merciful to him. And that would be the obvious success.⁵⁹

In this verse, al-Zamakhshari interpreted that Allah has given a big favor to the human beings like rescuing them from their punishment or put them into the heaven because the people who do not be punished definitely get reward. Therefore, the people who have a right to get a heaven it means that people have been given a reward and the people who have the right to get a hellfire it means that people have given a sin and torture.⁶⁰

Third, QS al-Nisā/4:48

إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يَغْفِرُ أَنْ يُشْرَكَ بِهِ ۚ وَيَغْفِرُ مَا دُونَ ذَٰلِكَ لِمَنْ يَشَاءُ ۚ وَمَنْ يُشْرِكْ بِاللَّهِ فَقَدْ افْتَرَىٰ إِثْمًا عَظِيمًا ﴿٤٨﴾

The Meaning:

Verily, Allah forgives not that partners should be set up with Him, but He forgives except that to whom He wills; and whoever sets up partners with Allah in worship, he has indeed invented a tremendous sin.⁶¹

al-Zamakhshari interpreted this verse by saying that Allah will never forgive the sin of polytheist that never repenting before died and Allah also will forgive another sin if the people repent before died. The form of sentence that used by this verse is same with the form of sentence that says “the governor will not render money and building to whom he will. It means that governor will not render the money to the people who has not right for that and just render the building to the people who has right for that.”⁶²

Those are the interpretations of al-Zamakhshari to the basis verses those Muktaizilite used to supporting their concept of God justice.

C. Analysis of al-Zamakhshari's Interpretation of al-'Adl (God Justice) in al-Kashshāf

In the process of researching the interpretations of al-Zamakhshari in his exegesis book about al-'adl (God justice), the writer has found there are several things those related with al-'adl (God justice), among them; the discussion about the promise and threat of God, absolute dominance and absolute willing of God, human freedom in acting, the obligation of Allah to avoid the wrong deed to his servant, the obligation of Allah to send messenger to His servant, Allah may not give a burden to His servants beyond their ability and capacity.

After seeing many kinds of references, the Muslim scholar and the Muslim intellectual have a different opinion concerning al-'adl (God justice). Some of them ⁶¹Muhammad Muhsin Khan & Muhammad Taqiuddin al-Hilali, Interpretation of the Meanings of the Noble Qur'an in the English Language, p. 129.

⁶²A. Athaillah, Rasyid Ridha': Konsep Teologi Rasional dalam Tafsir al-Manar, h3. 306-307. al-Zamakhshari, al-Kashshāf, Vol 1, p. 519.

differentiate between the will and the dominance of God with al-‘adl (God justice), and some of them said that al-‘adl (God justice) is related with the view of human freedom and absolute will of God. Some of them also said that al-‘adl (God justice) is related with the third basis principle of Muktazilite teaching, it is the promise and the threat of God (الوعد والوعيد), especially in giving reply to his servants for deeds they have done, giving a help in hereafter and fate of believer who has committed big sin. Some of them also said that God justice is related with the obligation of Allah to do the good even the best (al-ṣalāḥ wa al-aṣlāḥ) to His servants, the obligation of Allah to send the messenger as his affection to his servant and also because the humans are obligated to worship Allah so they need a figure in giving them guidance, and the obligation of Allah to avoid wrong deed to His servant and all His creations.

According to the writer, there are two main discussions about al-‘adl (God justice); the first is the discussion about deed, absolute dominance and will of God because in this case the disputations were emerged among the theologians is about the deed, dominance and will of God; it is absolute or not? The second is human freedom, because after the discussion about the absolute dominance and will of God so it will be known “is the human beings have a freedom in their action or not?”. So, from those two main discussions (the absolute dominance and will of God and human freedom) will emerged the discussions about obligations of God, such as; sending messenger, avoiding wrong deed, punishing his servants appropriate with their deeds and etc.

