This thesis is a research about An Analysis of Social Conflict in Rick Riordan's Novel "The Red Pyramid". The objective of the research is, to explain the kinds and causes of social conflict happen in the novel "The Red Pyramid".

The method used in this research is qualitative method. The data resource of this research was the novel "The Red Pyramid" which was published in 2010. In collected the data, the researcher used note taking as the instrument to get the data. The technique of data analysis in this study is Lewis Coser theory about Social conflict..

The researcher found that the main character of social conflict through three aspect in the novel. They are,7 conflict involving social position,6 conflict of interest, and 6 role conflict.The researcher has found causes of social conflict were relation, condition, violence, immolation of the character in the research.

In this research, the researcher concludes of social conflict can be happened in the human environment. Then the researcher got that main character of social conflict is defended though conflict involving position, conflict of interest and role conflict.

CHAPTER I

INTRODUCTION

A. Background

Literature is a form of creative and productive activity which produces a work that has a sense of aesthetic values as well as reflecting social reality. According to Wellek and Warren (1993:3) literature is a creative activity work art. Literature is 'creative' or 'imaginative' writing, does imply that history, philosophy and natural science are uncreative and unimaginative (Eagleton, 1996:2).

Literature is the aspect of human activities composition that tells a story, dramatizes, expresses and feels. Olaofe and Okunoye (2008:19) stated that literature is thus summed up as permanent expressions in words (written or spoken), specially arranged in pleasing accepted patterns or forms. Literature expresses thoughts, feelings, ideas or other special aspects of human experiences. Literature is a representative of the real life of humans. Sometimes it is used as publicly and criticism. Literature cannot be separated from human life since it give many contributions to people. That it helps people to understand what exactly happens in their environment.

Literary works are divided into three aspect, prose, poetry, and drama. Besides, literary work must show creative beauty and try to channel about beauty. Literary work the readers get entertainment, happiness and the best though as well as knowledge and mental experience. The literary expression resulted the experience of existing deposits in the author's life in depth though a process of imagination (Aminuddin, 1990:57).

From the above explanations, it can be concluded that literature is one of the medium to draw our imagination by using of literary and literature as reflection of society. Besides, it helps the human to know about story in literary work especially a novel.

A novel creates with some aspects of structure like plot, theme, character, language style, and point of view (Sugira, 2004:74). The all aspects connect one aspect to one another create a literary work. Novel is imagination created about aspect of human. The stories like novel always have character, thus character do interaction to develop the plot. Character besides as subject also to be the object of the plot. Novel is a world especially made in words by author.

Based on the definition of the novel above, the writer identified that studying a literary work, especially novel, will help us have a better understanding of life, environment, and culture. Besides, it also helps us know more about human problem and society difficulties.

The study is concentrated on the social conflict in Rick Riordan novels "The Red Pyramid". This novel narrates some social conflict of human life, as being performed by Sadie and Carter Kane were the environment a magician in the family. There are many conflicts in novel at happen between character and other character as life. Conflict in literary works seems to be an important part to develop a story. According to Folt (2000) conflict is important to literature because it provides the basic materials for the construction of the story. Without conflict nothing would happen. It all can build up and makes interesting to read.

Fisher et all (2001:4) stated that conflict is a relationship between two or more parties over (individuals or groups) who have, or who feel they have, which is not the target. Conflict always happens in every kind of life that hard to prevent. It could be cultural, conflict, values conflict, religious conflict, social conflict and the like.

Social conflict is struggle over values or claims to status, power, and scarce, resources, in which the aims of the conflict groups are not only to gain the desired values, but also to neutralize, injure, or eliminate rivals (Coser in Oberschall 1978:291).

The writer chooses the social conflict as the topic because the researcher has found social problems experienced by the characters in the novel. The social conflict are narrated in sequence to follow development as one of the intrinsic aspects of the novel. The writer was interested analyzing the social conflict because Rick Riordan's novel "The Red Pyramid" narrates the social conflict that often happen in a real life. The writer assumes that social conflict has power to affect human behavior, way of thinking, attitude, and their relationships with other character.

B. Problem Statement

There are some problems occurred in this novel, but the writer only restrict to analysis to the social conflict. The researcher gets two things that become the problems of this study. Those are the kinds and the causes of social conflict happen in the novel.

Based on the background above, the writer formulated the problem as follows:

1. What are the kinds of social conflict happen in Rick Riordan's novel "The Red Pyramid"?

2. What do causes of social conflict happen in the novel?

C. Objective Research

The writer hopes the problems above can be accomplished by these objectives:

1. To explain the kinds of social conflict happen in Rick Riordan's novel "The Red Pyramid".

2. To explain the causes of social conflict happen in the novel.

D. Significance of Research

The significance of this research expected to give useful information for the reader at literary work. The researcher expected to give helpful reference for another researches. Besides, the study expected to give contribution for the people who are interested in learning sociology on literature especially for the English literature students about social conflict of the novel.

E. Scope of Research

The writer only focused on analyzing the social conflict in the novel. This research limited to the kinds and cause of social conflict studies by using theory of Lewis Coser in Rick Riordan's novel "The Red Pyramid".

CHAPTER II

REVIEW OF RELATED LITERATURE

In this chapter, the writer presents the theory related to the research in order to support the analysis. It consists of explanation about previous findings, concept of conflict, social conflict, novel, synopsis of the novel and biography of Rick Riordan's.

A. Previous Findings

There are some researchers about social conflict have been studied in different object, they are statements:

Subiha (2006), in her thesis entitles. "The Analysis of Social Conflict in the Novel "Adventures of Tom awyer" By Mark Twain". Adab and Humanity Faculty of Alauddin State Islamic University Makassar. She found that the minor conflict were about social conflict in Thomas Sawyer's family, especially social conflict between Tom and his aunt, and social conflict between Tom and his families. Her finding also about the major conflict between Tom and Injun Joe. Joe and Dr. Robinson were living in the same home, but they had never been a close friend. The research analyzed by using intrinsic approach.

Sahil, M. (2006) in his thesis entitles. "The Analysis of Social Conflict in the Drama "Othello" By William Shakspeare". Adab and Humanity Faculty of Alauddin State Islamic University Makassar. He found the external conflict and the causes of external conflict (social conflict). The external conflict were about social conflict between Othello and Lago, Othello and Cassio, and Othello and Desdemona. The causes of social conflict begin when Lago feels jealous to Cassio. The research analyzed the data by using intrinsic approach.

Those theses above have similarity with the writer's research. Subiha focused on minor and major conflict of the social conflict and Sahil focused on the external conflict and the causes of the social conflict. All of the theses above discuses about conflict but have different object in analysis. The different in this research, writer used a novel by Rick Riordan's, published on 2010 and the writer focused to discuses about the kinds of the social conflict and the causes of the social conflict happen in novel "THE RED PYRAMID''.

B. Concept of Conflict

1. Definition

There are some definitions about conflict but actually they have same meaning and purpose. Conflict is one universal case that usually happens in the world and it much aspect that should be to influence for example in environment as human interaction in society. Another opinion about conflict are stated as follows:

"A story may deal with a conflict within a single man, a single man, a conflict between man, a conflict between man and society, a conflict between man and natural." (Kenney,1996;19)

"Conflict occurs among characters, between a character and his or her environment, or among the thoughts, needs, and emotions of a sigle character. In some case all three kinds of conflicts may occur together."(Trimmer,1989)

While, opinion about conflict from Chartes, (1987:84) says as follows:

> Conflict is the opposition presented to the main character (or protagonist) of a narrative by another character (or antagonist) by event, or situation, by fate or some aspect of the protagonist's own personality or nature, the conflict is introduced by means of a complication that sets in motion the rising actions usually towards a climax and eventual resolution.