In the book of al-Kashshāf which has been written by al-Zamakhshari explains many things of al-‘adl (God justice), when the people give an attention and learn his interpretation, he was seemingly influenced by his school (maẓhab) in interpreting Qur'an and he was not neutral in interpreting Qur'an especially in the verses those are related with theology. When there are verses those seemingly support his school view, he explains them as the argumentations of his school, and like that also if there are verses those seemingly contradicted with his school, he tries to bring the meaning of those verses to the comprehension of his school, so those verses are not contradicted again with his school comprehension. Based on that, nothing is more advantaged except his school itself in his interpretations especially the verses those related with theology. Because the Muktazilite used rationality, so al-Zamakhshari wrote his exegesis book by using tafsīr bi al-ra'yi (the exegesis with mind), although sometimes in some verses he forwarded the interpretation by using tafsīr bi al-ma'sūr (the exegesis with riwāyah), sometimes he forwarded hadith, sometimes the opinion of Messenger companions. However, all his interpretations of theological verses just to support his school comprehension.

In al-Zamakhshari interpretation, he is redundant in forwarding the meanings of Qur'an verses especially in the interpretations of theological verses, and also may be found in his interpretations that he forwarded or explained his contradiction to the sect who contradicted with his school (maḏhab) comprehension like Ahl al-Sunnah wa al-Jama'ah especially when discussing about the absolute will of Allah on human act. Ahl al-Sunnah support the absolute will of Allah and Muktazilite support the human freedom.

Concerning of this book application in daily activity, the writer has the same opinion with al-Dzahabi as what had been said also by Ibnu Khaldun and Ibnu Hajar who said that "although, this exegesis book is very wonderful from its language and balāghah, but as suggestion, this book may be learned for the people who knows well about sunnah. It means that just for the people who have a deep knowledge and comprehend sunnah well. So, when they do a perusal to this book they may do tabayyun to what they read, in order they are not easy to influence with the comprehension that seems not neutral in this interpretation, especially to the verses related-theology.

In daily activity, according to the writer that al-Zamakhshari's interpretation is motivational. He wrote the exegesis book which using the theological pattern especially i'tizālī pattern because he had some purposes; first, this exegesis book impressed that al-Zamakhshari interpreted Qur'an verses just to give support to his school. Second, it may be seen from another side, this interpretations is the motivational interpretation for human beings.

According to the writer, without seeing from the disputations among the Muslim scholar, the opinions those are forwarded by Muktazilite especially al-Zamakhshari may giving a strong motivation for human beings in committing a deed because this will emerge the optimism for Islamic society in performing their lives and they are not suppressed by anything. Al-Zamakhshari forwarded the opinion that human beings will get reply appropriate with their deeds; if they do goodness they will get a reward and heaven, if they do badness they will get a sin and hellfire. So, human beings will always struggle to do goodness without be afraid that when they do goodness Allah does not give them reward even put them into the hellfire. The opinion like that could make human beings be hopeless and feeling pessimism in performing an action. Al-Zamakhshari and also Muktazilite forwarded that God wishes the best for His servants and impossible to performing wrong deed to His servants. This opinion gives a confident to human beings as the complete creation that they are blessed by Allah and He never wants them to being in the wrong way.

The opinions those were forwarded by al-Zamakhshari may create a positive thinking of human beings to their God that God is very just to His servants, He does not do wrong deed, He does not do anything as He wishes but all His deeds are just for goodness of their servants. Besides that, the human beings still believe the greatness of Allah; Allah can do whatever He wants but He is impossible to do things those are contradicted with the goodness principle because He is the God who has good attributes.

CHAPTER V

CLOSING

A. Conclusions

Muktazilite emerged when Washil bin Atho turned away from his teacher (Ḥasan al-Baṣrī) meeting after stated that he had another opinion with him, and then he organized a meeting in the corner of Basra Mosque. Therefore, his meeting namely Muktazilite, because he separated or put from his teacher meeting. Washil was followed by his friend namely Amr bin ‘Ubaid (d. 144 H).

The sect that radically defends the God justice is Muktazilite, and they are being proud to be named with ahl al-‘adl. The Muktazilite sect gives priority to al-‘adl (God justice) than absolute will of God. They wish the just God, not God that has an absolute will. Muktazilite sect observes the justice from the standpoint of human being. As the explanation from Abdul Jabbar that justice has a tight relation with right. He translates the justice with “giving the peoples their right”. The term “God is just” means that all God attitudes are good, He cannot commit a bad attitude, He cannot ignore his obligations to the human beings. Therefore, the God cannot do a wrong deed (ẓālim) in giving punishment to the human being. According to Muktazilite, the meaning of God justice is giving the right and freedom to the human beings to create and do their deeds.