More opinion about conflict, according to Stanton (1995: 31) conflict is a resistance of physics, morale, mind, emotion and destiny among persons, animals or even in our selves. Conflict is illustrated as an opposition between protagonist's character and antagonist's character.

Based on the conflict definitions above, the writer concludes that conflict is one element make a story more valuable and attracts people to read it. Conflict always arises by characters who play their roles to make any influence to the reader. So, in conflict literary works seems to be an important part to develop a story. It can build up and makes the story interesting to read in literary works.

2. Kinds of Conflict

According to Stanton (1965:16), there are two categories of conflict, namely external conflict and internal conflict. External conflict is a conflict occurring between a character and something outside himself, it could be environment and also human being or other character. While internal conflict is a conflict that occurred in heart or soul of characters.

There are various types of conflict, which can be categorized as one of the following; a. physical or element conflict (conflict with nature) b. social conflict (the struggle is of one person against another) c. internal psychological (struggling against himself).

Whereas according to conflict sources, the explanation types that is conflict between:

a. Physical or element conflict is a conflict between a person with some external forces, incident, or a condition physical nature and society and it is called internal conflict.

b. Social conflict is a conflict between a person to another person or to a group and it is called external conflict.

c. Internal Psychological is a conflict between a person with his or her inward life, feeling, emotion, ideas, or thoughts and it is called internal conflict.

From the explanation above, we can conclude that conflict is struggle can happen in somebody consist of external and internal conflict. External conflict is a struggle between two person, two groups of persons, one and his environment and even between one and nature (social conflict). While, internal conflict is conflict of an idea and others ideas, one and him selves or her selves (psychological conflict). The conflicts that usually happen in environment related to the society. In this study, the writer is interested to analysis of the social conflict.

C. Social Conflict

1. Definition

Social conflict is a struggle between opponents over values and claims to scarce status, power and resources (Coser in Walker: 2005). Social conflict is the struggle for agency or power within a society. It occurs when two or more people oppose one another in social interactions, reciprocally exerting social power in an effort to attain scarce or incompatible goals, and prevent the opponent from attaining them. The social conflict is a conflict when happened or caused by the unsuitable or uncomfortable situation between character and his environment.

Social conflict is theorized to occur when an imbalance exists regarding money, resources or power (Skekel:2013). The conflict can happen in any setting global and industrial. While research and case studies may report the detail is how, when, why and where a social conflict began or continues.

Social conflict is conflict between the characters against another character (Kenny, 1996:32). The characters have conflict in his social life in his relationship with another character. The conflict happens when the actor has problem with other. It is the struggle of the person against another. That caused to be contraction such as: Fighting. Social conflict is part of an intrinsic element in a literary work which contained some of the problems of social conflict in the surrounding environment as well as the author's own experience.

Social conflict refers to conflict in which the parties are an aggregate of individuals, such as groups, organization, communities, and crowds, rather than single individual, as in role conflict (Oberschall, 1978:291).

The Social Conflict theory was first described by Karl Marx. It is the classic conflict between rich and poor. The idea that money causes conflict it gives one person power over another. To understands by power: the chance of a man, or a number of men to realize their own will in communal action, even against the resistance of others. Which such power can be exercised may vary considerably according to the social context (Coser in weber: 2010).

The several social theories that emphasize social conflict have roots in the ideas of Karl Marx (1818-1883), the great German theorist and political activist. Conflict approach emphasizes a materialist interpretation of history, a dialectical method of analysis, a critical stance toward existing social arrangements, and a political program of revolution or, at least, reform (Marx in McClelland:2000).

Karl Marx supports the ideas of deviance, claiming that individuals choose to engage in such rebellious and conflicting behavior as a response to the inequalities of the capitalist system (Eiil:2010).

2. Kinds of Social Conflict

According to Lewis Coser (in Chris,2002:64-74) social conflict is divided three categories. The types of social conflict namely; (a.) Conflict of involving social positions, (b.) Conflict of interest and (c.) Conflict of role.

Whereas according to conflict sources, the explanation types that is conflict between:

a. Conflict of Involving Social Positions

Social position is the position of an individual in a given society and culture. A given position (for example, the occupation of priest) may belong to many individuals. A group of social positions will create a social class and a social circle. Social positions an individual may hold fall into the categories of occupation (medical doctor, academic lecturer), profession (member of associations and organizations), family (parent, sibling, etc). A social conflict caused by interference between social positions is called a position conflict (Kristina,2007:54-64).

b. Conflict of Interest

A conflict of interest is a situation in which some person (whether an individual or corporate body) stands in a certain relation to one or more decisions. For example, It has a conflict of interest if (1) person is in a relationship with another requiring person to exercise judgment in the other's behalf (2) person has a (special) interest tending to interfere with the proper exercise of judgment in that relationship (Davis and stark, 2001:8).

The following are the most common forms of types of conflicts of interests:

1. Self-dealing, in which an official who controls an organization causes it to enter into a transaction with the official, or with another organization that benefits the official. The official is on both sides of the "deal."

2. Outside employment, in which the interests of one job contradict another.

3. Family interests, in which a spouse, child, or other close relative is employed (or applies for employment) or where goods or services are purchased from such a relative or a firm controlled by a relative. For this reason, many employment applications ask if one is related to a current employee. If this is the case, the relative could then from any hiring decisions. Abuse of this type of conflict of interest is called nepotism.

4. Gifts from friends who also do business with the person receiving the gifts. (Such gifts may include non-tangible things of value such as transportation and lodging).

5. Pump and dump, in which a stock broker who owns a security artificially inflates the price by "upgrading" it or spreading rumors, sells the security and adds short position, then "downgrades" the security or spreads negative rumors to push the price down.

Besides, to explain conflict of interest is a type of conflict interest. We can define a conflict of interest as a situation in which a person has a private or personal interest sufficient to appear to influence the objective exercise of his or her official duties as, say, a public official, an employee, or a professional.

c. Conflict of Role

Conflict of role is a conflict among the roles corresponding to two or more statuses. We experience role conflict when we find ourselves pulled in various directions as we try to respond to the many statuses we hold. Role conflict can be something that can be for either a short period of time, or a long period of time, and it can also be connected to situational experiences. A situation in which a person is expected to play two incompatible roles. For example, a boss will suffer role conflict if forced to fire an employee who is also a close friend (Mifflin:2005).

Furthermore, to explanation for conflict of role. "an example of role conflict would be a husband and father who is also Chief of Police. If a tornado strikes the small town he is living in, the man has to decide if he should go home and be with his family and fulfill the role of being a good husband and father or remain and fulfill the duties of a "good" Chief of Police because the whole town needs his expertise."

From the above explanation, we can conclude that type of social conflict is not limited to hostile or antagonistic opposition; it is not wholly a clash of coercive powers as often is implied, but of any opposing social powers". Social conflict is usually recognized through violence, and physical behavior. It is more that just fighting, and killing one another. At times, it can deal with it throw a simple town in a conversation. It is acknowledged by someone's power. The cause of conflict is something that makes conflicts exits or happens. Therefore, cause must stand in the front of conflict. This is the condition of conflicts establishment. Generally, the cause of conflict is an unintended or unpredictable circumstance as a result in a problem.

In short, the third kinds of social conflict above can be concluded in table below:

Kinds of Social Conflict	Differences
Conflict of Involving Social Position	1. The conflict happens in the occupation (medical doctor or academic lecturer). 2. The conflict happens in the profession (member of associations and organizations). 3. The conflict happens in the family (Parent, sibling, etc).
	1. The person gets a judgment of another person. 2. The situation of person employed in the Conflict of Interest	jobs. 3. The relation of person to one or more in the decisions.