One of the figure of Muktazilite is al-Zamakhshari. Al-Zamakhshari full name is Abū al-Qāsim Maḥmūd bin ‘Umar bin Muḥammad bin Aḥmad bin ‘Umar al-Khawārizmi al-Zamakhsharī. He was born on Wednesday 27 Rajab 467 H. at the same time with 1074 M in Zamakhshar, a village that located in the Khawarizm region, Turkistan. He died at 538 H in Jurjaniah Khawarizm. al-Zamakhshari was born along with the poor family but they were pious, religious and always do good deeds. His father was a noble one and he very loved his children and his mother is charitable, she had a soft heart. Al-Zamakhsyari was a big Muslim scholar and he created many works since he still lived, he also got many comments and criticism from other Muslims scholars.

Al-Zamakhsyari wrote his exegesis book that entitled al-Kashshāf ‘an Ḥaqā’iq al-Tanzīl wa ‘Uyūn al-Aqāwīl fī Wujūh al-Ta’wīl began from the demand of a group that named his self with al-Fi’ah al-Nājiyah al-‘Adliyah (Muktazilite). Therefore, al-Zamakhsyari mentioned that his brothers from Muktazilite met and asked him to write al-Kashshāf, and the enthusiastic of the society were so big to know what al-Zamakhsyari explained about Qur’anic exegesis.

The book of Al-Kashshāf is the one of the exegesis book that is in the form of tafsir bi al-ra’yi by using taḥlīlī method in its arrangement. In his exegesis explanation appears an orientation/ittijah and motive/lawn from al-Kashshāf book as tafsir lughawi and also tafsir I’tizālī (the exegesis book that has Muktazilite school tendency).

Al-Zamakhsyari’s thought of al-‘adl (God justice):

1. Al-Zamakhsyari wrote his exegesis book (al-Kashshāf) based on Muktazilite sect. Seemingly, He gave a big support to the view of Muktazilite especially about al-‘adl (God justice) in his interpretation of Qur’an verses.
2. According to al-Zamakhsyari, there are two main principles in Islamic teaching; the God oneness (tauḥīd) and the God justice (al-‘adl), as his interpretation of QS Ali Imran/3: 18.

3. Human beings have a freedom to determine their deeds without any intervention from God as a form of His justice. It looks when al-Zamakhshari interpreted the Qur'an verses that seems contradicted with his concept of al-'adl (God justice), he used to divert the meaning of Qur'an verses to another meaning which support his opinion of al-'adl (God justice).
4. God is impossible to do wrong deed (ẓālim) and He should do good and best deed to His servant. He should give a replay to the people suitable with their deeds. Allah just wishes his servants getting guidance, faith, and to be a good people and Allah never wishes them going astray, to be infidel, and to be evil man. It is different with Asy'ariyyah who said that Allah may do whatever He wants and all His deeds is proper because He is the one in authority.
5. Allah will never give a burden to human beings beyond their ability and capacity because Allah wants easiness to them all. So, according to al-Zamakhshari all human beings can assume all their burdens from God.
6. Allah will never break His promise; Allah definitely even must fulfill His promise and threat. If He does not, the justice and the orderliness will never be and the information from Allah about the fulfillment of His promise and threat is not true and just falsehood.

B. Implication

As the closing of this thesis, I am as the writer wants to remind you all as the reciters that discussion about al-'adl (God justice) is very complicated and it is not easy to learn about it. But, it is very interested to be learned because it is related with Islamic religion/theology, and also to expand our knowledge treasure especially related with Islam. So we can handle our live and our live principle in performing our religion teaching.

The concept of al-'adl (God justice) is the one of explanation in the circle of theology, it is the one of the principle of Muktazilite teachings. Al-Zamakhshari is the one of Muktazilite figures that giving his opinion about al-'adl (God justice) through his phenomenal exegesis book “al-Kashshāf”, and in this thesis the writer has explained a few of al-Zamakhshari’s interpretation/opinion about al-'adl (God justice). So, in this writing still consists of many lacks, and the writer hopes this thesis may be improved by theology and Qur’an students, in order this research can be more complete as the concept so that can be more applied in daily activity.

In this thesis research, the writer feels that this writing is still so far from the perfection, so the writer hopes comments and criticism those can make this research more complete.