Conflict of Role	1. A conflict among corresponding to one or more statuses in the roles. 2. The role conflict something happens for a short period time or a long period time. 3. The conflict can also be connected situational experiences.

D. Novel

1. Definition of Novel

Novel is a narrative that imagining situation and characters in plot. Literature (novel) represents life and life in large measure, a social reality, even thought the natural world and inner or subjective world of the individual have also been objectives of literature imitation (Welek and Weren, 1970:4). It may include the real place, people and events. Besides, novel is a work of art whose materials are taken from the contemporary life. As a literary work, it represents a story about human life experiences. Novel is a mirror of the social life. As stated by Wellek and Weren (1970:95)

> " literature is an expression of society if it assumes that literature, at any given time, mirrors the current social situation' correctly' it is false : Its common place trite and vague means only that literature depicts so say that literature as a mirror of expression of life is even more ambiguous. A writer inevitably expresses his expert cue and total conception".

According to Bartholomew (1989:987) novel is the narrative of considerable length and complexity, portraying characters and presenting and sequential organization of action and sense. Novel is an invented narration or story whose purpose in (Cole at all, 1990:52).

Based on above definitions of novel, we can say that novel is a part of literary work which is not a scientific. However, it does not mean that novel could give nothing for knowledge development, but the personal and social dimensions of the idea represented in it are valuable knowledge for our social living.

2. Elements of Novel

a. Theme

According to Menrath (2013) theme is message or central idea of a literary piece of art. It is found out indirectly by the reader. A number of different motives may move around the central theme of the story. Examples of literary themes are love, war and peace, loneliness in the modern world, communication problems, man and woman, nature and industry, and so on. The theme make the story more focused, united, conical, and influential , so we can know what the theme raised by the author.

b. Plot

Plot is series of stories created by stage of events that build a story that presented by the actions in a story (Abrams in Siswanto, 2008: 159). The plot draws the reader into the character's lives and helps the reader understand the choices that the character makes.

c. Character

Character is the human element in the story, the appeal to our curiosity and our sympathy (Langhlin, 1989:375). Character is the term for the people in fiction, the heroes and love interest. Which, the character appear in a work of narrative.

d. Setting

The setting of a literary work is the place, the time, and the circumstance of the action. Setting is intangible certain times (day, moth and year), weather, or a historical period (Stanton, 2007:35). Setting is the one of element of literary work that influenced by place, time and action.

E. Synopsis of Novel "The Red Pyramid"

Carter Kane has been traveling around the world since he was eight years old (Sadie was six when Carter began his travels with their father). He was home schooled by his father, Julius Kane, who is also famous Egyptology scientist. Unfortunately, he is also hiding a huge secret. He is an Egyptian magician.

On Christmas Eve, Carter and Julius head to London to visit Carter's sister, Sadie, who lives as a British student. Sadie lives with her grandparents and Carter with his father. Julius picked up Sadie, and discovered that one out of the two days of the year they get spends together was going to be occupied by a trip to British Museum. Before heading there, both children spy on their dad talking to a strange man named Amos. He also accidentally released the other children of the Demon Days: Nephthys, Isis, Horus, and Set. Set, the Egyptian god of chaos and storms, also, most evil of the Gods, ended up locking Julius. Amos is revealed to be their uncle, who saved them from being taken custody. Amos takes them to the family mansion in Brooklyn. While in the library, Set's warriors attack the house and Bast the cat goddess, who was disguised as Sadie's cat, Muffin, saves them. Also in the process, they loose Philip of Macedonia, the albino crocodile. They all escape, but Bast is later overcome by Serqet, the scorpion goddess. Not shortly after, they meet Zia Rashid who helps distract Serqet while Sadie and Carter escape through a portal.

Zia takes them to the House of Life in Egypt, to be trained as magicians. The Chief Lector, Iskandar, dies, and is replaced with Desjardins, the Kanes have to flee again, as the House of Life sees them as a threat. They are godlings, meaning they host the gods Horus and Isis (hosting the gods is against the beliefs of the House). On the way out they are attacked by Sobek the crocodile god but they escape when Bast (who turned out not dead) sacrifices herself to save Carter and Sadie.

Desjardins calls upon Sekhmet, the lion goddess, but Zia saves them by sacrificing her own magic to create a column of fire, a powerful spell. While Carter and Set battle each other, Sadie performs a spell that transports the pyramid to Washington, D.C. However, before she can seal the spell, Sadie spots Apophis, who was going to use the red pyramid to escape Cleopatra's Needle.

After forcing Set to join their side to stop Apophis from escaping into the world, Zia is revealed to be a shabti. Carter and Sadie release the gods, and Julius decides to stay in the Duat as Osiris with their dead mother, Ruby Kane. Horus and Isis reward them by repairing the rest of Amos's house and reviving Bast (Ulinnuha: 2010).

F. Biography of Rick Riordan's

Rick Riordan was born on June 5, 1964, in San Antonio, Texas. Not much is known about his childhood, although he states that his first influences in reading and writing were the Lord of the Rings books, as well as Greek and Norse mythology interesting him as a child, but he had gone to Alamo Heights High School in San Antonio when he was old enough.

He first started writing in high school when he published an underground newspaper practically making fun of the school (he was later found out publishing it, which prompted many to hate him, including the football team, who egged his car). He first went to North Texas State because he wanted to be a guitar player, but he later transferred to the University of Texas in Austin to get a degree in both English and History. Later in life, he would get a license to teach English and History from the University of Texas in San Antonio, and spent his first full-time job as a middle school teacher in New Braunfels, Texas, and taught mythology every year. When he married his wife (and still married) he moved to San Francisco and started teaching there at Presidio Hill School. When they had their kids, Haley (the inspiration for the Percy Jackson series) and Patrick, they moved back to San Antonio, where he taught for another six years at Saint Mary's Hall before going into writing full-time.

Today, you can find Rick Riordan's work all over in bookstores. He is most famous for his Percy Jackson series, and is well immersed in the Greek mythology in the books. He is still writing today, with three-five books still in production and being released within the next two years, including books from his sequel from the Percy Jackson series. He is also working on a trilogy series called the Kane Chronicles, which actually deals with Egyptian mythology instead of his normal Greek mythological works. He still lives in San Antonio, Texas, with his wife and two kids, along with one dog and two cats (Townley:2010).

CHAPTER III

METHODOLOGY OF RESEARCH

A. Methodology of Research

The method used in this study is to give description about characters and social conflict of life that is illustrated. The writer used descriptive qualitative method in order to describe and explain what have been interpreted from the object of the research. According to Aminuddin (1990:16), the qualitative descriptive method is used to analyze the form of description, not a number or coefficient of relationship between variables.

B. Source of Data

The source of data in this research was Rick Riordan's Novel "The Red Pyramid". The novel was published in 2010. It consists of 41 chapters and 337 pages.

C. Instrument of Research

In this research, the instrument that is used by the writer is note taking. Ray (2005: 13) defines note taking is a method in assembling data required by using note cards to write down the data findings from source of data.

Based on the definition of note taking above, the writer used it as a tool to take same note in the novel includes chapter, page, and number in different color cards. It can ease of the writer to identify sentences and to remember what has been reading.

D. Procedure of Data Collection

The researcher collected the data into a view step, they are:

1. First the researcher read Rick Riordan's novel "The Red Pyramid".

2. The researcher identified the elements of social conflict in the novel.

3. The researcher given a code colored paper to use cards it is name note taking in analysis and then write down the sentences from the novel.

4. The researcher divided that social conflict into 3 types colorfull cards such as (1) Red card for conflict of involving social positions, (2.) Green card for conflict of interest, and (3.) Yellow card for conflict of role including chapter, page, and number.

5. The researcher classified data which have relation to this study.

E. Technique of Data Analysis

In the technique of data analysis, the writer used the method sociology literature on the data used to analysis intrinsic elements in the novels. The writer classified the data by using the theory of social conflict of Lewis Coser. There are three categories of social conflict, namely conflict involving social positions, conflict of interest, and role conflict. It defines social conflict as a struggle over the values and claims to scarce status, power and resources. After that the writer will make a conclusion from the research.

CHAPTER IV

FINDINGS AND DISCUSSION

This chapter consists of finding and discussion that will show the result of the research. The writer would like to show what have been found from Rick Riordan's novel "The Red Pyramid".

A. Findings

In this research, the writer presents the data analysis based on the types of social conflict in the novel "The Red Pyramid". The writer analysis kinds of social conflict such us Conflict of involving social positions, Conflict of interest and Role conflict in the Rick Riordan's novel using Lewis Coser's perspective. To understand the data collection, the writer presented explanation that Cp is chapter, Pg is page, D is datum, CSP is conflict of involving social position, COI is conflict of interest and COR is conflict of role.

No.	DATA	KINDS OF SOCIAL CONFLICT			CAUSES
		CSP	COI	COR
1.	(Julius Kane between his Parent) See, Dad's only allowed two days a year with her—one in the winter, one in the summer—because our grandparents hate him. After our mom died, her parents (our grandparents) had this big court battle with Dad.	√			Condition

	After six lawyers, two fistfights, and a near fatal attack with a spatula (don't ask), they won the right to keep Sadie with them in the England. (Cp.1; Pg.6; D.1)
2.	(Sadie Kane between Julius Kane) Dad had practically abandoned me at age six, after all. The necklace was my one link to him. On good days I would stare at it and remember him fondly. On bad days (which were much more frequent) I would fling it across the room and stomp on it and curse him for not being around, which I found quite therapeutic. (Cp.3; Pg.24; D.2)	√			Condition
3.	(Carter Kane between Julius Kane) My dad put his hand on my shoulder. "Carter, you're getting older. You're an African American man. People will judge you more harshly, and so you must always look impeccable." "That isn't fair!" I insisted. "Fairness does not mean everyone gets the same," Dad said. "Fairness means everyone gets what they need. And the only way to get what you need is to make happen yourself. (Cp.6; Pg.46; D.3)	√			Relation
4.	(Carter Kane between Sadie Kane)	√			Relation

	You must always have look impeccable, Dad had told me. And he had. And he didn't just mean my clothes. He meant my attitude. With Mom gone, I was all he had. Dad needed me to be strong. Most days, I didn't mind. I loved my dad. But it was also hard. Sadie didn't understand that. She had it easy. And now she seemed to be getting all the attention, as if she were the special one. It wasn't fair. Then I heard Dad's voice in my head: "Fairness means everyone gets what they need. And the only way to get what you need is to make it happen yourself." (Cp.13; Pg.99; D.4)
5.	(Julius Kane between his Family) Do not mock our generosity, boy," Desjardins warned. "Your father broke our most important law twice: once at Cleopatra's Needle, when he tried to summon the gods and your mother died assisting him. Then again at the British Museum, when your father was foolish enough to use the Rosetta Stone itself. Now your uncle too is missing–" "You know what's happened to Amos? He admitted. (Cp.14; Pg.108; D.5)	√				Condition
6.	(Carter Kane between Sadie Kane) After our last argument in the New York, I wasn't sure how I	√				Relation felt about my brother. The idea that he could be jealous of my life while he got to travel the world with Dad—please! And he had the nerve to call my life normal? All right, I had a few mates at school like Liz and Emma, but my life was hardly easy. If Carter made a social faux pas or met people he didn't like, he could just move on! I had to stay put. (Cp.15; Pg.111; D.6)

7.	(Sadie Kane between Carter Kane) "Lucky you." And yes, perhaps I was beginning to understand that Carter's life with Dad hadn't been all glamour and holiday, but still I couldn't help being a bit jealous. Not that I'd ever wanted to see Graceland, of course, but Dad had never insisted on taking me anywhere—at least until the British Museum trip when he disappeared. I hadn't even known Dad was an Elvis fan, which was rather horrifying. (Cp.24; Pg.194; D.7)	√			Relation
8.	(Julius Kane between the Fiery Man) The fiery man waved his hand. The blue circle at Dad's feet went dark. Dad grabbed for his toolbox, but it skittered across the floor. "Good-bye, Osiris" the fiery man said. With another flick of his hand, he conjured a glowing coffin		√		Violence around our dad. At first it was transparent, but as our father struggled and pounded on its sides, the coffin became more and more solid−a golden Egyptian sarcophagus inlaid with jewels. My dad caught my eyes one last time, and mouthed the word Run! Before the coffin sank into the floor, as if the ground had turned to water.(Cp.2; Pg.21; D.8)

9.	(Zia Rashid between the Goddess) Zia pointed her staff towards the goddess, engulfing her body in fire, Serqet screamed and staggered backwards, but the fire died almost instantly. It left Serget's robes seared and smoking, but the goddess looked more enraged than hurt. (Cp.12; pg.95; D.9)	√		Violence
10.	(Carter Kane between the Crocodile Man) Desperation and rage turned my nerves to steel. I thrust out my want and the wall energy surged outward, slamming into the crocodile so hard, it went flying through the air, tumbling out of river and onto the Mexican shore. While it was on its back, flailing and off balance, I leaped, raising my sword, which was now glowing in my hands, and drove the blade into the monster's belly. I held on while the crocodile thrashed,	√		Violence slowly disintegrating from its snout to the tip of its tail, until stood in the middle of a giant pile of wet sand. (Cp.30; Pg.251; D.10)

11.	(Amos Kane between Set) "Anger burned inside me. Amos's odd behavior finally made sense. Yes he had been controlled by Set, but he'd been fighting it all the way.The conflict I'd felt in him had been his attempts to warn us. He'd almost destroyed himself trying to save us, and Set had thrown him aside like a broken toy. (Cp.37; Pg.296; D.11)		√		Violence
12.	(Horus between Set) "Nice!" he roared. "Completely ineffective, but nice! It will be a pleasure chopping you to bits, Horus, I did your father before you. I will entomb you all in this chamber to increase my storm—all four of my precious sibling, and the storm will be large enough to envelop the world!" (Cp.37;Pg.296; D.12)		√		Violence
13.	(Sadie Kane between Set) Set must be dealt with first, Isis warned. But if I can free Dad…I stepped towards the throne. No, Isis warned. What you might see is too dangerous. What are you talking about? I thought irritably. I put my hand		√		Violence on the golden coffin. Instantly I was ripped from the throne room and into a vision. (Cp.39; Pg.305; D.13)

14.	(Carter Kane between Sadie Kane) After all I'd seen today, I didn't trust anything, but I could hear the fear in Sadie's voice. It triggered an unfamiliar feeling in me, like I needed to reassure her. The idea seemed ridiculous. Sadie had always seemed so much braver than me−doing what she wanted, never caring about the consequences. I was the one who got scared. But right now, I felt like I need to play a role I hadn't played in a long, long time: big brother. (Cp.5; Pg.41; D.14)			√	Relation
15.	(Julius Kane between Ruby Kane) "It has everything to do with that, Sadie. Your parents . . . well, they thought they were doing something good. They took a terrible risk, and it cost your mother her life. Your father took the blame. He was exiled, I suppose you would say. Banished. I realized I was shivering. (Cp.18; Pg.144-145; D.16)
17.	(Desjardins between the Passengers) The cabin devolved into chaos−drinks, books and shoes flying everywhere, oxygen masks dropping and tangling, people screaming for their lives. "Protect the innocents!
